1	ASC Pty Ltd	Gallacher	Voluntary Redundancies	Senator GALLACHER: Would you be able to produce the figure on voluntary redundancies for the financial year to date? Do you know how much you've spent on redundancies in the financial year to date, and 2017-18 and 2016-17? Mr Cuthill: I don't have that to hand, but that's something we can take on notice. Senator GALLACHER: Would you not have even this year? I can understand not having the historical data, but— Mr Cuthill: I know the numbers, as in the actual headcount, but I don't know the dollars. Senator GALLACHER: In the financial year to date, what's the headcount? Mr Cuthill: The headcount for voluntary redundancies is 67. Senator GALLACHER: And forced redundancies? Mr Cuthill: That is 101. Senator GALLACHER: And you'd be able to produce those figures for the two financial years prior and the year to date? Mr Cuthill: Yes. We can take that on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 39-40
2	ASC Pty Ltd	Gallacher	Number of Employees	Senator GALLACHER: Are you able to break it down between how many are based at Osborne and how many are at Henderson? Mr Whiley: I don't think I have that breakdown. Senator Cormann: We can take that on notice. Mr Whiley: I can take that on notice. Senator GALLACHER: Are you able to give us any further information about the breakdown of the various trades, roles and functions of employees based at Osborne and Henderson? Mr Whiley: I'll take that on notice as well and give you the breakdown. ... Mr Whiley: Sorry, between Western Australia and South Australia, I can give you approximate numbers. Senator GALLACHER: Okay. Mr Whiley: It's about 350 in Western Australia, in terms of total, and the rest remain in South Australia. That's the approximate breakdown. In terms of the trade, I would definitely have to take that on notice. I wouldn't want to speculate on that. Senator GALLACHER: Okay. But is the split about 350, subject to clarification? Mr Whiley: Yes, and the remainder is in South Australia. Senator GALLACHER: Are you able to break that up into contractors, subcontractors and— Mr Whiley: Yes, I can break that up. The numbers actually change, at any one time, depending on what type of work we're doing on what type of platform. The number of contractors is quite a dynamic number. It does change, quite considerably.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 46
3	ASC Pty Ltd	Gallacher	Recruitment – ASC Submarines	Senator GALLACHER: Is ASC submarines having any issues in recruiting skilled employees to replace those who've left?	Hansard Proof, 23 October

				... Senator GALLACHER: What is the average time taken to fill a vacancy? Mr Whiley: I would guess it is around three months. We do have stats on that, so I can take it on notice, but I would guess about three to four months.	2018, F&PA Committee, Page 46-47
4	Future Fund	McAllister	Nine and Fairfax Merger	Senator McALLISTER: ... When the Nine and Fairfax merger was being considered, was that declared to the Future Fund? Senator Cormann: I'll take that on notice. I'm very confident that an experienced board director and an experienced senior contributor in Australia for a very long time manages any conflicts as they arise—competently, appropriately and professionally. But in terms of the specifics, if you want to give me your questions, I'll take them on notice and pass them on and I'll make sure you get a timely answer.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 56
5	MO	Kitching	Meetings with Future Fund Chair	Senator KITCHING: Let's just start with how often you meet with him annually. Senator Cormann: I'd have to take on notice the frequency of meetings in recent times. The last meeting would have been about six or seven weeks ago, but of course we talk on the phone—even as required, too.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 56
6	Future Fund	Kitching	Quadrant	Senator KITCHING: Could I go to a report in July that the Rockpool Dining Group had been underpaying staff. It was reported that the Future Fund is a significant investor through the Quadrant Private Equity No. 4 fund. How much has the Future Fund invested in that fund? Dr Arndt: As you point out, it's correct that we're an investor in Quadrant and our relationship to this situation is via them. I don't believe that we've announced the size of the investment—I'd be happy to take it on notice—but it would be in the order of a couple of hundred million dollars.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 57
7	Future Fund	Kitching	Stephen Gilmore	Senator KITCHING: How long had Mr Gilmore been there? Mr Neal: If you want a precise answer I'll probably need to take that on notice, but my guess is eight years.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 58
8	Finance	Kitching	Energy Supplement	Senator KITCHING: I'll go to the energy supplement. It was announced on 22 August last that the government would no longer be proceeding with its measure to abolish the energy supplement. ... Does this mean that the decision to no longer abolish the energy supplement was made prior to the 2018 budget? Senator Cormann: No. The decision was made shortly before it was announced, but we did make a provision in the contingency reserve. That is what a contingency reserve is for: to make sure that, should we be in a situation where we had to make that decision, we would be able to do so without a relevant impact on the budget bottom line. Senator McALLISTER: Just from a budget perspective, it was not in the line 'Decisions taken but not yet	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 72, 73

				announced'? Senator Cormann: We made a provision in the contingency reserve to be able to accommodate a future decision in relation to this, should it be required. ... Senator McALLISTER: It's a discrete category. My question is, was this decision counted in the figures provided for that discrete category of decisions? Senator Cormann: I'm going to take on notice the specific treatment at the time. My recollection is that we made a provision in anticipation of a future event, but on notice I will make absolutely certain that I give you the accurate information. Senator KITCHING: Was that a decision of cabinet? Senator Cormann: All budget decisions are ultimately a decision of cabinet. We've gone through the budget process on a number of occasions before. Obviously there are submissions that go to the Expenditure Review Committee. The Expenditure Review Committee considers items that come before the ERC. Of course that's a subcommittee of the cabinet. Ultimately, as part of the budget process, all relevant decisions are then made by the cabinet. Senator KITCHING: Do you know when, precisely, the decision was made? Senator Cormann: I'll have to take that on notice.
9	MO	Kitching	Pension Qualifying Age	Senator KITCHING: It was announced by the Prime Minister on the Today show on 4 September that the policy to increase the qualifying age for the pension to 70 was being dumped and that it would be taken to cabinet the following week. Were you aware that the Prime Minister would be making this announcement prior to it being taken to cabinet? Senator Cormann: Yes. Senator KITCHING: When did you become aware of it? Senator Cormann: I'll have to take that on notice. Senator KITCHING: Were there other ministers aware of it? Senator Cormann: Yes. Senator KITCHING: Was it ERC that was aware of it? Senator Cormann: I'll have to take the details on notice. Ultimately, the Prime Minister made certain public statements that you're aware of. It was taken to cabinet in the way that it was publicly explained. In terms of the sequence, as one of the economic ministers I was one of the early members of the cabinet that were consulted, for obvious reasons. Beyond that, I'll take on notice the precise timing.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 74
10	Finance	Kitching	Unlegislated Savings Measures	Senator KITCHING: On notice, can you provide a list of all unlegislated savings measures? Senator Cormann: Yes, we can. Senator KITCHING: In that, could we also have the underlying cash balance impact over the forward estimates? Senator Cormann: Yes.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 74

11	Finance	Kitching	5G Mobile Spectrum	Senator KITCHING: Have you received any advice or correspondence from the Minister for Communications and the Arts—if there is a reduction in the number of bidders, have you received any advice from the communications minister on what that might do to the forward estimates? Senator Cormann: You're asking a hypothetical question. I'm not aware of any such correspondence, for starters, but I'm happy to take that part of it on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 75
12	Finance	McAllister	MYEFO and Decisions Taken But Not Yet Announced	Senator McALLISTER: That's true. Apologies if Senator Kitching has already asked, but I'm hoping you can provide an updated list of MYEFO measures that were decisions taken—sorry, a list of measures taken in—sorry. Bad question. You have previously provided a list of decisions taken but not yet announced— Senator Cormann: We'll provide it on notice. Senator McALLISTER: Can you provide an update on that please, in the terms that were done for question on notice F030. Senator Cormann: Yes.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 76
13	Finance	McAllister	NBN Loan Extension	Senator McALLISTER: Minister, can I ask you about a separate, but related, question, which is the decision to extend the loan to the NBN until 30 June 2024. The previous arrangements saw the loan repayment being made in 2020-21, and I understand from the NBN corporate plan that the Commonwealth has now agreed to extend the loan. Who made that decision? Senator Cormann: It was a decision through the budget process in the usual way. Senator McALLISTER: Through the budget process. So it was made in the preparation of the budget? Senator Cormann: In terms of timing, I'd have to take that on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 83
14	Finance	McAllister	Assessment of NBN Financial Information	Senator McALLISTER: I do have a few final questions about the NBN financing arrangements. Minister, you've indicated that you consider on balance that it was in the best interests of the taxpayer to extend the loan repayment date to 2024. What process was undertaken to arrive at that conclusion? Senator Cormann: Every year in the lead-up to the corporate plan there's a level of engagement between NBN and shareholder ministers. In the context of the engagement between shareholder ministers and the board of NBN, we formed certain views that we then put through the normal Expenditure Review Committee process and the announcement was ultimately made, as you are aware. Senator McALLISTER: Did the Department of Finance assist in assessing the financial information provided by the NBN? Senator Cormann: Yes. Senator McALLISTER: Did you engage any external assistance to do that, Ms Huxtable? Ms Huxtable: Yes, we did. Senator McALLISTER: Who was that, Ms Huxtable? Ms Huxtable: Ernst &amp; Young. Senator McALLISTER: Just them? Ms Huxtable: I believe so, yes. Senator McALLISTER: Do we have the value of the contract for Ernst &amp; Young?	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 84

15	Finance	McAllister	NBN – Peak Funding Requirements	Senator McALLISTER: Have you been presented with any options where an extended NBN rollout timetable would reduce peak funding requirements? Senator Cormann: I'll take the specifics on notice to assess to what extent we can share these things with you. There are a range of options always. Decision-making by cabinet and through the Expenditure Review Committee invariably involves considering a number of alternative options so that you can make a decision on the best possible option for the future. Given that it goes to deliberations by cabinet and cabinet committees, I'm reluctant to go into content, but without confirming the specifics, in the broad, I'm happy to confirm that, when cabinet makes decisions in relation to these sorts of matters, invariably we do consider a range of options before making a final decision.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 85
16	Finance	McAllister	Finance Staff – Leave Balances	Senator McALLISTER: What proportion of your staff would have a leave balance greater than four weeks? Mr Dilley: I'd probably need to take that on notice. It's not significant. I would need to take that on notice, yes. Senator McALLISTER: In answering, could you also provide the absolute numbers and proportion of staff who would have a leave balance of more than eight weeks? Mr Dilley: The eight weeks would equate to around the 40 days. That's where we try and maintain below that. We'll take it on notice. Senator McALLISTER: Well, perhaps those that exceed the 40-day threshold. If that is a dataset that is more easily accessible, I would be satisfied with an answer in those terms. For the shorter period of four weeks, if you are able to assemble an answer in that way, I would appreciate it. Mr Dilley: Sure.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 90
17	Finance	Marshall	Reporting of Bullying or Harassment	Senator MARSHALL: How many inquiries go on to make formal complaints? Ms Jones: I would have to take that on notice. We have numbers of the volumes of calls that we receive on an annual basis, and there are many thousands. For the number of those that translate into formal complaints, I would have to take that on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 91
18	Finance	Marshall	Formal Complaints Received	Senator MARSHALL: How many formal complaints did you have last year from staff against politicians? Ms Jones: I don't have that figure with me, but I can provide that on notice. Senator MARSHALL: Is it hundreds? Surely you'd know that. For a complaint to be made, it would be something that actually registers with you. I hardly think this is the in the back drawer of information only to be opened when someone asks the question. Ms Jones: No, but, as I said, it does depend on the actual nature of it. It could be a workplace health and safety issue— Senator MARSHALL: I'm talking about bullying complaints. That's why I made this clear up-front. I'm talking about complaints by staff against their employing member of parliament. How many evaluations—I think that's what you call an investigation; is that right? 19	Finance	Marshall	Number of Bullying Complaints against Members of Parliament	Senator MARSHALL: How many members of parliament have had a formal complaint made against them for bullying? Ms Jones: Over which period? Senator MARSHALL: Well, I have been here nearly 16 years too long, so in my case it's 16 years. Someone brand new—the newest person here is Senator Paterson. You've only been here three years or four years. CHAIR: Two and a half years. How time flies when you're having fun! Senator MARSHALL: In his case, it's 2½ years. Ms Jones: We would have to take that on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 92
20	Finance	Marshall	Evaluations/ Investigations	Senator MARSHALL: How many evaluations—is that what you call them? Do we call them evaluations or investigations? Ms Jones: Investigation would be the most formal process that we would undertake. Senator MARSHALL: I can't see the word 'investigation' in any of the policy documents; I only see the word 'evaluation'. Are you telling me there is a two-level process? I could be wrong; I'm not pretending to be an expert on the policies. Ms Jones: I'd need to check that. Senator MARSHALL: Maybe you could take that on notice. If there are two levels, I'd like to know. How many evaluations/investigations supported, fully or in part, the complaint? Ms Jones: I'll take that on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 92
21	Finance	Marshall	Action Taken as a Result of Complaints	Senator MARSHALL: ... What actions were taken as a result of each complaint that was found either partly or fully supported? Ms Jones: We could take that on notice, although there will be some issues in terms of the confidentiality of that information. If we can provide it perhaps in a de-identified way, we could do that. But there will be issues, potentially, in relation to the privacy of both the complainant and the person against whom the complaint was made.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 92
22	Finance	Marshall	Participation in Evaluation/ Investigation	Senator MARSHALL: The policy recommends that the member of parliament should participate in an evaluation or investigation. How many times did a member of parliament not participate? Ms Jones: I would have to take that on notice. Can I clarify the time period— Senator MARSHALL: Initially, to try to coax some information out of you, I said 12 months, but I am actually talking about against each politician, so of course it's a different time period for each one. I'm not interested in members that have already left, so you don't have to go back through any historical, archived records. This is people live right now. Ms Jones: That would entail looking at a large number. Senator MARSHALL: Is there anyone here who does the investigations? Who does the investigations? Ms Jones: Depending on the nature of the incident, we often use expert investigators that we engage for this	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 92

				purpose, in the same way that the department often does that in relation to investigations for our own staff.  Senator MARSHALL: All right, well let's come back to my question. The policy recommends that the member of parliament participate in any such inquiry, so in how many instances did an MP not participate? When I say MP, I mean MP or senator—members of parliament.  Ms Jones: We'll take that on notice.
23	Finance	Marshall	Complainants	Senator MARSHALL: ... How many complainants were terminated as a consequence of the investigation?  Ms Jones: I would have to take that on notice.  Senator MARSHALL: But there were some, weren't there?  Ms Jones: I couldn't confirm that at all.  Senator MARSHALL: How many complainants were restructured out of their jobs?  Ms Jones: I'd have to take that on notice.  Senator MARSHALL: How many complainants were made redundant?  Ms Jones: I would have to have to take that on notice.  Senator MARSHALL: How many complainants made a Comcare claim either before or after making a complaint about bullying?  Ms Jones: I would have to take that on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 93
24	Finance	Marshall	Complaints Resulting in Inquiry - Members of Parliament	Senator MARSHALL: How many members of parliament had more than one complaint that resulted in an inquiry and that complaint was either partially or fully supported?  Ms Jones: I couldn't provide an answer to that. We would have to look into the record of that and take it on notice.  Senator MARSHALL: I'd like you to tell me how many members of parliament had more than one and how many that is.  Ms Jones: We'll take that on notice.  Senator MARSHALL: Do you know if any have had more than six?  Ms Jones: I couldn't answer that. I'm not aware of that, but we can look at that.  Senator MARSHALL: Are you aware of any members of parliament who have had multiple complaints and investigations that have either fully or partially supported the complainant?  Ms Jones: We'd have to take that on notice.  Senator MARSHALL: Because you don't know or because you don't want to tell me?  Ms Jones: I don't have that sort of data with me here. We would have to look into those records.  Senator MARSHALL: Do you know if there are any multiple complaints that have been partially or fully supported?  Ms Jones: No, I would have to take that on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 93, 94
25	Finance	Marshall	Comcare Support	Senator MARSHALL: How many employees or now ex-employees are still being supported on Comcare as a consequence of a bullying claim?  Ms Jones: I don't have that information. 26	Finance	Marshall	Legal Action	Senator MARSHALL: How many legal cases have been brought against the department as a result of a bullying claim? Ms Jones: In relation to MOP(S) Act staff? Senator MARSHALL: At the very beginning, I said my questions were about this policy and MOP(S) Act staff in relation to parliamentarians. They wouldn't necessarily be. The employer is actually MOP(S) Act staff. I don't expect you to know the private business they might have with a parliamentarian. That would be quite different. So I'm asking about the department. Ms Jones: In general, there is potential for the department to be joined in a matter but, as you've noted, in most instances, it would be a matter where the employing parliamentarian would be the person that an action was taken against. But we'd have to take that on notice for you. Ms Huxtable: Just to be clear, in terms of those requests, are you looking for a particular time frame? Senator MARSHALL: Again, I'm looking at the effective record of each member of parliament, so the time frame will be different for each one. But I'm sure, just like there's a file on all your staff, there's a file on all of us that MOPS keep in relation to these matters. Surely? There is, isn't there? Ms Jones: We do keep records. Senator MARSHALL: Thank you. Ms Huxtable: But how long do those records go back? I don't know the answer to that. Senator MARSHALL: Well, since day one, we come, we get paid, we have arrangements made. I'm sure there are files kept. Ms Huxtable: We'll have a look. Senator MARSHALL: No-one's suggesting there isn't, is there? Ms Jones: We keep records as a matter of practice. Senator MARSHALL: Of course. Ms Jones: The issue is in terms of access to them, if we're talking members of parliament who have been in parliament for 15, 20 years. But, obviously, we comply with all Archives Act requirements so we can look into that for you. Senator MARSHALL: I'm pretty confident the information's there. 28	Finance	Farrell	Change to Employment Arrangements	Senator FARRELL: Okay. Because of the closeness to the dates, obviously, you haven't got that answer, so could I ask for this question to be taken on notice? To take up your point, Secretary, we're talking about people who have had their employment arrangements changed as a result of the removal of the Prime Minister. How many of those staff who have changed employers resigned; or been made redundant; or been terminated; or promoted; or changed to other roles within the government? If you could provide that information to us, I'd appreciate it. Ms Huxtable: We can take that on notice and look at what we've got.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 97
29	Finance	Farrell	Severance Payments	Senator FARRELL: ... How many of the staff who received severance pay were in the office of the former Prime Minister, Prime Minister Turnbull? I guess you don't know the answer to that? Ms Frazer: Once again, Senator, we have to take that on notice. Senator FARRELL: How many of these staff who received severance payments were in the office of the former foreign minister, Ms Bishop? What was the total dollar value of these severance payments? I take it you would be able to provide that information to us? Ms Jones: We can take that on notice, but I would just note one thing, and I know that you're aware because this has come up in a slightly similar context; it's the issue around personal information.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 97
30	Finance	Farrell	APS Employees Ceasing MOP(s) Act Employment	Senator FARRELL: You wouldn't classify that as a termination as such, though, would you? Those people would have continuous ongoing employment. Am I right then? Ms Huxtable: Yes. They're attached to a department or on a period of leave. They're employed under the MOP(S) Act and they return to their department or make other arrangements as APS employees. Senator FARRELL: So I'm assuming that in that group it would be reasonably unlikely for a termination to have occurred because, for whatever reason, their services were no longer required, they didn't like what had happened or they didn't like the new minister that they had been allocated to. They would have just gone back to whatever department they came from. Ms Huxtable: I think they're a separate category of people. Ms Frazer: For the purposes of those Public Service employees, though, their MOP(S) Act employment is terminated and they return to Public Service employment. Senator FARRELL: If they happened to have been on the government payroll for the last five years, would they qualify for a severance payment along the lines of all other MOP(S) Act employees in those circumstances? Ms Barons: No. If they were an APS employee, they would return to the Public Service. Senator FARRELL: Even if they were a MOP(S) Act employee and they've been terminated because their service is no longer required, they wouldn't qualify for a severance payment. Ms Barons: Correct. They go back to their Commonwealth agency. Senator FARRELL: All right. 31	Finance	Farrell	Government Staff Movements	Senator FARRELL: ..How many government staff have been moved to other offices within the government as a result of the removal of the Prime Minister and the subsequent reshuffle—directly to the ministerial and parliamentary service and the Department of Finance? Without providing any individual names or private details, how many individual government staff have left the employment of government ministers, assistant ministers and members of parliament in the two months since the removal of the Prime Minister? How many sets of new staff employment framework documents were submitted by the government ministers and members of parliament in the two months since the removal of the Prime Minister?  Ms Huxtable: We can take that on notice. What we would have is information in relation to where we were requested to prepare a contract for someone. In terms of any decisions that were taken elsewhere in government, we may not have visibility of that. Our role is to prepare and administer the contracts once an offer has been made.  Senator FARRELL: Yes. I only want the information you are capable of giving me. Thank you.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 100
32	Finance	Polley	Recognition of Parties	Senator POLLEY: I had one quick question relating to the recognition of parties. What are the criteria when someone like, for instance, Senator Pauline Hanson is classified as being a party? So is Senator Hitchens. What are the criteria that have to be met for a party? Is it just that you can establish a political party, make yourself the leader and get three additional staff? Is there a number of members or elected members that have to meet a criteria?  CHAIR: I think this has been raised in previous estimates. Correct me if I'm wrong, but I think an independent senator or an independent senator in a grouping with others receives the same allocation; there's no difference.  Senator Seselja: I think it's in the tabled document.  Senator POLLEY: It is in the document, but some are recognised as leaders and others are just listed as their individual selves. To be a party leader, Senator Hinch is the only member, so why is he different from the other independents? Senator Hanson has had her members reduced so there are only two of them now, so—  Ms Jones: We could take that on notice, but my understanding is that the AEC plays a role in formally recognising parties. We can take that on notice, but it may also be something that they can assist this committee with later this evening.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 100
33	Finance	Farrell	Staffing - Special Envoys	Senator FARRELL: Are you able to find out what they're doing? Are you able to ask that question of Mr Joyce and Mr Abbott? What are they doing with two additional staff? We saw last week the confusion over the racist motion that was moved that was as a result of mistakes by staffing. Obviously, with four fewer staff, the Prime Minister's making some errors. Why has the Prime Minister given two extra staff to former Prime Minister Abbott and former deputy leader Joyce? Can you find out that for us?	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 105

				Senator Seselja: To the extent that it applies to the portfolio that I'm here representing, I'm very happy to take the question on notice.
34	Finance	Farrell	Staff Paid Above the Salary Band	Senator FARRELL: ... But perhaps I didn't make myself clear enough when I asked the earlier question. The practice of the former Prime Minister, Prime Minister Turnbull, was to pay various staff more than the published salary bands. As you have just indicated, Ms Jones, that might come into two categories, but, either way, there's a group of people that are being paid above the published relevant bands through one mechanism or another. I'm asking, Minister: is the new Prime Minister, Prime Minister Morrison, going to continue with that practice of the former Prime Minister? Senator Seselja: Look, I don't know the answer to that question so I will take it on notice for you, Senator Farrell. Senator FARRELL: Thank you. The minister previously stated on notice that the figure in May was 26 staff that were being paid above the salary bands. What's the current number? Ms Huxtable: We will have to take that on notice, Senator. I don't know that number. ... Senator FARRELL: Without revealing personal details, can you tell us which minister's office these staff are located in? I know in the past the former Prime Minister, Mr Turnbull, would not release that information. What I'm really saying here is: will the new Prime Minister, Prime Minister Morrison, be a little bit more transparent and provide us with that information? Ms Huxtable: I just note that we'll take the question on notice and carefully consider what we can provide in response. Senator FARRELL: While you're doing that, will the new Prime Minister be prepared to reveal how many people in his office are on the higher salary band? The previous Prime Minister wasn't prepared to do that. Ms Huxtable: I think what I'm saying, perhaps too subtly, is that we, the Department of Finance, will take the question on notice and we will determine what we can provide in response.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 106
35	Finance	Farrell	Continuing Practice of Paying Above the Band	Senator FARRELL: ... Minister, would you be prepared to ask the new Prime Minister whether he's prepared to change the practice of the former Prime Minister and follow the practice of that gold standard of Prime Ministers, Prime Minister Gillard, and release this information? Senator Seselja: Well, I'm here in the capacity of representing the Department of Finance, so we'll take the question on notice, and the department will come back to you with an answer.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 107
36	Finance	Farrell	Salaries Above the Range – Aggregate Increase	Senator FARRELL: Yes, but an addition of two per cent of $761,004 wouldn't equate to $836,000, would it? Ms Huxtable: No, not that alone, but that is obviously a factor that has contributed to that. Senator FARRELL: A factor, yes, but the conclusion that you would draw from the difference between those two figures is that, in addition to the two per cent salary increase, the figure has in fact gone up over that three-month period. Ms Jones: There is a difference in that total aggregate figure, and I think Ms Huxtable is correct that some of	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 107, 108

				that is attributable to the application of the two per cent pay increase. Senator FARRELL: I perfectly accept that proposition, but the two per cent doesn't explain the fact that the figure has gone up by that quantum, which is in addition to the two per cent increase. Ms Huxtable: I think the evidence was that it partially explains it. Senator FARRELL: Yes, but in addition to the two per cent let's call it national wage rise or EBA rise, the figure has gone up by more than the increase in the EBA. It was confirmed on notice that the number of staff in this category was 26 and that did not change. Ms Huxtable: I don't know whether individuals may have changed. The number of staff may have stayed the same, but the individuals may have changed. I don't know the answer to that. Senator FARRELL: So it doesn't necessarily follow that everybody has got an increase over and above the two per cent EBA? Ms Huxtable: I would say that probably follows. What may not follow, though, is that we are necessarily talking about the same 26 staff members in February as in May. There may have been movements, ons and offs. I'm not sure. Senator FARRELL: Let's think about this. The only way that we could get to that extra amount of money if the number of staff has stayed the same is that, if there have been replacement staff, they've come in at a higher rate of pay than the people they've replaced. I'm right, aren't I, that that's the only way you could get to a higher figure? Ms Huxtable: I think we probably have to go away and have a look at it and see if we can provide you with any more information. Senator FARRELL: I am happy to be corrected on that, but it would seem to me that, as night follows day, that's how it would work. Can you tell us what the new figure is for this category? Ms Huxtable: I think that's the one that we've taken on notice.
37	Finance	Farrell	Salaries Above the Range – Amounts	Senator FARRELL: ...While you're taking questions on notice, without naming individual staff could you please provide us with the individual amounts that each staff member is paid above the established salary band? 40	Finance	Farrell	Bullying Between MOP(s) Act Employees	Senator FARRELL: Again, this might have already been covered by the questions Senator Marshall asked earlier, but how many investigations involving allegations of bullying between MOP(S) Act employees are currently under way? I think his questions might have related to a member of parliament and a MOP(S) Act employee. My question relates to allegations of bullying between two MOP(S) Act employees.  Ms Jones: We'd have to take that on notice, Senator.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 109
41	Finance	Farrell	Minister Wyatt's Office - Allegations	Senator FARRELL: We know from a number of media reports of allegations of bullying in the office of Minister Wyatt. Can the department confirm that, as reported in the media, there was or indeed is an investigation into bullying in that office?  Ms Jones: In terms of a matter like that, obviously you would understand that it's particularly sensitive in terms of the specifics of an actual investigation. Whilst I acknowledge that there has been information in the media, there's been no direct information or confirmation from the department. In light of the personal issues involved, we would prefer to take that on notice. It is challenging for us to reveal any information in regard to investigations.  Senator DEAN SMITH: Is there an obligation on you to respect the privacy of MOP(S) employees?  Ms Jones: That is certainly an issue for us. We obviously understand the obligation to provide information to a parliamentary committee, which is why we generally take these matters on notice.  Senator DEAN SMITH: Surely, not to imperil the personal circumstances of employees that are under the MOP(S) Act.  Ms Jones: That's right.  Ms Huxtable: We can take those matters into consideration. It has been a long-standing practice, and I know we have discussed it before, that in requests that relate to specific personal information, whether it be in respect of a member of parliament or a staff person, we don't provide that information due to the personal information related issues and privacy issues. But we certainly can take it on notice and we'll consider that.  ...  Senator FARRELL: I wouldn't expect you to, Secretary. My next question I don't think fits into that category. So I think you could be free to answer this question. I understand the department has referred the matter to a law firm. Could you tell us which one and at what cost?  Ms Huxtable: I think you are a number of steps ahead of me, because I'm not confirming or denying media speculation in respect of that matter. We are taking that on notice. I think you're going down a path of assuming that that media speculation's been confirmed. I haven't confirmed or denied that.  Senator FARRELL: In the event that what I've said is true, I take it you would agree with me that that's in a different category than the other questions in relation to the individuals. It's a simple straightforward fact: who is the law firm and what is it costing to have the matter referred out to that law firm?	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 109, 110, 111

				Ms Huxtable: We'll continue to take the questions on notice. ... Senator FARRELL: Could you also indicate to us how many other investigations into bullying by a MOP(S) Act employee have been referred to external counsel? Can I confirm that the investigation seeks to address matters of bullying dating back more than a year? Can I also ask how many of the minister's five chiefs of staff have been interviewed by Finance or outside counsel with respect to the investigation? How many staff have left Minister Wyatt's office since he was first appointed an assistant minister? How many of Minister Wyatt's current staff are on loan from the department, rather than employed under the MOP(S) Act? Is the Department of Finance concerned at the high level of turnover in Minister Wyatt's office? What is the total cost of any termination payouts in the minister's office? Have any staff indicated to the department or outside counsel that they've left the minister's office because of workplace bullying? Have any findings or interim findings been made with respect to the investigation? When do you expect any findings will be made? Has any action been taken by the Department of Finance with respect to the investigation? Has any advice with respect to the investigation been provided to Minister Wyatt or members of his office, either by the department or the outside counsel?
42	Finance	Smith	Advice and Support for MOP(s) Employees	Senator DEAN SMITH: Hypothetically, a staff member under the MOP(S) Act engages in an external review or mediation process run by a political party or run by a trade union. They're going through that process. They then contact you. You would answer their questions and assist them with information as part of their participation in that external review process. Ms Jones: Hypothetically speaking. We wouldn't necessarily have visibility of that separate process, but, if they came to us in the context of any impact that that had on them as MOP(S) Act staff, we would look to support them. Senator DEAN SMITH: Has anyone come to you looking for support, having been involved or currently involved in an external process? Ms Jones: I think we're probably getting again into that periphery where it's— Senator DEAN SMITH: I like consistency. Ms Jones: Yes. Ms Huxtable: We'll take it on notice.	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 111, 112

				Ms Jones: I just want to check on that. It's been some time. CHAIR: It has. ... CHAIR: Thank you. That would be good. It would also be helpful—and I know you'd need to take this on notice, too—to know whether the department received any requests for information from the Victorian parliament about F M Printing, given that I believe the Victorian parliament was trying to recover some of the misspent funds, and also whether the department is aware of whether IBAC's inquiry is ongoing and whether the department has been cooperating with IBAC or is continuing to cooperate with IBAC, if that's an ongoing matter. Obviously I understand that if that's an ongoing matter you wouldn't be able to comment on the details, but if it's a concluded matter and the department had any correspondence with IBAC then I would be interested in that. Ms Jones: We can take that on notice. We did provide an answer to a question on notice I think from two estimates ago that covered those questions around the Victorian parliament and the IBAC inquiry. CHAIR: Yes. Ms Jones: At the time, we had not been approached. But I can take it on notice to check whether there's an update. CHAIR: If I recall correctly—and this might be my faulty memory—I think at that point there had not yet been an approach in the Victorian parliament, and I think the department said that it wouldn't be appropriate to comment on an IBAC approach given that there was an ongoing investigation. That's why I phrased my previous question the way I did. If there's still an ongoing IBAC investigation, then I of course accept that the department couldn't provide any comment while it's ongoing. But if that investigation has concluded, then the department might be more in a position to assist. Ms Jones: We'll take that on notice.	2018, F&PA Committee, Page 114

But, as you would be aware, as a result of a lot of publicity on this issue, Mr Dutton has a personal interest in childcare facilities. The definition of e-material can cover Facebook advertising, but I'm not familiar with that particular material. Senator FARRELL: We'll get it to you in a second, and then I'll ask a couple of questions. 				Ms Jones: I'd have to take that on notice because it may have been a broader engagement. Sometimes parliamentarians raise with us issues around the quality of the service that they're receiving and what alternatives might be available. Why was that year chosen, or did he just come up with that on his own? Ms Huxtable: I believe that that is the point at which the current arrangement was entered into. We can take it on notice, maybe, for the detail, rather than speculating. Senator WATT: Okay, if you could take that on notice. And disclosure returns have been updated? Mr Rogers: Three amended disclosure returns. Senator WATT: The ultimate conclusion was that Vicland had donated a plane to the One Nation party? Mr Rogers: Not necessarily. Looking at the documentation I have here, Vicland lodged an amended organisation donor return for 2014-15 in relation to two donations made to Pauline Hanson's One Nation, totalling $57,720,000. What I have in front of me is that that amended return is rent paid by Vicland for the party's office. Senator WATT: That's separate to the plane? Mr Rogers: Yes. Mr Pirani: On 15 March 2018, the party lodged an amended return for the gift in-kind of $30,375, which included a calculation on the dry hire rate for the Jabiru aircraft. Vicland lodged an amended organisation donor return for 2014-15 for two donations made to Pauline Hanson. Then, on 25 May 2018, Vicland lodged an amended organisation donor return for the 2015-16 financial year in relation to the amount of $98,175, which is approximately the cost of the Jabiru aircraft. Senator WATT: In layperson's terms, the updated disclosures were that Vicland had not previously disclosed two donations of the rent for the One Nation party, and they also had not disclosed the donation of the plane, but that has now occurred. The One Nation party has, presumably, declared that they received the donations?	Hansard Proof, 23 October 2018, F&PA Committee, Page 129-130

				Mr Rogers: That's my understanding. Senator WATT: You mentioned that Mr Ashby had also lodged an updated return? Mr Rogers: That's correct. Senator WATT: What was that for? Mr Rogers: I'm going to make sure after I've given the answers that I've given you the accurate information because— Mr Pirani: The information I've got is, on 19 March 2018, James Ashby lodged an individual donor return for 2015-16 in relation to a donation to the Pauline Hanson One Nation party in the amount of $30,375. A note on the return stated this was calculated using his logbook for the Jabiru aircraft, which was 243 hours at approximately $125 per hour which came up to the $30,375. Senator WATT: Again in layperson's terms, the result of your investigation was that Vicland had donated about $57,000 in the payment of rent to One Nation that hadn't been disclosed. That's now been disclosed. Mr Rogers: Yes. Senator WATT: Vicland had donated a plane to the One Nation party, which it hadn't disclosed but now has disclosed? Mr Rogers: Yes. Senator WATT: That was the $98,000, I think it was. And Mr Ashby had donated his pilot services to the One Nation party and hadn't disclosed it, but it now has been disclosed. Mr Rogers: That had not been disclosed and now has been disclosed. I am just going to confirm all of that on notice to make sure that we are strictly accurate with that, because there are a number of threads to this process. Effectively, in layman's terms, there was an amount of money that had not previously been disclosed. We conducted an activity. That money has now been disclosed and has been declared by the party, and there is a prosecution of an entity related to Mr Ashby for not complying with the notice from the AEC.

87	Finance	Ketter	Structural Payments	1. On Page 3-1 of Budget Paper number one of this year's budget, it states that '...the budget balance is expected to move into structural surplus predominantly as a result of reductions in structural payments'. Can you outline or explain which payments are being reduced – or cut – to create this structural surplus? Which specific budget measures can you point to are causing this? 2. Will the Government's decision to drop the measure to increase the qualifying age for the pension to 70 have any effect on this? If so, what's the effect, can it be quantified?	Written
