 QUESTIONS ON NOTICE ADDITIONAL ESTIMATES 2019 – February 2019
 PARLIAMENTARY DEPARTMENTS – Department of Parliamentary Services

No	Division / Branch	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Proof Hansard Page or Written Q	Date Rec'd
1	DPS	Senator Kitching	Security Upgrade - Lendlease contract commencement	Senator KITCHING: What was the date of contract with Lendlease? Mr Cooper: Do you mean the commencement date? Senator KITCHING: Yes. Mr Cooper: I'll just confirm that for you, Senator. Senator, I'll have to get the date of the original contract. I can advise you that the contract between Lendlease and Steelvision was executed in August 2017.	p 8	18- Feb-19
2	DPS	Senator Kitching	Security Upgrade – Clayton Utz and Legal Costs	Senator KITCHING: How much is the Clayton Utz legal work costing? Can you tell me that to the current date and any estimate going forward? Mr Cooper: We will have to take that on notice. ... Senator KITCHING: Can I take it to 1 November last year— ... Senator KITCHING: I'd like a cost on the legals and how much you've spent. So I'm not going to contain that just to Clayton Utz; I want to know the timing and the costs for any legal work or any advice that was also passed on to AGDs. Let's not leave it at AGDs. If there is any other government agency or department from whom you might have sought legal advice or advice, I would like some costings on that—a general cost and then a breakdown of any cost that has occurred. My understanding is that Steelvision has an administrator. Mr Stefanic: It's under voluntary administration at the moment. Senator KITCHING: Okay. And I'd like to know the cost of any correspondence you might have had with the administrator—with Hamilton Murphy, I think it is. Mr Stefanic: We have had no direct communication with the administrator. So, for clarity, you are seeking legal costs in relation to dealings with Steelvision, in association with Steelvision? Senator KITCHING: No, I'd like to know the legal costs of the contract from the beginning, so Clayton Utz. I think either Mr Healy or Mr Cooper said that Clayton Utz was doing—have they always been the solicitors on the record in relation to this matter? Mr Healy: Yes.	p 9	18- Feb-19
3	DPS	Senator Kitching	Security Upgrade – Legal Advice	Senator KITCHING: Just checking. Were they the ones who gave you the advice about the form of the contract? Was it the construction division at Clayton Utz? Mr Healy: As Mr Cooper said, none of us were here at the time, but another company, RPS, who were a project management company—they were known as Point Project Management at the time; they've changed the name of the company since then—were engaged to give advice on the best form of contract back in 2015. Senator KITCHING: They're a construction project management company, are they? Mr Healy: That's correct.	p 10	18- Feb-19

				Senator KITCHING: Did you run their advice by Clayton Utz? Mr Healy: I would have to take that on notice.
4	DPS	Senator Kitching	Security Upgrade – Spend to Date	The PRESIDENT: The first issue was 2018. I know because on taking this role I was briefed on the issue when the project was about to start in November 2017. I think it was March, or April it might have been, that there was a Victorian government court case after the Victorian government gave Steelvision a grant and then another part of the Victorian government decided to take it to court in the same month but that didn't go anywhere. The issue with the delivery of this project, I would say early June was the time which I indicated in my statement. But the delay at that point looked short. Senator KITCHING: Of the $75 million for this contract, how much have you paid so far? Mr Cooper: I will have to get that figure for you, Senator, if we have it.	p 11	18- Feb-19
5	DPS	Senator McAllister	Security Upgrade – Issues	Senator McALLISTER: On how many occasions did DPS raise queries with Lendlease about Steelvision's supplier payment arrangements? Mr Healy: On quite a few occasions. This was the subject of meetings, which were happening every few days, where we had concern about the payments. Senator McALLISTER: Can you document on how many occasions you raised the issue with Lendlease? Mr Healy: I would need to take that on notice, and that's not something I could respond to quickly. Senator McALLISTER: I understand. Were they raised exclusively in those management meetings, or were they raised in writing? Mr Healy: I'll take that on notice. I believe they were in writing—some of them. Some of them were in meetings. But I'll take that on notice.	p 12	18- Feb-19
6	DPS	Senator Kitching	Internal Doors	Senator KITCHING: I want to move on to another topic. Can I put some questions on notice on the internal doors? How many internal doors have required maintenance or repair in the last six months? The PRESIDENT: Just to clarify, do you mean the link ways and things? Senator KITCHING: No, I mean parliamentarian suite doors. Can the department indicate the nature of each fault? How many could be classified as wear and tear and how many faults have been associated with the installation of the new security swipe-card system? Is it true that one of the doors leading to the ministerial courtyard has been inoperative since October 2018? How many doors are presently non-functional? The operation of the doors is critical for security purposes, so is the fact that some may be non-functional a security issue? Can the department explain the delays in having the doors repaired? And is the contractor, in this case BAE, at fault? The PRESIDENT: Sure.	p 14	18- Feb-19

				Senator KITCHING: And what's the quantum around that? I want you to take those questions on notice. I would like them back—you've 30 days, but faster would be appreciated
7	DPS	Senator Bernardi	Library Staff	Senator BERNARDI: Do you feel—I shouldn't ask about how you feel—or is there a risk that that may compromise or be seen to compromise the integrity of the parliamentary librarians' impartiality? Dr Heriot: It is something that we regard seriously in terms of a potential perceived conflict. For example, when someone has been seconded, we take steps around their reintegration so that they would, for example, work in a different policy area to the one they had been working in when seconded. That's to create an assurance, for example, that they're not dealing on specialist knowledge that they have acquired in that regard. Also, a staff member was once seconded to support a senator but in their committee duties rather than in broad duties. We try to handle it dextrously. It doesn't happen a great deal, but I'm aware, in terms of my tenure and that of my predecessors, that it has happened from time to time. We try to put careful measures around it. Senator BERNARDI: Would you be able to provide me, on notice, with a list? I don't need the individual names, but the list of staff from the Parliamentary Library who have been seconded into either political parties or political offices and the nature of those—meaning: are they Liberal, Labor, Greens, National, Independent? Dr Heriot: Do you have a time frame for that, Senator? Senator BERNARDI: On notice; I don't need it today. I beg your pardon—I'm not going to say, 'Go back through the whole history.' Let's just deal with the last few years. Is that all right? Dr Heriot: Okay. I'll make best endeavours.	p 16	18- Feb-19
8	DPS	Senator Bernardi	APH Food preparation	Senator BERNARDI: Sure. In respect, is all the food prepared within Parliament House? Mr Stefanic: I would have to take—are you talking percentage terms? Senator BERNARDI: Well, I'll tell you about a specific. This is what was suggested to me—that, for example, meat is brought into Parliament House, it is cooked here and then it's shipped to Sydney to make pies, which then come back here. Would that be correct? Mr Stefanic: It's my understanding that all our pastries are made in-house. That is why I was talking percentage terms. A large proportion of our products are made in-house. But I'll get some clarity— Senator BERNARDI: Perhaps you can give me the percentage terms—I'm intrigued to know this	p 17	18- Feb-19

9	DPS	Senator Bernardi	Code of Conduct – Investigation process	Senator BERNARDI: And what is the process for managing that code of conduct complaint? Mr Stefanic: I might defer to Ms Saunders, who might be able to provide some detail. Ms Saunders: Both of those investigations are being undertaken by external investigators. Senator BERNARDI: Are you able to tell me who's undertaking them, which firm? Ms Saunders: I will have to take one on notice, because I can't remember the name. One is being undertaken by Ashurst, a legal firm. They also have an investigation area.	p 17	18- Feb-19
10	DPS	Senator Bernardi	CFO Headcount	Senator BERNARDI: But it is still being managed by DPS. It hasn't been outsourced to anyone else. Mr Creagh: Absolutely. Senator BERNARDI: How many people are in that unit now? Mr Creagh: The central rosters unit, at the moment, has four people— Senator BERNARDI: That's doing pays and everything, is it? Mr Creagh: No, just the central rosters unit. Let me correct that. Senator BERNARDI: I'm thinking about your whole co-located— Mr Creagh: My whole co-located team, because it's payroll for the entire department—I'd have to take that on notice because I can't do a headcount in my head right now. Senator BERNARDI: Sure. I might put another few questions on notice for you, Mr Creagh. Thank you.	p 19	18- Feb-19
11	DPS	Senator Kitching	Comcare improvement notice	Senator KITCHING: I will read a short extract from Comcare's website: If an inspector encounters a situation that amounts to, or may amount to, a contravention of the Commonwealth Work Health and Safety Act 2011...or the Commonwealth Work Health and Safety Regulations 2011... the inspector may decide to issue an improvement notice. The issuance of the improvement notice formally confirms and records the contravention of the Commonwealth Work Health and Safety Act, so the department has actually not followed the law. Are you able to produce a copy of that improvement notice? Mr Anderson: Yes, we can produce a copy. Senator KITCHING: Are you able to produce it now? Mr Anderson: I don't have it with me at the moment. Senator KITCHING: But your officers are in the building, so we could have it shortly? Mr Anderson: I can give you a brief summary of what the— Senator KITCHING: No, I'd like to see the notice as well. Mr Anderson: No worries. Mr Stefanic: We'll take that on notice	p 20-21	18- Feb-19

12	DPS	Senator Kitching	Payroll Systems Error	Senator KITCHING: I am happy for you to take this on notice, because I want to go very quickly to another topic: I think an error occurred in the payroll systems on or about 7 November 2018. Is that correct? Mr Creagh: I'm not aware, Senator. Senator KITCHING: Would you mind taking that on notice? Mr Creagh: Senator, without specific details, it's very difficult for me to— Senator KITCHING: 'An upload of information to one of the payroll systems caused another miscalculation of the leave balances on or around 7 November last.' Mr Creagh: I can take that on notice, but I'm not aware of anything.	p 21-22	18-Feb-19
