

Registration

as at 28 February 2021

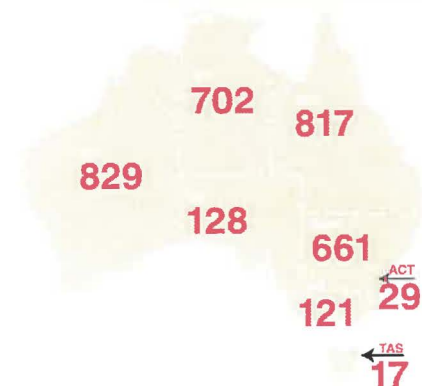

3304

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporations including 225

registered native title bodies corporate

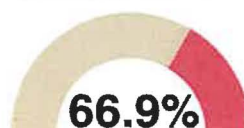

During the month

Priorities and issues

Flexible regulation and support for crisis
Replacing business systems
Financial reporting and capability
Possible reforms to the CATSI Act, Native Title Act
Director identification numbers

Monitoring

Compliant with 2019–20
reporting obligations
(reports were due by 31 Dec 2020)

Examinations

9 in progress
15 finalised

Investigations

8 on hand
3 finalised

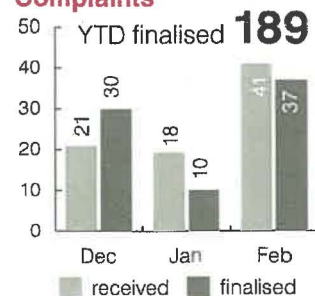

Support

Call centre 1,254 calls were made to ORIC's 1800 number during February (7,867 calls YTD)

Inquiries received

	YTD	During the month
4003 by phone	345
1040 in writing	140
10 in person	2

Complaints

Training

During the past year, we held 9 workshops
all tailored for individual corporations with 54 participants from

from 9 corporations

The COVID-19 pandemic forced us to halt delivery of training workshops from February 2020. ORIC has resumed face-to-face training from March 2021 although with reduced class sizes.

Dispute assistance

Remedy and deter

13 Compliance notices issued

4 Special administrations in progress

Bourke Aboriginal Corporation Health Service (NSW, started December 2020)

Adnyamathanha Traditional Lands Association (Aboriginal Corporation) RNTBC (SA, started March 2020)

Central Australian Aboriginal Media Association (Aboriginal Corporation) (NT, started March 2020)

Ngallagunda Aboriginal Corporation (WA, started November 2016)

7 finalised this year:

6 handed back to members' control;
1 entered liquidation

Prosecutions in progress

1 criminal:

Registrar v Evans

Prosecution outcomes

this year:

2 criminal:

2017–18 minor regulatory prosecutions

— 3 matters finalised
(1 good behaviour bond; fine $4000; fine $400)

0 civil