

Yes/No Pamphlet indicative timeline

following bill passage.

Translation services to commence as close as practicable to day zero and be complete and available on AEC website by day 45.

Production and distribution to be complete by day 45.

Key points

1. The combination of the pink and blue boxes represents the minimum 2 month period which must occur prior to the issue of the writ.
2. The purple box representing the writ period is 33 days until voting day. This is the minimum period, which could be up to 58 days
3. Distribution start points are yet to be discussed with printers and logistical providers, they are indicative only.