

Australia's sanctions

Since 25 February 2022, Australia has:

- Imposed 14 tranches of targeted financial sanctions and travel bans against 488 Russian and Belarusian individuals and 33 entities (521 in total);
- Amended our sanctions regulations twice to (1) expand our sanctions designation criteria to capture persons or entities of economic or strategic significance to Russia, and (2) extend existing sanctions measures that currently apply to Crimea and Sevastopol to the Donetsk and Luhansk regions of Ukraine; and
- Designated lists of goods as 'import sanctioned goods' and 'export sanctioned goods' for Russia, including (1) prohibiting the import of oil, refined petroleum products, natural gas, coal and other energy product from Russia, and (2) prohibiting the export of aluminium ores (including bauxite), alumina and related products to Russia.

The sanctions are listed in detail below by date.

Tranches of listings – targeted financial sanctions and travel bans imposed

Number	Topic	Date in force
1	New listings: 8 individuals (members of Russia Security Council)	25 February 2022
2	New listings: 25 individuals (including army commanders, Deputy Defence Ministers and mercenaries) and 4 entities (Russian defence industry)	25 February 2022
3	Relistings and new listings: 10 individuals relisted (military roles and separatists) and 4 new entities (Russian banks)	25 February 2022
4	New listings: 339 individuals (members of State Duma) and 8 individuals (oligarchs)	26 February 2022
5	New listings: 7 individuals (Belarussians, including the Minister for Defence) and 6 entities (Belarusian defence companies)	27 February 2022
6	New listings: 5 individuals (President Putin, Foreign Minister, Defence Minister, Prime Minister and Internal Affairs Minister)	28 February 2022
7	New listings: 7 entities (Russian banks, including Central Bank of Russia)	3 March 2022
8	New listings: 6 individuals (Russian generals) and 1 entity (the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation)	8 March 2022
9	New listings: 10 individuals (propogandists/disinformation)	8 March 2022
10	New listings: 33 individuals (oligarchs, including Abramovich)	14 March 2022

Number	Topic	Date in force
11	New listings: 2 individuals (oligarchs – Vekselberg and Deripaska)	18 March 2022
12	New listings: 11 entities (Russian banks, including the National Wealth Fund and the Ministry of Finance of the Russian Federation)	18 March 2022
13	New listings: 22 individuals (propagandists/disinformation)	25 March 2022
14	New listings: 23 individuals (2 Russian army commanders, 18 Belarusians (military) and President Lukashenko, his wife and son)	25 March 2022

Regulatory amendments

Number	Topic	Date in force
1	New Russia designation criteria (item 6A of regulation 6 of the Autonomous Sanctions Regulations 2011 )	25 February 2022
2	Expansion of existing sanctions measures for Crimea and Sevastopol to the Donetsk and Luhansk regions of Ukraine	28 March 2022

New designations of goods

Number	Topic	Date in force
1	Designated list of goods in Chapter 27 of the Australia's tariff codes (oil, refined petroleum products, coal and gas) as 'import sanctioned goods' for Russia	25 April 2022
2	Designated list of goods (aluminium ores, including bauxite; alumina; and related products) as 'export sanctioned goods' for Russia	20 March 2022
3	Designated list of goods (luxury goods) under various Australian tariff codes as 'export sanctioned goods' for Russia	7 April 2022