001	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Officials involved in Phone call between the Prime Minister, Foreign Minister and Secretary of StateF336	Ms Millar: I don't have any particular advice about exactly what was in that phone call and, of course, it is a matter of confidential discussions between the Prime Minister and the Secretary of State. ... Senator WONG: Were any officials on the call? Ms Millar: We will check that for you. Senator WONG: Can you come back shortly? Ms Millar: Yes, we can do that. .... Senator WONG: So just to be clear: you have taken on notice whether an official was on the call? Senator Cormann: Whether and who was on the call. I think you asked for a list and a transcript. Senator WONG: No. Can we take this in sequence? Be clear of the extent to which you are diverting. One, you have taken on notice whether an official was on the call, correct? Senator Cormann: I am taking the line of questioning in relation to who was on the call— .... Senator Cormann: I've already been extremely clear. Obviously, everybody knows, and there was evidence about a call. I will take on notice who was on the call and to what extent we might be able to assist you, appropriately, with some of these other matters that you've canvassed. Senator WONG: Okay. Who was on the call has been answered in the Senate by Senator Payne. And it was already answered earlier in the hearing— Senator Cormann: But why are you asking then? Senator WONG: Can I finish? Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, the Prime Minister and the foreign minister—that's already been answered today, and by Minister Payne. I then asked: was there an official on the call? I want to be clear: you don't wish to answer that; you're taking that on notice? Senator Cormann: We will answer that, as we are always very cooperative with this committee because we do answer questions taken on notice— .... Senator Cormann: I was going to the issue of who was on the call other than those who have already been publicly announced. Senator WONG: Okay. Right. So you are taking on notice whether any officials or staff were on the call? Correct? Senator Cormann: And, if so, who. That's right. Senator WONG: Okay. And you are taking on notice whether notes were taken? Senator Cormann: Indeed. Senator WONG: Even though I haven't asked about the content at all. You're taking that on notice—the fact of that? Senator Cormann: You have asked a series of questions and I have taken them on notice.	Pg. 29, 31, 32	21 October 2019
002	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Transcript of phone call with Prime Minister, Foreign Minister and Secretary of State	Senator WONG: Did the Prime Minister and the foreign minister—you're going to come back to me on the call on whether notes or a transcript was taken—is that right, Ms Millar? Ms Millar: That's correct. Senator WONG: I've got a bit more on this, but I'll wait until you come back on that. How long do you think you'll take to actually get briefed on that? Ms Millar: We'll look into it shortly. Senator WONG: Thank you. I'm going to go to the issue of— Senator Cormann: You know what would be helpful: take it on notice. Senator WONG: Okay. And you are taking on notice whether notes were taken? Senator Cormann: Indeed. Senator WONG: Even though I haven't asked about the content at all. You're taking that on notice—the fact of that?	Pg. 30, 32	21 October 2019

Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd
					Senator Cormann: You have asked a series of questions and I have taken them on notice. Senator WONG: No. I am not asking content; I am asking whether notes were taken. That is a pretty standard question. I think the media would be quite happy— Senator Cormann: I'd be very surprised if notes were not taken. But, given the nature of the questions that you were asking, I will make sure that we can provide you with an accurate response to questions that obviously go to sensitive matters. ..... Senator WONG: On those occasions where, because of timing et cetera, there is no official present, what alternative arrangements are made to ensure there is a readout for the call which is relevantly required for the Public Service? Ms Millar: Usually what would happen in those circumstances is that one of the Prime Minister's advisers would get in touch with the department to give them a readout of a call. Senator WONG: And did that occur in relation to this call? Senator Cormann: We have already taken on notice who was there, whether notes were taken and what—
003	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Department of Justice's Investigation	Senator WONG: I asked whether or not, on 24th President Trump announces it and on 28th Mr Hockey did respond, and this is on the public record. I want to understand how the position, which is a pledge for assistance, in this letter came about. I started my line of questioning with a very specific question. It was: were we aware of the Department of Justice's investigation before it was announced on the 24 May? Senator Cormann: Personally, I don't know, so I will have to take that on notice. I don't think the officers know. Senator WONG: Do the departmental officers know? Ms Millar: We would need to take that on notice. Senator WONG: Did you know? Ms Millar: I don't know. I would have to take that on notice. ..... Senator WONG: Does anyone in PM&amp;C know whether they knew about the Department of Justice investigation involving Alexander Downer, before the president announced it on the 24 May? Senator Cormann: We have taken it on notice. Senator WONG: Could Mr Hayhurst come to the table? I would like to know. Could Mr Hayhurst come to the table? Senator Cormann: Well, I have taken it on notice. We have taken it on notice. Senator WONG: Can I finish my question, please. Thank you. I am asking whether or not the Australian government position that is asserted or outlined in the letter from Mr Hockey to the Attorney-General is something PM&amp;C was aware of prior to that letter being sent. Senator Cormann: This is the government's position, which is appropriately articulated by our Ambassador to the United States. In the context of that question, I've already taken on notice whether anybody in PM&amp;C was involved in any way, shape or form prior to that.	Pg. 39, 40, 41	21 October 2019
004	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Department of Justice Investigation	Senator WONG: Can I ask then: when were PM&amp;C aware that it was the Australian government's formal position that we would use our best endeavours to support the US administration efforts in this matter? Senator Cormann: Well, can I— Senator WONG: When was the approach made for assistance? Senator Cormann: I might have to take that on notice.	Pg. 41	21 October 2019

Q No.	Department or Agency	Division	Senator	Broad Topic	Question	Hansard p. no. or Written Q	Date Rec'd
005	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Mr Hockey Correspondence	Senator WONG: I am asking this question: can PM&amp;C advise what prompted Mr Hockey to write? Senator Cormann: They have already explained to you, on several occasions now, that they had no knowledge. I have also taken it on notice to see whether there's anything else we can add, for your benefit, for the benefit of the committee and for the benefit of public information, because, of course, we fully support the public right to know. That is why I've gone to the trouble of taking that question on notice, so we can provide proper information. ..... Senator WONG: Senator Payne says—I thought it was quite reasonable—'We haven't been asked, and obviously if we were asked we would co-operate.' That is a pretty sensible position. Then you get a proactive 'we will co-operate' letter from Mr Hockey. I'm trying to understand why that shifted—why we moved from 'if we're asked we'll help' to proactively indicating. I'm trying to understand: was it in response to some communication, or a judgement; and if so, what happened? Senator Cormann: The foreign minister will be very well equipped to answer the precise question. Senator WONG: So you don't know? Senator Cormann: No, I don't. We have already indicated that we were not involved. Senator WONG: That is not my question. Does anybody at the table know why the letter was sent? Senator Cormann: If you are not involved—I have taken it on notice. We will get back to you if there is anything we can add to it. ..... Senator WONG: You have said no involvement, in answer to a question which— Senator Cormann: Sorry, let me clarify. I have taken on notice what involvement, if any, by anyone. But everyone at the table has been very clear that they have not been involved.	Pg. 42, 45	21 October 2019
006	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Senator Payne's answer on Radio National	Senator WONG: Did PM&amp;C have any involvement in the government shifting its position or developing its position from Senator Payne's answer on Radio National to Mr Hockey's proactive offer of request? Senator Cormann: We haven't shifted our position. What foreign minister Payne, even by your quotation, indicates that we haven't been asked. It is complete and utter business as usual that when you're asked by, in particular, a friendly foreign government to participate in an inquiry that is focusing on matters that a friendly foreign government has decided to get to the bottom of, then, of course, we would be ready to assist. Whether it is a Labor government or a Liberal-National government, that would have been the same approach. I am very certain of that. Senator WONG: You just said that we've been asked. When were we asked? Senator Cormann: Again, you have now given quotations which imply that we hadn't been asked at the time of the Senator Payne quote. Senator WONG: I'm just asking. Senator Cormann: I have indicated to you that I didn't know when the specific request was made, as has everybody here at this table given you the same advice. Senator WONG: No, I actually haven't asked them. Senator Cormann: You did ask them and I've taken it on notice.	Pg. 42-43	21 October 2019
007	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Request for assistance by the US – Barr Inquiry	Senator WONG: So when, Ms Millar, did you become aware of any request for assistance by the United States in relation to the Barr inquiry? ..... Senator WONG: This is a question of fact. When did they become aware? Senator Cormann: It is a matter of fact that every officer at the table has indicated that they weren't aware either between the 24th and the 28th or before— Senator WONG: No, or after. They must have become aware after, at least. So you are still defending the 24th to the 28th— Senator Cormann: And the period before that, which I have taken on notice. .....	Pg. 43, 44, 54,55,56	21 October 2019

					Senator WONG: Fine. Can you listen to my question, please? When did PM&amp;C become aware of the US request for assistance with the Barr inquiry? Can I have an answer to that question, please? It is incomprehensible that they didn't become aware of it, given you've talked about it and so has the PM, so can you please allow them to answer that question. Ms Millar: We have had no involvement in this matter in the Prime Minister's department. It has been dealt with by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade. Senator Cormann: Which is consistent with what I have said. Senator WONG: When did you become aware, even though it may well have been dealt with by the department? You are the Deputy Secretary of the International Division. Surely you became aware at some point? In fact, your boss, your minister, the Prime Minister, has talked about it on David Speers. So when did you become aware there had been a request for assistance? .... Senator WONG: It is normal for officers, even if other departments have carriage, to be asked when they first became aware. You ought not intervene. It really demonstrates your unwillingness to answer questions. I am simply asking the most senior person in the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet responsible for international policy when she became aware of a request from our principal ally for assistance, and you are intervening to avoid answering the question. Senator Cormann: That is not true. .... Senator WONG: You know what I'm like, and you know I am asking reasonable questions. You are trying to distract. So you are trying to tell me, Ms Millar, that you and Mr Hayhurst only have knowledge of the request from the US for assistance because of what's been in the public arena. Is that correct? Ms Millar: I think that's correct. I would have to— Senator WONG: Please be very careful with your answer. CHAIR: Order, Senator Wong! Ms Millar: I am trying to be accurate here, because there has been a lot of talk about this issue. But, as I said, we have not been involved in it. I would probably need to take on notice exactly when we became aware. .... Senator WONG: Mr Morrison, in an interview with Mr Speers, claimed that there were two issues discussed in the call with President Trump. One issue was the Barr inquiry and requests from the US President for assistance and engagement—I think it was described as 'a point of contact'. The second issue was the visit to the White House. I want to confirm that that is what is on the public record. Is that correct, Senator Cormann? Senator Cormann: That is on the public record and that's correct, yes. Senator WONG: Were there any other matters discussed? Senator Cormann: I'm not aware. Senator WONG: So, only two matters? Senator Cormann: I've already taken on notice, previously, who was there and what else was discussed—to the extent that we can assist you with that, because you do of course know that this goes to the matter of foreign relationships— .... Senator WONG: This is about cooperation. Moving on from the fact that you won't tell people who the point of contact that Mr Trump was told was, that's okay. I'm leaving that for the moment. It's pretty remarkable but, given that's what he said, you don't want to tell people that. Leaving that aside, I'm now moving to the next point. We have offered cooperation and assistance. I want to confirm, is DFAT the department who is coordinating any requests for assistance to the Australian government in relation to the Barr inquiry? Senator Cormann: I've previously taken it on notice at the operational level to provide you with whatever assistance we can sensibly provide to give you an indication of how that cooperation is

					taking place or will take place. I'm not aware to what extent there have been actual steps taken to this point. I'm genuinely not aware. I wouldn't expect to be aware. But what the Australian government has indicated is a general— .... Senator WONG: I'm just ask which department. Senator Cormann: If I may: there's a high-level indication by the Australian government that, of course, we stand ready to cooperate with a US government inquiry. Obviously, that sort of inquiry is then not operationalised. Senator WONG: No, that's not right. That's why— Senator Cormann: It is operationalised at an official level. I've already taken on notice the question of who is involved and what may or may not have occurred since these statements were made, bearing in mind that the correspondence is essentially only three or four weeks old. .... Senator WONG: No, that's not correct. Here we go. This is the Prime Minister again, '...the engagement is being had at officials-level'. He is asked: And are these foreign affairs officials or are they? The Prime Minister responded: They're Australian Government officials. And: Well I'm not going to go into which ones they are. I want to know who they are. Senator Cormann: And I've taken it on notice.
008	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Request for assistance by the US – Barr Inquiry	Senator WONG: That's the answer. Can anyone at the table tell me whether Mr Barr or the White House asked the Australian government to assist in the investigation; and if so, when and how? Senator Cormann: That goes to the nature of what we have taken on notice, and I am happy to add that specifically and explicitly to that.	Pg. 45	21 October 2019
009	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Mr Hockey letter	Senator WONG: When did you become aware of it? Senator Cormann: We've already taken these things on notice. Senator WONG: When did he become aware of the Hockey letter? You didn't take that on notice too. Senator Cormann: I have taken it on notice for PM and C. You know that. You are now just trying to reopen—	Pg. 46	21 October 2019
010	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Senator Lindsey Graham letter to Prime Minister	Senator WONG: Perhaps you can come back prepared for this. I understand that on 7 October Senator Lindsey Graham wrote to the Prime Minister regarding cooperation with the Barr investigation. I assume the PM&amp;C is at least aware about that letter? Is that correct? Senator Cormann: We will check during the break—	Pg. 48	21 October 2019
011	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Cabinet	Senator Patrick	FOI applications	Senator PATRICK: That's right, by consent. So, by consent, you agreed that the dates were to be released to me, in that specific case, and they have been released to me. In essence, and to go back to Senator Cormann, the jurisprudence on this is clearly now in favour of the principle that a cabinet date is not cabinet-in-confidence. Indeed, it only entered into the Cabinet Handbook between version seven and version eight. Cabinet-in-confidence is a principle that goes back to King George III. So over a period of time, someone decided to add this—between the seventh and eighth versions of the Cabinet Handbook—and I don't think members of the executive should seek to override the opinion of a justice in respect of that. I note that the new edition of the Cabinet Handbook has just come out, number 13. Dr Parkinson wrote to me and said that they were going to consider that matter in the context of the new cabinet handbook, and the new cabinet handbook still makes the claim that	Pg. 49	21 October 2019

					cabinet dates are cabinet-in-confidence, yet that is inconsistent with the jurisprudence. Senator Cormann: Again, obviously, the officials that make assessments on FOI applications don't make political decisions— Senator PATRICK: No, this is a legal decision. Senator Cormann: They make legal decisions, and they make these independently from government. Having said that, I'd be very surprised if people in this place and the media in this place weren't aware when cabinet was meeting. I think it's a pretty open secret when these meetings take place. Look, I'm happy to take on notice to see whether there's anything further we can add in the context of the legal position.
012	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Cabinet	Senator Patrick	Cabinet Handbook	Senator PATRICK: We currently have officials making statements in the Cabinet Handbook which are inconsistent with the words of Dr Parkinson. He said, 'recent case law, including the authorities you mentioned, will be taken into consideration when recommending the updates'. Senator WONG: There's a new secretary. Senator Cormann: Well, to be fair, listening to what you've read out there, I can only assume that they were taken into consideration, they were taken into account, and that valid judgements were made. I'm not an expert in terms of the law in relation to all aspects of this. But I'm happy to see whether there's anything further we can add to that. Senator PATRICK: Sure, if you could on notice perhaps provide the rationale behind the decision to retain it, noting that the jurisprudence would suggest it's not the case. Senator Cormann: I'm happy to provide that.	Pg. 49	21 October 2019
013	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Corporate	Senator Patrick	FOI reports	Senator PATRICK: Okay. I know one that's not finalised, and that's one that's before the AAT at this point in time. I'm eager to progress that. Just going back to the PID, obviously it raises a concern from a parliamentary perspective, because FOI is an important right to know attribute—using the theme of the day—of our system of responsible government. Is it possible, without identifying the discloser, to release or provide to the committee the report and any actions that followed as a result of the report? I respect there is public interest in not disclosing any person. We don't want to in any way dissuade people from blowing the whistle. But is there any way you could release that report to the committee so we can see what was said, how you responded to it and what you've done in response to that? Ms Foster: I'll certainly take that on notice. I'd like to seek advice on what I can and can't do.	Pg. 50	21 October 2019
014	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Prime Minister's Office	Senator Wong	Prime Minister's staff in call between President Trump and the Prime Minister	Senator WONG: And to your knowledge how long was it between the President's request and the Prime Minister actually taking the call? Mr Hayhurst: I'm not certain exactly, but calls between leaders often happen at short notice, and this was one such occasion. Senator WONG: It would have been within a 24-hour period? Mr Hayhurst: I'd have to check to be sure, but that sounds to be roughly what it was. Senator WONG: Were PM&amp;C officials on the call? Mr Hayhurst: No. Senator WONG: To your knowledge, was any member of the Prime Minister's staff on the call? Mr Hayhurst: Not to my knowledge. Senator Cormann: I'll take that on notice to be precise.	Pg.52	21 October 2019
015	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Notes taken of the phone call between President Trump and the Prime Minister	Senator WONG: Were any notes taken in relation to the call? Senator Cormann: I'll add that to the question on notice.	Pg. 52	21 October 2019

016	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Readout of the phone call between President Trump and the Prime Minister	Senator WONG: Did PM&amp;C receive a download of the call? Mr Hayhurst: I received a brief readout from the office after the call had taken place. Senator WONG: And what was that readout? Was that verbal or written? Mr Hayhurst: It was a verbal readout. Senator WONG: By? Senator Cormann: I don't think we name individual staff members. Obviously, based on the evidence, it was from a staff member in the Prime Minister's office. I would ask you not to insist on names being mentioned. Senator WONG: That has never been a courtesy your people have observed— Senator Cormann: That is not true. I have always observed that. Senator WONG: That is true. I've been in here with Senator Abetz and others who have done so. Senator Cormann: I have always observed that. Senator WONG: I just want to know if it was an international person. I'd like the name of the position the person holds. Senator Cormann: I've taken that on notice.	Pg. 52-53	21 October 2019
017	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Prime Minister's Office	Senator Wong	Mr Downer's actions	Senator WONG: Actually, all Mr Hockey has done is reject a particular characterisation from Senator Graham. I'm now moving on from that. Mr Downer was the High Commissioner. A whole range of assertions have been made publicly about his behaviour. Mr Downer has given a number of media interviews about this. I am asking you, representing the Prime Minister: does the Australian government stand by all of Mr Downer's actions in relation to these matters whilst he was High Commissioner? Senator Cormann: The area where you could best address those questions is the Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade estimates. I don't have personal knowledge of all of the matters you are seeking to reference, and I'm not going to start providing a running commentary in relation to matters I don't have sufficient direct knowledge of. Senator WONG: Does Mr Morrison, whom you are representing today, stand by all of Mr Downer's actions? Senator Cormann: I'll take that on notice and make sure that the appropriate answer is provided in due course.	Pg. 54	21 October 2019
018	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Point of contact	Senator WONG: Who was the point of contact? Senator Cormann: And the point of contact in the United States on matters on behalf of the Australian government—the first point of contact—is Mr Hockey, as our ambassador to the United States. Senator WONG: Who is the point of contact the Prime Minister referred the President to? Senator Cormann: I will take on notice whether I can add anything further to it, but I repeat: the first point of contact in relation to matters involving the Australian government in the United States is our outstanding and distinguished ambassador to the United States, my good friend Joe Hockey. .... Senator WONG: Okay, Senator Cormann: we have the leader of the United States calling the leader of Australia, and the leader of Australia has told the Australian people that it was to ask for a point of contact, and I'm asking, who was identified as the point of contact? Senator Cormann: I'm happy to keep repeating it. I've taken on notice whether I can add anything to it, but I'm making the point again that the lead responsibility rests with the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, as has been indicated by PM&amp;C officials consistently now for some time too. But of course the primary contact for US officials when it comes to matters related to the Australian government in the US is our ambassador to the US, Mr Joe Hockey. .... Senator WONG: So, did the Prime Minister tell the President that Mr Hockey was the contact? Senator Cormann: I have taken on notice whether there's anything I can add—	Pg. 54-55	21 October 2019

					Senator WONG: Who he told the President was— Senator Cormann: Well, I've taken on notice whether I can add to it. .... Senator WONG: No, but do officials know who the Prime Minister identified as the point of contact to the President of the United States? Senator Cormann: I have already taken it on notice. I've already indicated to you that I was not part of the conversation. The officials weren't part of the conversations. But I'd just point out again that the reason we have an ambassador like Mr Hockey in the United States is to have a primary contact for the US government on Australian matters, as we have ambassadors and high commissioners in countries all around the world, to be the primary contact. ... Senator WONG: Have you been asked who the primary contact is by any of your US counterparts, Mr Hayhurst or Deputy Secretary Millar? Mr Hayhurst: No. Senator WONG: Do you know who the Prime Minister identified to the President of the United States was the primary contact? Mr Hayhurst: I don't know what was said in the call, no. Ms Millar: No, neither do I. Senator Cormann: None of us were part of the call. Senator WONG: No, but you're here representing. Senator Cormann: And that is why I've dutifully taken the question on notice. 026	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	Prime Minister's trip to the US – drought briefings provided	Senator McALLISTER: On 23 September, while he was in Chicago, the Prime Minister said in a public speech: 'The drought at this moment is breaking the nation's heart and, while I am a long way away from home, this is something I am getting regular reports on.' During those eight days, how many briefings on the drought did the Prime Minister's office provide to the Prime Minister? Mr Hayhurst: I will have to defer to other colleagues to answer that question. Mr Duggan: We are in constant communication with the Prime Minister, through his office, on the latest developments in relation to the drought. I don't have in front of me exactly how many briefings were provided in that eight-day window but I can take that on notice. ..... Mr Duggan: From my recollection, yes, certainly, with his office. And, as I said, reasonably informal communications, because it's a situation that is evolving. Senator McALLISTER: What do you mean 'with his office'? What does that mean? Mr Duggan: So we will be in constant phone communication with his office and we will send them email updates as things evolve. Senator McALLISTER: So is your evidence that you provided briefings to the Prime Minister's office during that time? Mr Duggan: I will have to take on notice precisely how many we did, but my recollection is that, yes, we did provide updates to his office through that period. Senator McALLISTER: Were they formal briefings or just email updates? Mr Duggan: I will have to take that on notice.	Pg. 62	21 October 2019
027	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	Prime Minister's trip to the US – drought briefings – dates	Senator McALLISTER: Can I ask you to provide on notice the dates on which the Prime Minister's office or the department provided briefings to the Prime Minister? You made reference to material you provided to the PMO. I am asking you about material that was provided to the Prime Minister. Mr Duggan: Yes. I can take that on notice. Senator McALLISTER: And the dates on which that occurred. Can copies of those briefings be provided, please? Senator Cormann: We will consider that on notice. We will see what we can help you with.	Pg. 63	21 October 2019
028	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	Coordinator-General's report – date provided	Senator McALLISTER: Okay. On 29 August this year—so I guess six weeks or so after he finished up—the Coordinator-General gave an interview in which he said: In April of this year the Drought Taskforce completed a strategy that included a series of recommendations for government. We delivered the strategy not long before the election ... Can you confirm the date that the Coordinator-General provided his final report to government? Mr Duggan: I don't have the precise date, but it was around April. 031	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	Special Envoy for Drought Assistance – termination of role	Senator McALLISTER: The special envoy's role ceased on 26 May this year. Senator Cormann: Yes. Senator McALLISTER: He had been appointed less than a year previously, on 26 August. My question is: how was the termination of that role communicated to the envoy? Senator Cormann: I'll have to take the specifics on notice, but I would again point out that the cabinet line-up now has a dedicated cabinet minister with responsibility for the policy and program response by the Australian government to the drought. In terms of the specific communications, I'm not personally aware, so I'll take that on notice and see whether we can assist. ... Senator McALLISTER: In The Australian on 28 May, Strewth reported that, after Sky News tweeted a video of the soon-to-be ABC employee David Speers announcing that Joyce hadn't retained the role of Special Envoy for Drought Assistance and Recovery, Joyce replied: Just found out from you guys then. He told Sky News: I would have (expected to receive a phone call), but I didn't and that's life. How important was the special envoy to Prime Minister Morrison? Senator Cormann: Incredibly important, and he did a great job. Senator McALLISTER: But you abolished it without telling him. Senator Cormann: I am not aware, as I've indicated to you, of the communications that did or did not occur, but I've taken that on notice.	Pg. 66	21 October 2019

I understand it had two staff members associated with that function. Senator McALLISTER: And what would be the approximate cost of those staff members? Mr Duggan: Again, I don't want to guess what the cost would be. Senator Cormann: We can take it on notice and see what we can provide. ... Senator McALLISTER: Can we please have a breakdown of the expenditure by Mr Joyce, including on travel, staff, allowances and any other resources that were provided to him? Senator Cormann: I will take that on notice.	Pg. 66	21 October 2019
033	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	Special Envoy for Drought Assistance – dedicated Cabinet Minister	Senator McALLISTER: He has repeatedly and publicly said that multiple reports were sent directly to the Prime Minister. As an example he told the ABC on 20 September that he sent reports of the drought to the Prime Minister via text message. The quote is: I'm not going to tell you what they said, they were directed to the Prime Minister, if he wants to tell you what they said, that's up to him ... I can assure you, I directly sent reports. If you say a report is a written segment to the Prime Minister ... then they definitely went to him, I definitely sent them, I sent them by SMS to him and they were read. To say that they were not sent or not compiled is incorrect. I can table a copy of that, if that is helpful. Senator Cormann: I'm aware of the report, but I'm happy for you to table it. 					Assistance and Recovery—very, very hard. He did provide advice and feedback to the Prime Minister and to the cabinet. So as well as engaging and listening to drought affected families and communities in relevant parts of Australia he did provide feedback, which was one of the inputs into the government's consideration of our response to the drought affecting large parts of regional Australia. A lot of the decisions that have since been made have been informed by, among other things, the advice and input provided by Mr Joyce. Of course, after the election the decision was made to appoint a dedicated cabinet minister with direct responsibility for the Australian government policy and program response to the drought, which is an indication of the high priority that the government places on this as a continued serious issue across a large part of Australia. Senator McALLISTER: Was that decision on the recommendation of Mr Joyce? Senator Cormann: I am not aware, obviously, whether Mr Joyce has made a specific recommendation in relation to the appointment of a cabinet minister into drought assistance and recovery, but I am happy to check that on notice to make sure that the answer is absolutely accurate.

It's a very 21st-century way to conduct yourself, but that's what he says. That's his public statement about how he did his job. My question is: how many text message reports were sent to the Prime Minister by the special envoy? Senator Cormann: I would have to take that on notice. Senator McALLISTER: Does Mr Joyce, as the special envoy, communicate by any other platform aside from text message, such as WhatsApp or Signal? Senator Cormann: Obviously, I am aware that Mr Joyce provided direct verbal briefings, but to what extent he communicated using other platforms, I would have to take that on notice and see to what extent we can assist you with that. Senator McALLISTER: He has provided a fairly full-throated defence of how he acquitted his duties. He is very clear that the way he did his job was through text message and it seems reasonable that we understand a bit more about them. Could we find out what dates these text message reports were sent? Senator Cormann: I've already taken that on notice. You've asked me about the number and the dates— Senator McALLISTER: I asked you how many and now I am asking you on what date. Senator Cormann: I will take on notice what we might be able to provide in relation to that. Senator McALLISTER: Can each of these text messages from the former envoy be provided to the committee? Senator Cormann: Sorry? Senator McALLISTER: Can the text messages from the former envoy to the Prime Minister be provided to the committee? Senator Cormann: I will consult and we will make a decision on notice to what extent we may be able to share the information that was provided to the Prime Minister and the cabinet in relation to drought assistance and recovery. 					Dear Mr Joyce, thank you for your letter ... and your detailed feedback on the impacts of the drought.  He quotes another letter that reads:  Thank you for your letters, your appraisal drawn from your on-the-ground experience and local contact with farmers and drought-affected communities plays an important part in forming our national drought response.  How many letters did Mr Joyce send to the Prime Minister in his capacity as special envoy?  Senator Cormann: I am not aware, but I will provide that information on notice.  ...  Senator McALLISTER: In relation to this correspondence that takes place between Mr Joyce and the Prime Minister, what are the dates of each of the envoy's letters to the Prime Minister?  Senator Cormann: You're now going through different platforms. I've said that I will take the number and the dates on notice and I will indeed provide, to the extent that that is appropriate—bearing in mind that these are communications that were made in relation to matters that ultimately were part of the cabinet deliberative process. 					Mr Duggan: I'd have to check. I'll have to take that on notice. I'm not sure. Senator McALLISTER: Could you also take on notice the dates of any letters that the Prime Minister sent to the envoy? Mr Duggan: I can do that. Yes, I'll take that on notice. Senator Cormann: Could a copy of each of the Prime Minister's letters to the envoy be provided? They're surely not cabinet-in-confidence. Mr Duggan: I'll take that on notice. .... Senator McALLISTER: The challenge is that you've got Mr Littleproud telling everybody that there was no final report from Mr Joyce. Mr Joyce, as recently as 20 September, tweeted: 'I compiled multiple reports, which were sent direct to the Prime Minister, as well as hundreds of representations on behalf of those affected by the drought.' I'm just finding the evidence— Senator Cormann: Those statements are not inconsistent with each other, actually. Senator McALLISTER: Let's find out. Did he provide any written reports other than text messages and letters? How long was each written report? It would be good if any written reports could be provided to the committee. We are just trying to understand what people got for their $875,000. Senator Cormann: You've now summarised again what I've already agreed to take on notice. I would just say again that, in the context of families and communities affected by the drought, the job that Barnaby Joyce did as special envoy was incredibly important and he worked incredibly hard. He obviously went out and met with a lot of community members. He listened. He provided feedback and advice to the Prime Minister and to the cabinet, which ultimately fed into the deliberative processes and decision-making by the government around how best to respond, in a policy and program sense, to the drought affecting large parts of regional Australia. From that point of view, I reject the implication of the question, which appears to be that somehow this was not a useful exercise. From our point of view, it was a very valuable exercise.
036	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	Drought Assistance – Central Agency responsibility	Senator McALLISTER: I am asking: what is the central agency doing as distinguished from the line agency that also has responsibility in this area? Mr Duggan: We are keeping the Prime Minister abreast of developments and conditions as they evolve. We keep him informed of the Bureau of Meteorology's latest assessments of conditions on the ground and their assessment of how things may evolve going forward. Of course, they provide the usual briefings to the Prime Minister and the cabinet's deliberative processes to the extent that drought issues are being considered by the cabinet. They are also liaising with each of the departments that have a role in providing drought support, particularly the Department of Agriculture, given that they have a whole-of-government coordination capacity here. But, as I said, there are a number of departments providing support, including the infrastructure department and the health department. So it is very much a whole-of-government effort that we are engaged in. Senator McALLISTER: What drought affected communities has the team visited in the last 12 months? Mr Duggan: The team is largely a policy function oriented team. We had people who were part of the task force who transitioned back into the team. They travelled with the Coordinator-General through his period. But, as to the specific travel arrangements of the people in that team, I would have to take that on notice. Senator McALLISTER: Can you just clarify the relationship between you and the task force. Were these people in the task force? You said earlier there were 20 people in the task force. What's happened to them? Mr Duggan: There were. They were drawn from different departments. In fact we had some state representation as well. Some of those people were PM&amp;C people that we lent to the task force to assist the Coordinator-General in his work. Some of those people have since come back into different line roles within the department. So we have maintained a transition between the work of the task force and the new coordination arrangements that are run out of the Department of	Pg. 70, 71	21 October 2019

					Agriculture. We wanted to make sure we had a good capacity left in PM&C to support the Prime Minister. Senator McALLISTER: So in their capacity as staff members within PM&C have the team visited any drought affected communities since July? Mr Duggan: I will have to take that on notice. I am not across their travel arrangements.
037	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	Drought Assistance expenditure	Senator McALLISTER: The government's been talking about $7 billion, but the actual expenditure over the next four years, which is the meaningful time frame in terms of drought affected communities right now, you have told me, is around $2 billion. Senator Cormann: This is the additional expenditure based on policy decisions. When it comes to social services budget, for example, in the family household allowance, you would have to expect there would be additional expenditure just as a result of the program working as intended. And when you incur additional expenditure in the context of something like the drought, that becomes an estimates variation. If you want us to break down in detail—and this goes beyond PM&C; it's probably more a Finance area of responsibility, which comes up tomorrow. If you want us to go through the detail of how many additional costs have been incurred by the Australian government as a result of the drought and through its budget, I'm happy to provide that in some detail because the additional expenditure has been quite substantial and goes beyond what's just been listed. Senator McALLISTER: I think you ought to, because I think that— Senator Cormann: That's fine. Senator McALLISTER: the Prime Minister walks around talking about $7 billion, but when it's really broken down, that's not there, not in any meaningful time frame for any drought-affected person. Instead of making up numbers that don't have any grounding in the way that money will actually roll out into the community, I think a transparent accounting of what is being spent would be helpful. Senator Cormann: I don't agree with the proposition that 'the money isn't there', and I don't agree with the proposition of 'just making up numbers'; that is not correct. But— Senator McALLISTER: Well, the $7 billion is loose. Senator Cormann: If I may—there are different components, obviously. There is the component of demand-driven government programs working as intended, providing support in the community, and there is an additional expense that flows from that. But, on top of that, you've got the additional expenditure that is directly linked to specific policy decisions. What we will do on notice is provide you with a breakdown across both of those so that you get a full picture.	Pg. 72	21 October 2019

On Monday, the Prime Minister told the House that arrangements would not be changed. What changed between Monday and Thursday? Senator Cormann: Obviously decisions were made, and I would encourage you to pursue that in the context of the appropriate portfolio. Senator McALLISTER: The Prime Minister was directly involved. He told the parliament that arrangements would not be changed and, yet, by Thursday there was legislation changing the arrangements. Senator Cormann: Well, there were obviously decisions made in the context of advice to government and, if you want to take that any further, I would encourage you to explore that with the	Pg. 73	21 October 2019

That would fall within the remit of my area. Senator McALLISTER: On what days last week did you brief the Prime Minister? Mr Duggan: These were deliberations that were made in the context of cabinet decision-making. We did brief the Prime Minister, as we usually would for cabinet considerations. I will have to take on notice precisely when those briefings were provided. ... Senator McALLISTER: There is a team of six to eight people working on the drought in the Prime Minister's department so, with respect, it is reasonable to pursue these questions here. Is there anyone sitting behind you, Mr Duggan, who can refresh your memory as to what advice was provided, or the dates on which advice was provided, in relation to the farm household allowance last week? Senator Cormann: I will take that on notice.
040	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	National Soils Advocate	Senator McALLISTER: Back in October 2012, the then Prime Minister, Mr Abbott, announced the appointment of former Governor-General Michael Jeffrey as an advocate for soil health. Then, on 4 October this year, PM&amp;C published a statement on its website saying the government has recalled Major General Michael Jeffrey to the role of national soils advocate. Can I just confirm: is this the same job that Mr Abbott gave Major General Jeffrey seven years ago? Mr Duggan: I might bring a colleague up to assist with this. Ms Wilson: Yes. It is a similar but not necessarily almost identical role to the one Mr Abbott—I don't have the exact terms of reference for the role under Mr Abbott, but it is fair to say it is a very similar role. Senator Cormann: And it is fair to say that of course former Governor-General Michael Jeffery has a great passion for the topic. I am personally aware—I mean, he came to brief me directly himself as well—that he was very keen in the context specifically of some of the current challenges that we're facing as a nation to focus on this issue to be re-energised, and that is precisely what we did. Senator McALLISTER: 'Re-energised'? So we have recalled him to re-energised the issue. Senator Cormann: Well, he has an ongoing passion and focus on this issue in a non-government not-for-profit sense— Senator McALLISTER: So he is energised and he has been recalled? Senator Cormann: He has been approaching the government with his advocacy, and the Prime Minister has given him the responsibility which you now reference. Senator McALLISTER: When did he stop being soils advocate? So he was appointed as soils advocate mark 1 in 2012; has he stopped at some point? Ms Wilson: He would have formally stopped, I suspect, when Mr Turnbull was Prime Minister. I will take that on notice. But I do think it is fair to say, as Mr Cormann has pointed out, that he has really continued in this role as an advocate for healthy soils tirelessly for many years.	Pg. 74	21 October 2019
041	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	National Soil advocate – Terms of Reference	Senator McALLISTER: The statement from PM&amp;C about the national soil advocate role indicates advocating on a global level. Do we anticipate travel for Major General Jeffery as part of this role? Ms Wilson: Yes, we do. Senator McALLISTER: Right. There are terms of reference and they have now been published. Do I infer from your earlier answer that they are slightly different to the previous terms of reference for this role? Ms Wilson: I will have to take that on notice. I haven't got the previous terms of reference in front of me. Senator McALLISTER: Were they used in drafting the current terms of reference, or relied upon in any way?	Pg. 75	21 October 2019

Pg. 75	21 October 2019
043	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Industry, Infrastructure and Environment	Senator McAllister	National Soil advocate – written updates	Senator McALLISTER: Why does the Minister for Agriculture not receive the written updates? Ms Wilson: That would be a decision for the Prime Minister and for the government. Senator McALLISTER: Do you know, Minister? Senator Cormann: I don't, but I think the officer has directed you to the appropriate source for that information. Senator McALLISTER: Sorry, I didn't— Senator Cormann: The relevant minister with responsibility for it is the person that can provide you with that information. Senator McALLISTER: That's precisely the point. The written updates are going to go to the Prime Minister and the Deputy Prime Minister; they will not go to the Minister for Agriculture. At least, it is not specified that they will. So I am asking why that is, because that seems odd. Senator Cormann: I'll have to find that information on notice. I'm not personally aware. Senator McALLISTER: It does seem odd, doesn't it? Senator Cormann: I am not aware of what the context is. But I will provide that information to you on notice. 044	The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Senator Wong	FOI requests – Communication platforms	Senator WONG: Can you confirm that actually on no occasion yet has PM&C disclosed a WhatsApp message through an FOI request? Ms Foster: I would have to check. I don't recall any. Senator WONG: How can that be? How can it be that no WhatsApp message could have been part of, or within the remit of, an FOI request? Senator Cormann: It depends on the FOI request submitted. I would make the general point that any change to the policy position of the government would come from the Attorney-General's Department and so I would not expect my officers or I to be doing that work if, in fact, any work were being done, and I don't know that it is. Senator AYRES: Would you be able to take on notice whether there was any work provided to the Attorney-General's Department? Senator Cormann: We can take it on notice or you can ask questions at the Legal and Constitutional Affairs Committee directly of the officers of the Attorney-General's Department. Senator AYRES: I am asking PM&C, following what the department head had to say— Ms Foster: I will take on notice whether PM&C did any work to make changes. 					Senator AYRES: Thank you. There are some guidance notes on the FOI section of the PM&amp;C website dated July 2011. Are they still current? Ms Foster: I will need to ask for help from one of my staff. Senator AYRES: I'm happy to wait. Ms Foster: I think I am being advised that they have been updated. Can I just get more information and then I will answer you more comprehensively? Senator AYRES: Yes. Do you want to come back to it? Ms Foster: Yes. Senator AYRES: Okay
046	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Cabinet	Senator Ayres and Senator Wong	Alleged Cabinet leaks	Senator AYRES: The Attorney-General is in the position of being able to rule out prosecutions. Has he done that? Senator Cormann: If you want to ask questions about the performance of the statutory functions of the Attorney-General, you should ask that of him. But let me just stress again that the government is not involved in AFP decisions around initiating law enforcement investigations or how they conduct law enforcement investigations. I think Australians should be very concerned that the Labor Party appears to be of the view that these sorts of decisions should be made based on political discretion. If we ended up living in a country where the politicians made a decision on whether or not to initiate investigations of these sorts, and how to conduct them, God help us! Senator McALLISTER: The charges require the involvement of the Attorney-General. You are providing a bizarre answer. Senator Cormann: No, I'm not providing a bizarre answer; I am telling you that law enforcement investigations should not be pursued based on political considerations. Senator AYRES: Well, I'll decide the questions that I pursue. Let me ask a different question, then. Has the Secretary of the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet referred any matters, including alleged leaks to the AFP, since August of last year? Senator Cormann: Sorry; what is this question now about? Senator AYRES: Have there been any alleged leaks referred to the AFP since August of last year? Ms Foster: I will have to take that on notice; I don't have that detail to hand. Senator WONG: Cabinet division reports to you, correct? Ms Foster: Yes, that's right. Senator WONG: And they would be consulted on any cabinet leaks. So could you at least answer that question—whether, to your knowledge, any leaks in relation to the cabinet have been referred? Ms Foster: I genuinely don't know and I will have to ask. The other thing I don't know is in relation to any leaks that weren't related to cabinet. I will find that out. Senator Cormann: Sorry, let me just clarify. What you were asking me before was essentially whether the government would rule out consent to an investigation even before any advice is received from any of the relevant agencies. My advice is that would be unprecedented and unlawful. Senator AYRES: There is a series of questions in relation to Ms Smethurst and the other two journalists. Now what I want to know is that since August last year, since these matters became public and the government had a bit to say about the approach the government would take to these kinds of issues, have there been any referrals to the AFP in relation to leaks that would fit in the same— Senator Cormann: The officer has taken that on notice. Senator AYRES: Could I also get on notice, Ms Foster, details of those referrals and the dates of those referrals, to the extent you are able to provide those?	Pg. 86, 87	21 October 2019

How many were provided in a redacted form, excluding particulars like names and how many were rejected? Are you able to provide that on notice? Ms Foster: I hope our records are that good; I will attempt to do that.	Pg. 87, 88	21 October 2019
048	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Senator Ayres and Senator O'Sullivan	FOI requests	Senator AYRES: Can you provide a copy of the business rules? Ms Foster: Yes, and, as I said, they are on our disclosure log. Senator Cormann: They are publicly available. Senator O'SULLIVAN: I just have a request on those. 051	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	International	Senator Wong	Correspondence from Ambassador Hockey to the US Attorney General	Ms Millar: Thank you, Senator Cormann. I would just like to correct the record on some questions this morning. In response to a previous question, Mr Hayhurst and I said we had no knowledge in advance of the letter from Ambassador Hockey to the US Attorney General on 28 May. Since providing that answer, a colleague from DFAT has forwarded an email dated 28 May sent to Mr Hayhurst, who, in acknowledging it, copied me in. The email advised that Ambassador Hockey would write to the US Attorney, indicating we would be willing to assist. I therefore wanted to correct the record, as we had forgotten about that message. Senator WONG: I appreciate that. Thank you for correcting it so quickly. Ms Millar, could you tell me who the DFAT officer was? Ms Millar: Yes, it was Philip Green who sent the message to us just then. Senator WONG: Are you able to table that? Senator Cormann: Let us consider that, because obviously we have to review what is in the communication. Senator WONG: Sure. Senator Cormann: This is for no reason other than to make sure that it's appropriate for us to table. Senator WONG: Did you take any action as a consequence of receiving that, Mr Hayhurst, other than responding and CCing in Ms Millar? Mr Hayhurst: No, I didn't. I acknowledged receipt, I said I would like to be kept informed and I copied in Ms Millar on the way out. I have no recollection of that message or any subsequent ones, but I'm obviously going to check them carefully.	Pg. 90	21 October 2019

052	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Senator McAllister	Statement of Ministerial Standards	Senator McALLISTER: When questions about Mr Pyne and Ms Bishop's compliance with the Statement of Ministerial Standards were raised, Mr Morrison released relevant correspondence. In particular, on 22 July he wrote to the Senate President in relation to the Senate order for the production of documents that was moved by Senator Gallagher at that time on behalf of Senator Wong. He released the information. Is there any correspondence relevant to this question that could assist the public and indeed the parliament to gain confidence that Mr Morrison has undertaken necessary representations and investigations in relation to these issues? Senator Cormann: Relevant to which question? Senator McALLISTER: There is a question about whether Mr Taylor is in compliance with the Statement of Ministerial Standards. Is there any relevant correspondence that indicates that Mr Morrison has undertaken investigations or sought advice about this question? Senator Cormann: I will take that on notice. Let me just repeat again: there is absolutely no information that has been put into the public domain that in any way, shape or form provides a skerrick of evidence at all that there is any breach of ministerial standards. None.	Pg. 94	21 October 2019
053	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Ministerial Support	Senator Waters	Statement of Ministerial Standards – meetings with former ministers	Senator WATERS: To stay with ministerial standards: in the previous 12 months, how many times has a former minister met with current ministers or senior officials within the 18-month cooling-off period? Senator Cormann: The answer should be at no point, but let me take on notice to make sure that I can provide you that assurance on notice. That is what the answer should be, obviously.	Pg. 95	21 October 2019
054	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Prime Minister's Office	Senator Waters	Statement of Ministerial Standards – meetings with former ministers	Senator WATERS: Okay. In November 2016 the Senate passed a motion that I moved to establish an order for continuing effect which requires the government to publish a list of meetings before every Senate estimates session, allowing ministers to scrutinise what goes on behind closed doors, particularly in relation to that cooling-off period. Has any such list of meetings been published prior to any of the budget estimates periods in the preceding two years and, if not, why not? Senator Cormann: Well, you can't publish meetings that have not occurred. This is a circular argument too. There's a rule which says that for 18 months you are not to meet with ministers and senior officials in certain circumstances as prescribed in the ministerial statement of standards. I can't help you with providing a list of meetings that shouldn't have happened, and on the face of it, I believe haven't happened. So I am not quite sure where that answer goes. But it's very good you've asked for that, because that means that, if ever any such meeting did take place, it will of course be flushed out. Senator WATERS: I am just wondering because there has been a rather haphazard level of compliance with that order of continuing effect. What action will be taken to improve compliance with that order? Senator Cormann: I will take on notice to review what the level of compliance has been and to assess what else we might be able to do. Senator WATERS: Okay. Surely, if there haven't been any relevant meetings, a simple statement would very readily be able to be prepared to establish that no relevant meetings have been held. Senator Cormann: I don't disagree with you.	Pg. 95	21 October 2019

055	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Senator Waters	Statement of Ministerial Standards - Compliance	Senator WATERS: How many times since the introduction of the current ministerial standards has the Prime Minister undertaken an investigation into compliance with those standards? Senator Cormann: The appropriate way these inquiries are taking place is through an independent senior public official. Of course, in relation to this matter, Dr Parkinson conducted that inquiry. I can't off the top my head remember other previous inquiries, but I'm happy to refresh my memory on notice. Senator WATERS: It's useful that we've got independent senior public officials at the table. Perhaps they could reflect on and answer the question. How many times since the current ministerial standards have been on foot has the Prime Minister undertaken an investigation into compliance with them? Senator Cormann: I have taken it on notice. Senator WATERS: Well, with respect, Minister, you've said that Parko did a letter, but surely there are further actions have been taken. It's the Prime Minister's own standards. Does he not want to uphold them? Senator Cormann: We absolutely uphold the ministerial statement of standards 100 per cent. I've taken the question you have asked on notice, and we will provide a proper response on notice. ... Senator WATERS: Thanks, Minister. 056	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government Division	Senator Waters	FOI requests	Senator WATERS: Or to PM&amp;C. Okay, thank you. If folk don't mind me continuing, I have a few other issues, which will not take quite as long. Just on FOI, I notice other senators have asked similar issues. In relation specifically to an article in the Guardian in June, there was a report of an internal investigation into complaints about politically motivated delays in responding to FOI requests. Apparently several decisions were found to be subject to unreasonable and in some cases unexplained delay, and there was mention of a whistleblower whose complaints had prompted an internal investigation and had since complained to the Information Commissioner. I followed this up with a question on notice and the response said that the department was not aware of any findings that had been made. I seek to understand: was a complaint made to the Information Commissioner? And where is it up to? Ms Foster: Do you have a question on notice number, Senator? Senator WATERS: Yes, I do. It's question No. 385. The relevant paragraph says: 'The department is not aware of any findings made by the Information Commissioner in relation to the matter referred to in The Guardian.' That goes to the findings, but are you now aware or is it just that the findings haven't been made yet? Is the complaint still on foot? Has it not got to findings being made yet? Where is it up to? Ms Foster: The Information Commissioner wouldn't necessarily advise us, which is why we frame the answer in that way. That might be a question— Senator WATERS: Maybe the findings have been made, but nobody has told you. Is that right? Ms Foster: Maybe the question would best be directed to the Information Commissioner: have you made any findings? Senator WATERS: Okay. If the Information Commissioner is talking about your department, it does seem reasonable that they would let you know. Is that normally what would happen? Ms Foster: We haven't actually had experience of being on, as Mr Reid said, the wrong end of an Information Commissioner review, so we're just not sure what the answer would be. Did the Prime Minister, his advisers or officers of the department meet with Adani Mining CEO, Lucas Dow, last week, between 14 and 18 October? Senator Cormann: I'm personally unaware, but I'm happy to take that on notice. ... Senator WATERS: Thank you. Why would you pick someone to chair the commission who, by his own admission, has very little experience? Dr Baxter: Is there a particular question for me in that, Senator? Senator WATERS: Yes. I am not sure about the previous one, but it was earlier than that.  Senator WONG: Perhaps you can come back to me on that. Who conducted the selection?  Mr Martin: The house manager undertook conversations with candidates and assured himself that they were fit for purpose, and then they were employed.  Senator WONG: Was there more than one candidate for either of those two positions on any occasion, or was there only one candidate?  Mr Martin: I would have to take that on notice. I don't think there was more than one candidate.  Senator WONG: Were those candidates suggested by Mr Morrison or Mrs Morrison?  Mr Martin: I think, in at least one case, a name was suggested through the Prime Minister's office to the house manager.  Senator WONG: Is that in relation to the person employed on 12 August?  Mr Martin: Yes.  Senator WONG: And that person, who the Prime Minister's office suggested, was employed?  Mr Martin: Yes.  Senator WONG: May I ask who in the Prime Minister's office made the suggestion?  Mr Martin: I'm not sure. 063	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Ministerial Support	Senator Wong	Kirribilli House – media about QAnon	Senator WONG: Now, I've only become aware of this by reading media. There has been some media about QAnon, I think it is called—I'm sure I don't know—which is a conspiracy theory. A media report from The Guardian, of Saturday 5 October, talks through this conspiracy theory. I don't propose to put on the public record some of the, frankly, extraordinary and bizarre views that are expressed. I can if people wish, but I'm assuming you have some knowledge of this; is that right? How do you have knowledge of this, Ms Foster?  Ms Foster: Mr Martin might correct me, but I think he drew it to my attention.  Senator WONG: Okay. I am giving you the opportunity to respond to a public allegation. The assertion is that a person called BurnedSpy, who tweets QAnon material daily, is a friend of Mr Morrison. Relevantly, for this purpose, the story asserts that the wife of this person is on the Prime Minister's staff.  Senator Cormann: So—  Senator WONG: I am asking you if that is the case.  Senator Cormann: I will have to take that on notice. Obviously, I am not aware either of the circumstances you have described or of what is asserted in that particular story. I would be disappointed if your suggestion was that the wife couldn't be appropriately employed because of what may or may not be the activities of her husband—if indeed there are activities, which I am not aware of.	Pg. 104	21 October 2019

Senator Cormann, I understand you are taking this on notice. Can I put a series of questions— Senator Cormann: Please do. Senator WONG: which you will take on notice, which I think are asserted in this article. Is a close friend of the Prime Minister one of Australia's leading proponents of the QAnon conspiracy theory? Senator Cormann: I'll take that on notice. Senator WONG: Is the partner of that person on the Prime Minister's staff? I have a couple of questions about that. Ms Larkins: I don't have the date that the Prime Minister was advised of Earle Haven. Senator AYRES: It was a shocking event. Scores of frail and elderly people were left to fend for themselves until the emergency services arrived. There was a lot of public commentary about what occurred there. Ms Larkins: It was clearly a distressing event. Senator AYRES: Was the Prime Minister involved in the decision to appoint Kate Carnell to inquire into the events at Earle Haven? Ms Larkins: We worked closely with the department on how the situation was being managed, and provided regular advice to the PMO. I'm not personally aware of the Prime Minister's involvement in the decision to appoint Kate Carnell. Senator AYRES: Is there something more definitive that can be provided to us? Ms Larkins: We can certainly take it on notice.Senator AYRES: What I'm interested in is: when that appointment was made, was there any consideration given as to whether it was appropriate to have somebody who was employed by the government in a full-time job—apparently an important job—inquire into whether the legislative framework or Commonwealth or state government inaction, or any of those features, contributed to the events at Earle Haven? Who was in a position to give that consideration? Ms Foster: I think the officers have suggested that the Department of Health would be best placed to take you through that process.	Pg. 110	21 October 2019

					Senator AYRES: The appointment was a Department of Health appointment—the Prime Minister's Office or DPMC had no engagement? Senator Cormann: It's an appointment in the Health portfolio. That is, I think, what the officer put to you. Dr Baxter: That's correct. I indicated that we were involved in discussions about the incident and that there were investigations to take place, but we weren't involved in the appointment. Senator AYRES: I think we started at this point: was the PMO involved in the appointment? Dr Baxter: I would have to take that on notice.

I would be surprised if there hadn't been a level of conversation. As to whether that constituted a formal consultation, I'd rather take on notice the characterisation for whatever engagement or communications there have been between the Prime Minister and the former secretary of PM&amp;C. Senator KITCHING: On what date did the Prime Minister seek a report on Mr Gaetjens' appointment from the Public Service Commissioner?	Pg. 111, 112	21 October 2019
071	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Senator Wong	Special Minister of State – delegation revoked	Senator WONG: I'm referring to Ms Foster's evidence in answer to the ministerial list question. Essentially, she was not answering the question about whether advice was given about whether there was a designated SMOS, but her answer was: we provide advice about what cross-swearing delegations et cetera are required. I'm asking whether the revocation of the delegation to which I have referred—I repeat: Parliamentary Business Resources (Special Minister of State) Delegation (No. 1)—was amongst those that PM&amp;C advised would need to be revoked as a consequence of the decision not to include a SMOS. Ms Foster: I'm sorry, but I'm going to have to take it on notice. Neither Mr Reid nor I can remember. But I can confirm that we did draw attention to the fact that there wasn't a separately designated SMOS, and we were advised: yes, that's a conscious decision.	Pg. 115	21 October 2019

076	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	Senator Waters	Briefings provided to Prime Minister, Treasurer or Minister for Women regarding Budget's Impact on Women	Senator WATERS: Thanks for that summation. Just a follow-up: did the Office for Women provide any analysis or briefing to the PM or the Treasurer or the Minister for Women at the time regarding the budget's impact on women during the 1919-20 federal budget? Ms Hawkins: I might have to go back. As you know, I've only been here for a couple of months. But, in terms of moving forward, as I say, the role of the office is delivering for the Minister for Women and the PM on those four particular areas. It's not the role of the Office for Women to be actually giving gender analysis across the board for other government departments. We focus on those four key areas. As I said in response to your first question, we are looking at doing some guidance material so that other government departments actually have the tools to look at those gender impacts themselves. Senator WATERS: So that's a no on input into the budget, though? Ms Hawkins: I didn't say it was a no, because I'd actually have to go and check that. I'd have to look at that particular one. But, in terms of looking at the role, moving forward—in terms of me as the new head of the Office for Women—I've articulated what our role is.	Pg. 122	21 October 2019
077	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	Senator Waters	Safer Technology for Women Program	Senator WATERS: Thanks for that. Safer Technology for Women was a program announced in 2016 as part of the Women's Safety Package. I understand that some components of that have now have been extended, but I'm interested in whether or not the Safer Technology for Women program within that broader package has any funding security. I understand that it's due to expire in June 2020 and there's been no guarantee that the funding will be continued. Is that something that the Office for Women has anything to do with? Ms Hawkins: I understand that program is actually run by the Department of Social Services. We could take that on notice and get information from them to answer your question. Senator WATERS: Okay. I was going to ask them that also, but is that something that the Office for Women has any input into? Ms Hawkins: They are best placed to actually look at that historical one. Senator WATERS: Does that mean no. Ms Hawkins: It means that we don't run it—yes. Senator WATERS: And you don't have any input into whether it's a good idea to keep funding it? Wasn't women's safety one of your four things? Ms Hawkins: Yes, it is. What we have been focusing on, particularly at the moment, is the Fourth Action Plan that was released recently by COAG in August. That's why we were looking at each other—just to check whether it was one of those initiatives. Senator WATERS: I believe it was. I think it was. Senator McALLISTER: An action plan initiative? Senator WATERS: Well, I don't know Maybe. Ms Hawkins: There are a number of packages and there were previous packages. Obviously there have been four action plans now, but also, between those action plans, there were other packages. Senator WATERS: Yes, there were packages between. I don't know where it sits in the zoo. I'm just interested in whether your office has anything to do with recommending that meritorious programs like that continue to be funded. Senator Payne: It's with DSS. Senator WATERS: Does that mean the Office for Women doesn't have any input, even though it's about women's safety? 078	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	Senator Waters	Australian Institute of Criminology, National Homicide Monitoring Program	Ms Bogaart: On a real-time national toll, the Australian Institute of Criminology, AIC, has been reporting its National Homicide Monitoring Program for the past 25 years. The AIC compiles homicide data from state and territory police and coronial records, including deaths due to intimate partner violence. The data is credibly sourced through law enforcement, the National Coronial Information System and also other data sources as appropriate. It provides trend data which does inform government policy. The data is updated every two years. The Australian government does rely on that data, as well as data from a range of other sources, including the Australian Bureau of Statistics, the Australian Institute of Health and Welfare and Australia's National Research Organisation for Women's Safety, in forming and developing government policy. It's really important that the government uses data that's evidence based to inform its policy development. We do have to be careful to take the time to verify the needs of balanced and timely release of information. Senator WATERS: Do you think two years is timely, though? I wouldn't have thought a two-year delay is timely. Ms Hawkins: I think what it goes to is having data that is verified and has gone through the process of working out what did actually happen. That is the key issue here. We have been talking to the Australian Institute of Criminology about having a look at what kind of current data offerings they have. So we are having conversations with them. Senator WATERS: Would you mind providing me a bit more detail on notice, given the time, about the nature of the discussions and the nature of what you perceive as the potential constraints, because I'd like to think on that further and possibly return to a dialogue about whether we can address those through the Senate. Ms Hawkins: Sure.	Pg. 123	21 October 2019

One of the things that we will do as the Office for Women, given that this is obviously a significant issue for women, is encourage stakeholders who we work with to put in submissions to the review so that the review panel gets a full range of input. That is one of the things that we will do in relation to this important review. Senator McALLISTER: Back to my original question: have you had any contact with the review? Ms Hawkins: I might have to take that on notice in terms of who particularly in the team has had contact. Senator McALLISTER: Okay. I appreciate that you've only recently started in your role, Ms Hawkins, and welcome and congratulations, but you do have two assistant secretaries at the table. It's not a big organisation. Either the Office for Women has had contact with the review or not. Ms Hawkins: I can see why you're asking that. We have got some new people at the table, including one of our acting assistant secretaries at the moment, and, indeed, the branch head of this team, who, no doubt, would have known the answer, has recently left. So I'm sure we can answer the question in terms of taking it on notice and finding out from one of our team.	Pg. 126	21 October 2019
082	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	Senator McAllister	Treasury Analysis – women's economic security	Senator McALLISTER: Okay, but they didn't contact anyone in the department of women; they haven't contacted anyone since establishing the review; you're not undertaking any analysis. Can I ask whether you're aware of whether or not Treasury is presently undertaking any analysis in relation to the causes of women's economic security, or is it— Ms Larkins: We'd have to take that on notice, but I'd be very confident that Treasury will be considering women as part of the work that it's doing in this review. Ms Hawkins: And if I can add— Senator McALLISTER: But you're not aware of it at this point—they haven't raised it with you or discussed it? Ms Larkins: We've said we'd take that on notice. Ms Hawkins: The terms of reference make it very clear—just to underline Ms Larkins' point—where they say that the Retirement Income Review will identify, among other things, distributional impacts across the population and over time. So of course it will be an issue that the review looks at Senator McALLISTER: Ms Hawkins, I don't share your confidence that of course it will be. The government has had multiple opportunities to implement measures that would support women in retirement, and they haven't. So I don't think, actually, we can at all assume that a reference to demographic analysis includes women at all. In fact, I don't understand the resistance on the part of the government to including women explicitly in the terms of reference to the review. But let us hope that your confidence is well placed, and we'll see where we get to, I guess. But so far, no contact? Ms Larkins: No, that's not what we said. Ms Hawkins: We didn't say that there was no contact; we said that we would have to take that on notice, to see.	Pg. 127	21 October 2019

084	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	Senator McAllister	Safe Connections – funding delivered through WESNET?	Senator McALLISTER: So we don't have a lot of time. Senator Waters was asking questions earlier about some of the women's safety programs. I just wanted to check if we could get an update on SafeConnections and the funding, and whether or not the funding is being delivered through WESNET? Ms Bogaart: That is a question for the Department of Social Services. They administer the program that funds that particular program. Senator McALLISTER: Right, okay. I think Senator Waters was going to this in her questioning but has a decision been made about future funding for the safety programs? Ms Hawkins: It depends which ones you mean. Senator McALLISTER: Well, the WESNET program in particular. Ms Bogaart: I can take it on notice. 085	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Office for Women	Senator McAllister	She's Priceless Report	Senator McALLISTER: Minister, I have looked at the statement. The She's Priceless report was mentioned earlier and it breaks down the constituent causes of the gender pay gap. Senator Waters has already spoken about gender discrimination. The three big constituent causes of discrimination are: the combined impact of years not working due to interruptions, part-time employment and unpaid work, which contribute to 39 per cent of the gender pay gap; and occupational and industrial segregation, which contribute 17 per cent to the gap. What I can't see, honestly, in this statement is any clear relationship between the measures that are proposed by government in this whole-of-government regime and these specific problems. I would appreciate it if you could take this on notice, Ms Larkins or Ms Hawkins or Minister, and just point to those actions in the Women's Economic Security Statement that specifically respond to those three problems that are identified in She's Priceless. Senator Payne: And there are other problems, as you described them, Senator, and I wouldn't disagree, and we would be happy to provide a response on notice to those matters. Senator McALLISTER: Any other information is always welcome, but my specific question— Senator Payne: No, I appreciate that. I've got it right in front of me. Senator McALLISTER: was as to the three amendments that are highlighted in She's price(d)less. CHAIR: We're right up to our scheduled time, Senator McAllister. Given our constrained time, I say this with a degree of limitation, but if there are no further questions for WGEA and the Office for Women, I thank you very much for your evidence and your attendance here this evening. I suspect you might be getting a few questions on notice later, but thank you very much. Senator Payne: We are happy to address those, Chair, as always.	Pg. 129	21 October 2019

098	Indigenous Land and Sea Corporation		Senator Dodson	Future Fund mandate	Mr Silcock: In the investment mandate direction that's been released, the Future Fund board created a direction whereby the benchmark return would be CPI plus two to three per cent. Leo and I had a meeting with the Department of Finance a couple of weeks ago, and the Future Fund board have carefully considered during the year how to invest the funds. For the period through to 30 September, the funds have been coming off their maturity from previous investments through the land account, and this consideration by the Future Fund board means that there was an arrangement with the Medical Research Future Fund whereby a portion of the funds, up to 90 per cent, would be put into the Medical Research Future Fund from 1 October. Senator DODSON: Is that mandate public? Mr Silcock: It is, yes. Senator DODSON: Are you able to table that with us or tell us where to find it? Is it on your website? Mr Silcock: It's on the Future Fund's website. Mr Bator: We can get that to you, Senator.	Pg. 5	25 October 2019

What do you operate from when you receive the funds? It used to be $50 million. Has it moved away from that? Has it gone up or gone down? What is it? Mr Silcock: The amount that we receive is indexed according to the CPI each year based on a starting figure of $45 million from 2010. We received $54 million on 1 October this year. Senator DODSON: That's up to $54 million a year. To whom is that available? I know you have a sea and a land component, but what I want to understand is: is it primarily for First Nations peoples or do you invest in non-First-Nations peoples? Mr Silcock: Primarily in First Nations people. Senator DODSON: But that doesn't preclude JVs and things like that? Mr Silcock: No, it wouldn't preclude a joint venture. Senator DODSON: What amount of funds have been spent since 1 February? Mr Bator: By the ILSC? Senator DODSON: By the ILSC, yes. I presume you're the blokes who spend it. Mr Bator: Of our expenditure that we would normally— Senator DODSON: Yes, of you meeting your obligations. So what amount of the $54 million have you spent since February? Mr Bator: We'd have to take that on notice. We normally operate on an annual basis, and we have figures; they're unavailable. The reason you're asking that question is to understand how we might have spent compared to what was earned during that period—	Pg. 5, 6	25 October 2019

But we actually have carryover funding as well that we are committing. Senator DODSON: So you're not operating off the fixed capital base? Mr Bator: No, we have additional money that we've had from previous years that we're now putting into it, so our annual expenditure going forward will be slightly more than $54 million per year. Mr Silcock: Yes. Mr Bator: We've got some program expenditure, but I can get further details exactly as you've asked.	Pg. 6	25 October 2019
101	Indigenous Land and Sea Corporation		Senator Siewert	Target marketing	Ms Stroud: Typically, our land and our water rights acquisition program is application based, so a group will come to us. They will bring to us a need for land or water rights and we will start the process with them. We have, over the last two years, done an extensive analysis of where our investment has been—rural, remote, urban and nationally. It's fair to say we do have a strategy of deliberately looking and garnering more interest and assessing needs of Indigenous groups in areas where we haven't invested a lot. We are conscious of groups coming to us in areas that we have invested in heavily previously and that is part of the weighing up. We do target marketing, if you like, of our program in those areas where we want more applications from groups. Senator SIEWERT: Could you take on notice, because I'm very conscious of time, the areas that you are targeting? Is Bourke one of those? What's the situation around Bourke? You can't tell me that right now or do you have a little bit of information now? Ms Stroud: Not Bourke specifically, but I can confirm that that western region of New South Wales, starting from Dubbo and getting further out, has been a priority focus for us. There has been quite a bit of activity in there over the last couple of months, in terms of really analysing what are the opportunities and what is the needs of Indigenous groups out there. Senator SIEWERT: I've had contact around the need for communities out there to acquire some land. So, if you could, overall across Australia, but in particular that western New South Wales region, that would be very much appreciated. Ms Stroud: Will do. Senator SIEWERT: Does that include your acquisition with the new sea mandate, which I'm very excited about. That's different, because you haven't really been there before. Could you also do not just land but sea as well in terms of priorities for action? Thank you.	Pg. 7	25 October 2019

For an independent store, which is not an Outback Stores store, it was how much? Mr Borg: Roughly—I will pick a store in the district of Willowra—it was $922, and Outback Stores was $846; the difference was $76. Senator SIEWERT: What's that compared to an urban— Mr Borg: I haven't actually got urban data, but I have got some data, so I can take it on notice and send some information through to you.	Pg. 14	25 October 2019
104	Outback Stores Pty Ltd		Senator Siewert	Cost of goods	Senator SIEWERT: You've just told me about that basket of goods. What I'm trying to find out now, if you can't tell me the direct price, is the percentage by which Outback Stores are higher than if I were living in, for example, Darwin—using the Northern Territory. Mr Borg: I would have to get that data for you on notice, Senator.	Pg. 14	25 October 2019
105	Outback Stores Pty Ltd		Senator Siewert	Purchase of fresh goods	Senator SIEWERT: Thank you. Can you provide the data—you'll have it since your operation—on the purchase of fresh food in each of the states that you operate in and over the term that you've been in existence? Mr Borg: In volume or in what we do from a mechanics point of view? Senator SIEWERT: What do you mean by 'what we do from a mechanics point of view'? I want to know what the purchase of fresh food has been like over the years that you've been operating. Mr Borg: Okay. I have got some data if you just bear with me one moment. Again, we drive this outcome extremely hard, and there's a bit of information in my opening statement. Last year we sold 4630 tonnes of fresh produce across the stores that we manage, and that was an increase of 4.5 per cent on the previous year. I can provide you on notice with some data across the last seven years, which shows a reasonable trend of increases from a comparative point of view, but the last two years have been a little bit of a struggle from a tonnage point of view. We've had some market conditions which certainly haven't assisted. We probably would like to be at 10 or 15 per cent each year from an increase point of view.	Pg. 15	25 October 2019
106	Outback Stores Pty Ltd		Senator Siewert	Price Analysis	Senator SIEWERT: Have you done an analysis since you began overall but also in each of the states or the regions? To what extent have you done that analysis since you came into operation in 2007? Mr Borg: We do a lot of work on analysis around fresh produce, because there are so many factors that change in that environment. One thing that we've got as part of our strategy coming out of that analysis is to make sure we match metropolitan prices, mostly. Our fresh produce prices are as close to metro prices as any of the other products in the store. We might have a gap in general merchandise and in some groceries, but we're flat out hell bent on making sure that fresh produce is as close as possible to the local store in Katherine, Alice Springs, Darwin or Broome. We work really hard to make sure those prices are down. Just of late, we're matching the banana price like for like for metropolitan stores as well; $3.99 for bananas in a remote community is really good at the moment.	Pg. 15	25 October 2019

108	Outback Stores Pty Ltd		Senator Dodson	Management Course data	Senator DODSON: What happens to the 251 employees? Mr Borg: The 251 employees? Senator DODSON: You said you had 276. If 25 have done management courses, what's happened to the 251? Mr Borg: They're to completion for the full year. Senator DODSON: So some of those are part-time and some are full-time. I'm wanting to get an idea whether there are any pathways for training, skilling, improving their prospects for being employed in this industry. Mr Borg: Absolutely. That's the pathway: sign on, start the business, cert II, III and IV. Senator DODSON: Is there a formal process or is this just ad hoc? Mr Borg: No, it's certainly not ad hoc. We've got a training department with two full-time trainers— Senator DODSON: If you could table some data, in relation to that, it would be useful. Mr Borg: I will take it on notice. That will be scrutinised by the audit and risk committee on Monday. The executive will then meet on Tuesday, and it will go to the minister on Wednesday. Senator DODSON: And then will it become public? Ms Scrymgeour: I am not sure what happens once we provide that to the minister. I suppose it will be tabled in the next sitting of parliament. Senator DODSON: Senator Seselja, could you shed any light on that? Senator Seselja: Shed any light on— Senator DODSON: On the tabling of the audit report— Mr Bulman: I might be able to assist. All annual reports get tabled in parliament, so they are public documents. Senator DODSON: There was some amendment made to this, so I am asking because they do not necessarily get tabled these days. They get produced on a website somewhere, and we are meant to go and find them. Senator Seselja: They generally get tabled. I can check the exact details. Senator SIEWERT: There were changes to the act. Senator DODSON: But there were changes to the tabling of annual reports? Senator Seselja: Sure. 					will get that information to you. There are some outstanding claims and I think this is one we are working through. I met with the Aboriginal Land Commissioner yesterday. There are 16 outstanding claims and that is one of them. We are hoping that we can resolve that by either the end of the year or early next year. He is keen to get that happening and so are we. I'll be putting in a supplementary bid to the department. I'm not sure what the Northern Territory government's position is. We need the Northern Territory government to also come in as a party to that to try and resolve it. In relation to the $500,000 that was given to AFANT, I think it was a bit of a slap in the face to a lot of Aboriginal people that it came from the IAS. That money should not have been given to a white mainstream organisation to go down that path. From the Northern Land Council's point of view, we have now brought all of those industry players and stakeholders to the table to try and resolve this without litigation. It is easy to litigate but it is harder to try and get consensus among all of them. We have now got quite a strong working committee which involves AFANT, the Seafood Council and the commercial fishermen sitting at the table with traditional owners working through issues of access to intertidal zone areas, which is really important.
111	Northern Land Council		Senator McCarthy	IAS funding	Senator McCARTHY: Is the NLC aware of IAS funding going to other non-Indigenous parties involved in land cases to argue detriment? 112	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Program Office	Senator McCarthy	Grant funding decisions	Senator McCARTHY: Good morning, Mr Griggs. How many grants have been approved by the NIAA since 1 July 2019 and what is the dollar value of these grants? Mr Griggs: I'll get some officials to help you with that. Ms Collard: From 1 March to 11 April there have been 240 funding decisions—since 1 July there have been 200 funding decisions, with a total of $567 million made; however, of those funding decisions, probably only 40 per cent would have been actually progressed during in that time. Senator McCARTHY: Let's unpack that a bit. Are you saying that, of that $567 million in total, only 40 per cent has been spent? Ms Collard: Has been progressed, yes. Senator McCARTHY: But that's how much there is to be spent? Ms Collard: That amount actually is what we're still progressing, even though the funding decisions have to be made, because, prior to that, during caretaker, a whole lot of decisions were made. As the delegate of the organisation during caretaker, we had to go through, based on the caretaker conventions, all those decisions of the previous minister to ensure that everything is checked and it's in line with our PGPA Act. Senator McCARTHY: I understand that. Mr Griggs: I don't think Ms Collard has the information that you need at her fingertips. I've just asked Mr Walker to get hold of it for us as quickly as possible. Senator McCARTHY: You've said 200 funding decisions since 1 July. Could we have a list of those funding decisions. Could you table that to the committee. Ms Collard: We will take that on notice. .... Mr Griggs: I think what has happened here is you obviously have the caretaker period, where very few new funding decisions were made, and then, post the election, we started to get things back through to the minister for decision. We'll lay it out so you can see. Senator McCARTHY: That would be great. Mr Griggs: I know where you're trying to achieve. Senator McCARTHY: I'm thinking that's what you've done, but it would be good to see what decisions were made prior to June and what has been rolled over into this new lot from July. It's important.	Pg. 23, 24	25 October 2019

					Mr Griggs: There are some that have rolled through, just because of the nature of the decisions. We've been working with providers to refine some of the proposals in some cases. We'll get that information for you.
113	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Program Office	Senator McCarthy	Grant funding decisions	Senator McCARTHY: Which ones are the 40 per cent that have progressed and which ones are still the outstanding of those 200? Ms Collard: We'll take that on notice as well.	Pg. 24	25 October 2019
114	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Program Office	Senator McCarthy	Grant approvals	Senator McCARTHY: How many grants were approved by the old agency under the Department of the Prime and Cabinet from January 2019, which is what you initially started to tell us— Ms Collard: I started to tell you that one. Senator McCARTHY: to June 30 and what is the dollar value? Ms Collard: I probably have to take that on notice. What I have is from 1 March. But I can tell you— Senator McCARTHY: Why don't you start with what you have and then we can take the others on notice from January to March. Mr Griggs: We'll get the first quarter of the calendar year for you on notice	Pg. 24	25 October 2019
115	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Program Office	Senator McCarthy	Grant approvals – activities	Senator McCARTHY: No, from March to June, you said you had figures there. Would you be able to tell us what they are? Ms Collard: Okay, I'll repeat that. From 1 March to caretaker we made a decision on 240 activities, with a total value of $567 million; however, because caretaker was on 11 April, the checks and balances, out of that 240 activities, only about a quarter have been progressed, with the rest that we have to continually progress. Senator McCARTHY: Let's look at the numbers there. If we're saying that a quarter have been progressed of the 240 activities from March to June, are the remainder included in those 200 that you told us about from July? Ms Collard: Yes, of the 240 we approved during that period that I've just mentioned, a quarter have been progressed. Prior to July there were 38 activities actually executed. We're still in the progress of doing the checks and balances with all the others. We could get that data but we haven't got that data on today's date, exactly how many of those have been executed. Senator McCARTHY: Maybe you would like to take this one on notice. I've asked you to give us the 200 funding decisions. Could you also give us the names of the 240 activities and the amounts that were requested.	Pg. 24	25 October 2019
116	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Employment, Environment and Evaluation	Senator McCarthy	Fortescue Metals Group	Dr Hartmann: The Fortescue Metals Group was provided with funding for 400 jobs as part of a career advancement pilot. This is slightly different to the way we provided funding under the Employment Parity Initiative for other partners. Dr Hartmann: They have 400 Indigenous staff that they are bringing on board as part of their career advancement pilot. Senator McCARTHY: But why would they come to IAS? Dr Hartmann: Under the IAS program, we fund—through the Employment Parity Initiative—partners to work with us, to try and increase the proportion of Indigenous employees. Fortescue Metals Group is one of those groups that we've partnered with. Senator McCARTHY: What was your figure? I named a figure; was that correct? Can you give us the figure that you provided to Fortescue? Dr Hartmann: I'm just going to find that for you. Just a moment—we're going to find that for you.	Pg. 25	25 October 2019

118	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Housing, Land and Culture	Senator McCarthy	Flag licences	Mr Bulman: We haven't had advice on the interactions between commercial agreements and the non-commercial ones, such as the ATSIIC one, or any other non-commercial one that Mr Thomas may have in place. I must reiterate that we have no visibility of the commercial agreements. They're private agreements, so we wouldn't be able to scrutinise the terms of those private agreements to determine the impact on other agreements. Senator McALLISTER: Two questions. You say you have no visibility on any of these other agreements with the three private organisations. Am I to understand that the Commonwealth has none of the documentation? Mr Bulman: The commercial agreements, no. They're between— Senator McALLISTER: Yes, I understand. But they haven't been provided to you through any of the discussions that Mr Griggs or the minister has been engaged in? Mr Bulman: No. Mr Griggs: What I'm trying to do, in terms of WAM Clothing, is to explore what the art of the possible is here. I don't want to make this any more divisive than it already is. I think that's a really important position, from our perspective—to try to resolve this in a way that doesn't destroy the unifying nature of this flag. I think that's really important. 119	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Employment, Environment and Evaluation	Senator O'Sullivan	IEP program	Senator O'SULLIVAN: Are you aware that, under the IEP program, organisations, really profitable businesses like Crown, Spotless, Compass, ESS, I could go on—these are really good Australian companies employing lots of people—were funded by the Australian government to take people that were unemployed, help them to address their barriers to employment, train them into those jobs and see them sustained in those jobs over a period of time. Ms Clough: The particular organisations that you mention are currently funded by— Senator O'SULLIVAN: They were funded more than just under current programs. These programs have been funded for a long time, is that right? Ms Clough: The information we have is about the organisations that we've funded over the recent time. I don't have information about— Senator O'SULLIVAN: Take it on notice, if someone can get back to us, whether these profitable companies that are employing good Australians were funded prior to the Indigenous Advancement Strategy initiative. Is the Vocational Training Employment Centres program still funded by the Australian government? Dr Hartmann: Yes	Pg. 33, 34	25 October 2019
120	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Employment, Environment and Evaluation	Senator O'Sullivan	Jobseekers	Senator O'SULLIVAN: Is there a particular focus on a cohort of jobseekers? Is there a particular focus on the cohort of Indigenous jobseekers that might have significant and multiple barriers to employment? Ms Clough: Yes, there is a weighting towards those Indigenous jobseekers that would fall into the JSCI classifications of streams B and C. The way the funding model operates is that the VTEC is contracted to deliver a certain number of job placements. There's a cap on the placements that they can make and therefore an outcome payment under stream A, which are the more job-ready jobseekers. The payment for placing and getting an employment outcome for a stream A is lower than the payment that the provider would receive for a stream B, and the greatest payment is for an outcome for a stream C. Senator O'SULLIVAN: So it is weighted towards outcomes for those jobseekers with high levels of barriers? Ms Clough: Bs and Cs. Dr Hartmann: The most disadvantaged jobseekers. Ms Clough: Where the barriers are greatest. Senator O'SULLIVAN: Are there updated figures on the breakdown of each cohort—A, B and C?	Pg. 34, 35	25 October 2019

					Ms Clough: The dollar value?  Senator O'SULLIVAN: No, the percentage or the total number of outcomes achieved for people. With that, if I can get the total number since its commencement—  Dr Hartmann: Into the different streams?  Senator O'SULLIVAN: Yes, by stream, and then, importantly, the number of people that also sustained a 26-week employment outcome.  Dr Hartmann: Within each stream, yes.  Senator O'SULLIVAN: Within each stream, so the number that commenced and then, following that, the number that reached a 26-week employment outcome, by stream.  Dr Hartmann: We can get that.  Ms Clough: The funding model did change about a year and a half ago. Prior to January 2018, the funding model was a simple 26-week employment outcome.  Senator O'SULLIVAN: On that, can you provide it, on notice, year by year so that we can see if there was a change with the funding model. I understand that the funding model meant that rather than it being all on 26 weeks there were some milestones along the way. I'd be interested to understand what impact that's had on the outcomes—whether it's improved them, whether it's helped.  Dr Hartmann: Sure. 123	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Recognition, Policy and Empowered Communities and Closing the Gap	Senator Dodson	Co-design process	Senator DODSON: No, don't try and bamboozle me with the co-design process. Let's just take a hypothetical. If, out of this next iteration of consulting First Nations about what it is they want, having told you already what they want—you're going to have another iteration now and ask them: 'What do you really want? We heard you the first time. No, we didn't hear you the first time. We want to hear you again.' If they'll come back and say, 'We want the voice in the Constitution,' which they've been saying for a fairly long time, you'll say, 'I'm sorry, we've just spent'—I don't know how much you intend to spend on this. Mr Fox, can you inform me?  Mr Fox: $7.3 million has been allocated.  Senator DODSON: $7.3 million and you'll get the same answer, potentially, that you got from Uluru.  Mr Fox: Perhaps the other way of explaining it is that we've also been mindful of the recommendations of the joint select committee, which you and Mr Leeser co-chaired, which recommended that there be a co-design process to articulate the detail of the voice and that, following the co-design process, the government should consider legislative, executive and constitutional options to establish the voice. So the co-design process that we were allocated funding for also goes to the implementation of that recommendation.  Senator DODSON: That's recommendation 2.  Mr Fox: I don't have the number in front of me, but I'll take your advice.	Pg. 40	25 October 2019

124	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Community and Economic Development	Senator Siewert	CDP – Regional data	Senator SIEWERT: I've consistently asked for the regional breakdown of data for CDP and consistently it is not provided. I will ask again: why can't regional data be provided? It's not as if you are identifying anybody. Ms Bird: Which particular data are you referring to? Senator SIEWERT: Data on jobs for CDP and the outcomes for CDP at a regional level. You still don't adequately provide that information. Are you now able to provide more detailed information about employment outcomes? Ms Bird: I don't have the regional breakdown with me. Senator SIEWERT: I don't necessarily mean right now. Sometimes you have to take things on notice.	Pg. 43	25 October 2019
125	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Community and Economic Development	Senator Siewert	CDP – Community data	Ms Bird: Remote communities, as you know, are small. For some regions, when we start to cut the data down to specific levels, it can cause us some concerns about potential privacy issues. I'd have to have a look at specific questions. Senator SIEWERT: You could go to fewer than 20, for example. It's fewer than five for the CDP and for income management data. I would have thought that was potentially pretty personal. We get that level of data, so I still don't see why there's an issue. Ms Bird: I'll have to take on notice what we can provide. There are a range of things that have to be looked at in the data analysis. Mr Griggs: In terms of regions, from your perspective, are we talking about CDP regions or other regions? Senator SIEWERT: I'm trying to look closer than the CDP regions. Perhaps we'll try that first. Mr Griggs: By region? By the 60 regions? Senator SIEWERT: We're trying to go smaller— Mr Griggs: You're trying to get to almost the community level? Senator SIEWERT: Yes. Do you have subregions? Ms Bird: I think there are challenges in providing that specific level of information at the community level. It can depend. Ms Bird: I'll undertake to do the best we possibly can to provide that data.	Pg. 43	25 October 2019
126	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Community and Economic Development	Senator Siewert	CDP provider signage	Senator SIEWERT: There's a symbol with 'no cash' through it, and it says 'No show, no pay'. It makes the bold comment: 'From 1 October 2019, if you don't come to activities, your Centrelink payment can be affected.' There's another one about 'No show, no pay'. There has been a very strong reaction to the posting of those signs. I have had complaints about not being able to—a lack of contact. Mr Griggs: We made it very clear that they were unacceptable. Senator SIEWERT: Okay. I've heard the signs have come down, but there were other issues related to those signs, in terms of the way people felt that they weren't able to access information or get support. Mr Denny: One of the issues there is the ability of the provider to access some of the facilities in that region, but they've now resolved some of those issues. In terms of the ability to engage with participants, that's on the way to being resolved. We're working with both of those local organisations to resolve that. Senator SIEWERT: When will it be resolved? Mr Denny: I couldn't give you a time frame on it, but we've made it very clear to the provider that, if there's an issue with access, the participants aren't the ones who should be penalised for that. That's why those sorts of signs are inappropriate. Senator SIEWERT: Did you look at whether there were additional penalties that occurred as a result of that, and were there? Mr Denny: Yes, I believe there were. 127	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Education, Community Safety and Health	Senator McAllister	Grant allocations	Mr Exell: Sorry. I have found it. The Yakanarra Community School is $285,000, six positions. Senator McALLISTER: So $285,000 over one financial year? Mr Exell: Correct. Senator McALLISTER: To me, they'd previously received $630,000 across two financial years which is effectively 315,000 a year, the amount you're providing is $30,000 less than what was previously available, not accounting for inflation, just in nominal terms. Mr Exell: Yes, off the top of my head. I'll have to check that specific difference. That could be that different positions have been requested. My understanding is that in that school there are different types of staff that are being funded. If there's a different mix to those staff then you have a different cost for the total annual figure. I will have to check what the specific arrangement is. Senator McALLISTER: If you could provide on notice the specifics of the grant allocation that would be appreciated. Mr Exell: Yes.	Pg. 45	25 October 2019

129	National Indigenous Australians Agency	Education, Community Safety and Health	Senator Siewert	South Australia Low-aromatic fuel	Senator SIEWERT: Have any more sites moved to low-aromatic fuel? Are there new sites which have now adopted non-sniffable fuel? Ms Foote: There has been a recent conversion, so I can provide that detail. Senator SIEWERT: And are there any that are still selling standard fuel in roadhouses in that area in the southern part of the NT, or just over the border in SA? In other words, they haven't rolled out or adopted low-aromatic fuels. Ms Foote: There have been two recent conversions in South Australia: Cadney Homestead Roadhouse and Marla Roadhouse. The most recent conversion was this month, in Central Australia, at Laramba. We will very shortly convert another in Camooweal in Queensland, and we're working in the Goldfields region at a number of sites that we expect will convert shortly. In terms of your second question about the prescribed areas, where it must be converted: I'm not aware that it's the South Australian part. I know that it's Katherine, Daly River, Tennant Creek and Palm Island. Those are the four prescribed areas. It remains our position that a voluntary conversion is the best way, and we work with services to do that voluntarily. The four areas where it has to be don't include northern South Australia. Senator SIEWERT: You're not working in that area to encourage or use the legislation that you have available to ensure that they are converting over? Ms Foote: A choice to use the legislation would be for the minister, but we will work across the board with people on voluntary conversion. There were those two in South Australia, but I'm not aware of any others ongoing. Senator SIEWERT: Okay. Mr Griggs: I know that there is a very large section now of the Stuart Highway, from northern South Australia through, where low-aromatic fuel is the standard. We'll get you some of the detail	Pg. 51	25 October 2019

1136	Prime Minister and Cabinet	Economic	Senator Ayres	Provision of tax concessions	Senator AYRES: Today in The Australian it announces breathlessly that the Treasury is releasing a discussion paper regarding the provision of tax concessions for projects over $500 million. Did Treasury consult with the department on the measure? Mr Duggan: We were consulted in the usual course of providing policy advice to the Prime Minister. Tax policy decisions, of course, are issues for the cabinet and so we were absolutely consulted in the lead-up to cabinet discussions of those issues. Senator AYRES: And when was that? Mr Duggan: The precise measure I'll need to take on notice—I can't recall precisely when we were consulted. ... Senator AYRES: I suspected that might've been the case. The reason I ask is—it might just be my confusion, but can the department confirm that the measure that was announced today was first announced in last year's budget? Mr Duggan: Yes, it was certainly a budget measure. That's correct. It was about expanding some existing tax concessions to include those infrastructure projects. So that's correct. Senator AYRES: It was more than a budget measure, wasn't it? Is it the case that the measure passed the parliament in April of this year? Mr Duggan: I don't have that detail in front of me. Senator AYRES: I'm told that it passed both houses on 3 April. Is anybody in a position to confirm that? Senator Seselja: That fundamentally would be a question for the Treasury. Senator AYRES: It isn't a new announcement, is it? Mr Duggan: It's a measure that was in the budget. In that sense, what's referred to in the press today is not a decision that was taken today. It's a decision that had been taken some time ago in the budget context. Senator AYRES: It is a re-announcement of an old measure? Mr Duggan: As I said, it's an announcement of a decision that had been taken in the budget context. That's absolutely right. Senator AYRES: Perhaps I'll ask the minister: are there any plans to announce it again? Senator Seselja: Sorry? Senator AYRES: Do you have any plans to announce it again? Senator Seselja: Not to my knowledge. 1140	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Government	Senator Ayres	Queensland Resources Council annual lunch	Senator AYRES: I want to ask a couple of questions in relation to what the Prime Minister has had to say recently about boycotts. In an address to the Queensland Resources Council annual lunch, on 1 November this year, the Prime Minister referred to what he described as 'an escalating trend towards a new form of secondary boycotts in this country'. He then went on to say:  Let me assure you, this is not something my government intends to allow to go unchecked. Together with the Attorney-General Christian Porter, we are working to identify a series of mechanisms that can successfully outlaw these indulgent and selfish practices that threaten the livelihoods of fellow Australians, especially in our rural and regional areas and especially here in Queensland. Now, we will take our time to get this right. We will do the homework and we're doing that right now.  What involvement has the department had in developing this proposal, Ms Foster?  Mr Duggan: That is my space again. We had some involvement in the Prime Minister's speech, largely by way of fact-checking. We provided an early version. We weren't engaged around the specific issue of secondary boycotts and so the work that has been taking place subsequently has been taking place in the relevant departments. In that regard we are connected to that work, but we are not leading it.  Senator AYRES: In relation to the speech, was the secondary boycott bit in the speech that the department worked on?  Mr Duggan: No. We provided a draft and it wasn't part of that draft, but obviously it was part of the final. We did check components of a later version of the speech. I can't recall—I can't tell you whether or not that issue was part of that subsequent version that we saw.  Senator AYRES: So the lead department on developing this proposal is Attorney-General's?  Mr Duggan: Yes. It is a legal issue, so, yes, it would fit with Attorney-General's.  Senator AYRES: And the department has been consulted since? There is an active proposal?  Mr Duggan: I haven't been directly involved in this work. I might see if there is anyone here who can help you directly.  Ms Foster: There is no-one here who has that knowledge. I have just checked with the relevant officer, who would know if we knew.  Senator AYRES: I am just trying to see what I can ask if there is nobody here in a position to answer these questions. Is anybody in a position to advise us today whether the department has been working on briefs in relation to this proposal?  Ms Foster: I just checked with the head of the relevant division, who shadows the Attorney-General function. Had we been doing so, he would be aware.  Senator AYRES: You are proposing to check?  Ms Foster: I did just check.  Senator AYRES: Is he aware of—  Ms Foster: No.  Senator AYRES: So, no briefs—no homework?  Ms Foster: That is correct, to my knowledge.  Senator AYRES: Has a decision been taken by cabinet on this announcement?  Ms Foster: Sorry, I was just looking to make sure that we are still on track. We are doing a check with our staff just to make sure that there wasn't something happening that we weren't aware of; but to our understanding, no.  Senator AYRES: Has a decision been taken by the cabinet in relation to this proposal?  Ms Foster: I don't know.  Senator AYRES: Minister?  Senator Seselja: Sorry, I will take that question on notice.  Senator AYRES: Mr Duggan, you are not—  Mr Duggan: I don't have any line of sight on that, no. Sorry.	Pg. 8-9	14 November 2019

					Senator AYRES: So the speech has been made. I am not sure whether the briefs, or what the Prime Minister called the 'homework' on this extraordinary proposition, have been done. We are not in a position to know whether the cabinet has considered it at all? Ms Foster: Again, we're checking this, but my understanding would be that that work would be being taken forward by the Attorney-General's Department. Senator AYRES: The Prime Minister announced it. It's an extraordinary proposition. It's not a small legal administration question; it's a big question of public policy—to outlaw consumer boycotts. Ms Foster: That area of public policy rests with the Attorney-General's Department. Senator McALLISTER: But it was in the speech. Ms Foster: That's correct.

1142	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	PMO	Senator McAllister	Queensland Resources Council annual lunch – Advice from Attorney-General to the Prime Minister	Senator McALLISTER: I think we're just trying to understand what was the basis on which the public statements about doing the homework right now were made. The advice from all of you is that that homework was not being done in your department at the time that the Prime Minister made those remarks. Ms Foster: That's correct. Senator McALLISTER: So we must look elsewhere for where he sought his information. Mr Duggan: That's correct. What we don't have visibility of is the conversations that the Prime Minister may have had with the Attorney prior to making any statements in that regard and what the Attorney may have asked his department to do in that regard. We can only provide evidence on what we've been doing as a department. Senator McALLISTER: Minister, did the Attorney-General provide advice to the Prime Minister about these boycotts before he made those public statements? Senator Seselja: I'd have to take the detail of that on notice, but the Prime Minister has clearly laid out his concerns and he's laid out the fact that more detailed work will be done. In terms of exactly how that work's done, officials have given evidence in relation to the departments that will have the lead on that. No doubt a number of discussions take place. I wasn't privy to the specifics but I'm happy to take that on notice. Senator McALLISTER: Could you please take on notice when advice was provided to the Prime Minister by the Attorney-General and in what form. Senator Seselja: Sure. Senator McALLISTER: Was it verbal advice? Was it an email? If written advice was provided, could we please see a copy of that advice. Senator Seselja: I'm happy to take that on notice.	Pg. 10	14 November 2019

1144	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Economic	Senator McAllister	Wage Growth	Senator McALLISTER: Okay. When did the department last brief the Prime Minister on the issue of wage growth? Dr Gruen: I'd have to take that on notice. I can take on notice when the last time was that we briefed the Prime Minister on wage growth. We obviously monitor it closely. We're aware of the outcome yesterday, so we follow it closely, but I'm not sure that there would have—the Treasury summary of releases is shared with the Prime Minister's office, and that's the normal way that that briefing would go up to the Prime Minister. Kirribilli House is the home of the Prime Minister, and the department only gets involved with official functions, for example, at the house. Senator KITCHING: I guess what I'm asking you is: since 24 August 2018 are you aware whether Mr Mitchell Cole was a guest in any official function at which the department would be involved? Ms Foster: I'm not aware. We just wouldn't have that level of detail with us. Senator KITCHING: Can you take it on notice? Ms Foster: I can.	Pg. 14	14 November 2019

I would have to check. Senator KITCHING: That would be good if you could. If yes, could you provide the communications, obviously with personal information redacted. Would you be able to do that? Ms Foster: I'll take that on notice. Senator KITCHING: Finally, has Mr Cole ever been engaged as a contractor by the Commonwealth? If you could take that on notice, that would be good. Ms Foster: Certainly.	Pg. 14-15	14 November 2019
1148	North Queensland Livestock Industry Recovery Agency		Senator Ayres	Breakdown of travel costs	Senator AYRES: There have been extensive visits made by the seconded staff, the CEO and the advisory board. Is it possible, on notice, to provide the travel costs associated with each trip? Mr Padovan: I can provide that figure now. The cost of travel, to the end of September, was $319,000. That covered vehicle hire, airfares and accommodation, keeping in mind that every member of the team, bar one, has been in the region and some staff have done multiple visits. Of the board meetings, the bulk of them—all of them bar one in Canberra—were regionally based, so there's been quite a focus on getting staff and engagement out in the region. Senator AYRES: Are you able to provide now a breakdown of the travel costs by trip and by cost item? Mr Padovan: We can certainly provide a summary of the travel costs on notice. Senator AYRES: Thank you. 1149	North Queensland Livestock Industry Recovery Agency		Senator Ayres	Queensland Rural and Industry Development Authority agreement	Senator AYRES: I suspect we'll have agencies with the same experience in New South Wales and Queensland, with a million hectares burnt out already this season. It's very confronting for people. Mr Stone: The people who will need to be supported are the victims of this as well as the first responders, I have to tell you, because it is really confronting. Senator AYRES: Earlier on, Mr Stone, you said there was an on-cost payment for service delivery from— Mr Stone: QRIDA? Senator AYRES: QRIDA. How much is that? Mr Padovan: That figure, from memory, is around 3½ per cent, and that is a negotiated figure with full transparency of what covers the administration arrangements for the grants programs administered by QRIDA on our behalf. Senator AYRES: I see. So it's not done on the basis of time or an invoice. It's a proportion of the grants that are expended, is it? Mr Padovan: In advance of settling the agreement with QRIDA around delivery, we had full disclosure of what it would take for QRIDA to undertake the processing, provide the assurance arrangements and do the on-the-ground activities that were required. From that, we agreed a figure for administration, which was a percentage of the overall— Senator AYRES: Is there a memorandum between the two governments or the two agencies that sets that out? Mr Padovan: There certainly is. There's quite a range of documentation in place: the national partnership agreement, which covers the $300 million that was transferred to the Queensland government and how that money is to be disbursed, and then a range of documentation that underpins that in terms of how we ensure that the money is going where we expect it to go and that the processes that we expect to be followed are being followed. Senator AYRES: Would you be able to provide that on notice? Mr Padovan: We can certainly provide those documents.	Pg. 23	14 November 2019
1150	North Queensland Livestock Industry Recovery Agency		Senator Ayres	Schedule of proportions allocated to loans	Senator AYRES: Mr Stone, at the outset, in your opening statement, you set out for us the proportion of that $3.3 billion that has been allocated. That was very helpful and saved me a series of questions. Is it possible to provide a schedule that sets that out in a way that shows what proportion of it is allocated to loans? Mr Stone: Absolutely. Yes, we have all of that detail. Senator AYRES: Is that something you can provide to the committee? Mr Stone: Yes.	Pg. 24	14 November 2019
1151	North Queensland Livestock Industry Recovery Agency		Senator Ayres	Loan applications	Senator AYRES: I understand that the process for some of these properties rebuilding and having a plan to rebuild is complex, and so their needs in terms of finance, grants and other assistance are going to evolve over time. I get that. I guess what I'm really coming to is: the loan applications which had been received by RIC—let's go back to the estimates: the 19 in October, or as at the end of September—were complete loan applications, weren't they? Mr Stone: Yes. Senator AYRES: So it wasn't that people were struggling with filling the forms out; they'd filled the forms out and got that bit done. It was about RIC's internal processes in approving or not approving loans. Is that— Mr Stone: No, I don't think that's right. We've worked closely with RIC. We haven't fielded a single complaint out of the region about RIC. When I was there last week they assured me that they had processed $36 million worth of loans and that they were out there, very visibly, trying to attract people to consider them as an option. But they're not the only option. Senator AYRES: Yes, I appreciate that point. How many loans are they considering now? And how many have they approved? Mr Padovan: The numbers we had in September were 19 applications received and three loans	Pg. 25-26	14 November 2019

					approved. We have worked with RIC in terms of their processing times. As Mr Stone flagged, there have been no concerns raised with us. As with any loan application, there is a lot of going back and forth—to clarify, to question, to test and to challenge—to make sure that the application is complete. It's not an area of concern, and we have that open line with RIC and also the strong engagement on the ground. So, from our perspective, the time around the processing of these loans has not been an issue which has been raised with us and it's not one which is an area where we're— Senator AYRES: Would you be able to provide us with some updated figures then—to, say, end of October? Mr Padovan: We will work with RIC, keeping in mind that RIC come under the Agriculture portfolio. We'll organise for an update through— Senator AYRES: But the short story is that you're not concerned about that and believe that there's been some improvement in any case? Mr Padovan: Yes. Senator AYRES: But it would be good to see what's giving you that confidence. Mr Padovan: Yes.
1152	Office of the Official Secretary to the Governor-General		Senator McAllister	Contractors	Senator McALLISTER: Thank you. I am just looking at your budget from this year. It appears that in 2018-19 you had $7.6 million allocated for employee entitlements. Is that correct? Mr Singer: That's approximately correct, yes. Senator McALLISTER: And an average staffing level of about 80? Mr Singer: That's right. Senator McALLISTER: How does that compare with previous years? Mr Singer: Over the last 10 years or so, there's been a reduction in the order of 10 per cent to 15 per cent in our average staffing level. Senator McALLISTER: Can I ask you about some of the contracts that have been published on AusTender from the office. Looking at it, it appears that there have been more than 30 contract notices since January this year for your office for personnel recruitment and temporary personnel services. My assessment is that the value of those contracts is in the order of $2½ million, which is the equivalent of about a third of your entire staffing budget. Does that square with your understanding of the expenditure on personnel? Mr Singer: Over recent times, you'd be aware that the office has undertaken a review of the honours business support system, and as part of that process we've been seeking to streamline and simplify the nominations process and the approval process for Australian honours. In that work, we've been doing a lot of automation. As part of the outcome of that work, we are currently undertaking a comprehensive workforce review of what our staffing requirement in the honours secretariat is. Until such time as that honours review is complete, we don't have a complete and full picture of what our ongoing staffing requirement will be. So, in the interim period, quite a number of those positions have been filled by contract staff. Senator McALLISTER: Are they in addition to the baseline budget allocation that's indicated in the portfolio budget statement, or are you filling that allocation via these means? Mr Singer: In the MYEFO in December, the office received additional funding in recognition of the increase in nominations for the Australian honours and awards system for the express purpose of providing additional contract staff to support the increase in workload, both in the honours secretariat and more broadly across the office. Senator McALLISTER: That's in addition, then, to the 80? Mr Singer: Those contractors are, yes. Senator McALLISTER: Do you have 80 staff? Are you at your allocation? Mr Singer: At the moment, no. We're currently sitting at approximately 74. Senator McALLISTER: But you're in the ballpark of your allocation? Mr Singer: The ballpark. Senator McALLISTER: In addition to that, what are we talking about in terms of the contracted	Pg. 28-29	14 November 2019

It fluctuates between nine and 10.  Senator McALLISTER: So there have been 30 contract notices published since January 2019. I find it difficult to understand how that relates to just 10 personnel?  Mr Singer: It is important to note that that relates to hospitality staff to support the Governor-General's program. We have a number of household staff who are permanently part of our ASL but they are, of course, complemented by contractors.  Senator McALLISTER: I see. Can I get a breakdown then of what is happening in terms of temporary personnel engaged in your area? Helpfully, you have confirmed that you have around 74 staff, and they are presumably engaged directly and in the ordinary way?  Mr Singer: Under the Governor-General Act, that's right.  Senator McALLISTER: Then you have an additional nine to 10 contract staff engaged in this honours project?  Mr Singer: Most of them are engaged in the honours project. There are some others within the office in different positions as well.  Senator McALLISTER: Then, in addition to that, you've got a fluctuating requirement for catering support?  Mr Singer: Yes, on an as-needs basis.  Senator McALLISTER: Can you give us a quantitative indication of what is being required in that area?  Mr Singer: I would certainly be happy to take that on notice to give you a full picture of where our contractors are employed and in what areas across the office.
1153	Office of the Official Secretary to the Governor-General		Senator McAllister	Speeches and media of former governor-generals	Senator McALLISTER: Are the speeches and media of former governors-general archived anywhere?  Mr Singer: Well, the office has those archived within the office, yes.  Senator McALLISTER: The media of prime ministers and ministers is often available after they cease to hold office. Is there a difference here?  Mr Singer: I would have to contemplate that. I don't think there has been a precedent where a former Governor-General's speeches are necessarily made available on the current Governor-General's website but I can understand that there may be some ongoing interest and historical value in those speeches, and I would be happy to contemplate having those speeches made available.  Senator McALLISTER: Again, I suggest that there is a public interest in having such things publicly available and easily accessible. The mechanism is scrutiny at senate estimates, senate question time and you asking whether or not such meetings in breach of the rules have happened. For as long as we can provide you assurance, as I have, that no such meetings have taken place, then obviously there is compliance. That is the way the democratic process works. We've got some really good data. Senator SIEWERT: Could you take that on notice. So could you take on notice what your management strategy is: does it vary across stores, or do you have one policy for your management of access to sniffable aerosols? Mr Borg: Yes. We will get you some detailed information but we do manage it on a store by store, I guess, situation. We heavily engage the store owners and directors and the decisions that they make in their own communities, so we'll give you some further information.	Pg. 15	25 October 2019
1159	Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet	Prime Minister's Office	Senator Waters	Prime Minister's Meeting with James McGrath regarding Adani	Did the Prime Minister meet with Senator James McGrath between 25 March and 9 April? Senator Cormann: I'd be surprised if they didn't have a level of interaction in that period, leading up to, obviously, the election being called, but I would have to take on notice whether or not there was any specific meeting during that period. Senator WATERS: Thank you. And could you provide the agenda, the minutes and any other documents produced at such meetings? Senator Cormann: We'll consider what we can appropriately provide.	Pg. 98	21 October 2019
1160	Office of National Intelligence		Senator Patrick	Section 18 – briefings to the Leader of the Opposition	Senator PATRICK: Mr Warner, I'm going to go over some questions I asked at the last estimates, when we didn't have the benefit of your presence, so hopefully you'll be able to help me out. I have some additional questions as well. You'd be aware that section 18 of your act provides for briefings on significant intelligence matters to the Leader of the Opposition. Mr Anthony Albanese was elected Leader of the Opposition on 30 May. How many times has he been briefed by your organisation under that provision? Mr Warner: The Office of National Intelligence has briefed the Leader of the Opposition twice since the election: one a briefing was just for the Leader of the Opposition, and the other was a broader briefing for—I'm not quite sure how to put this—the opposition's shadow national security cabinet or committee. Senator PATRICK: What are the protocols in relation to that? Is it that the opposition leader requests a briefing, or do you come forth when there's a matter of significance that you think he or she needs to be made aware of? Mr Warner: On both those occasions, from my recollection, the opposition leader's office reached out to us, via the Prime Minister's office. I think that's the usual route for these sorts of things. It's not inconceivable—I wouldn't rule out the fact—that sometimes, if there were events that we thought should be brought to the attention of the opposition, we might do so, but, again, we would do that with the agreement of my boss, the Prime Minister. Senator PATRICK: Even though section 18 of the act makes it clear that he can be briefed, you're still of the view that you need to seek the Prime Minister's— Mr Warner: I think that's the process that's always been followed. If you like, I can check out the niceties and the legalities of that and come back to you.	Pg. 1-2	26 November 2019

					Senator PATRICK: Yes, I would be interested in that. Obviously there are some important governance issues associated with that question. You clearly appear before the PJCIS. Do you appear before any other committees other than FPA? Mr Warner: Apart from Senate estimates, no.
1161	Office of National Intelligence		Senator McAllister	Recommendations from the Merchant-L'Estrange review	Senator McALLISTER: I have previously asked the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet about the process for implementing the recommendations from the Merchant-L'Estrange review. Perhaps a year ago the status of that was that they were being progressed through an interdepartmental committee that, I think, was headed at that time by Mr McKinnon, working out of PM&amp;C. As far as I could tell, the work program was predominantly focused on the creation of the new structure, and the creation of ONI is obviously a big part of that, and the creation of the Department of Home Affairs. But there are other recommendations in the review. Can you tell me where accountability rests in government for implementation of Merchant-L'Estrange? Mr Warner: From memory, there were 23 recommendations in the review. While I can't remember them all—I will take it on notice—I think the vast majority of them have been implemented. Most of them concerned ONI; not only the establishment of ONI but things that ONI was to do to fulfil its new mandate. I can't think of any that we haven't actually done. Then there would be broader ones, which are with government, that would be outside ONI's ambit. All I can do is have a look at where the implementation is up to, cross-check with some other relevant departments, or agencies, and come back to the committee in writing.	Pg. 3	26 November 2019
1162	Office of National Intelligence		Senator McAllister	Separation of collection and analysis	Senator McALLISTER: I have one more question that is rather a more theoretical one. On my earlier question about structurally separating collection and analysis, what is the underlying reason for that? It's not really a trick question— Mr Warner: We'd both have to go back and read Hope. Senator McALLISTER: Good luck! Because, actually, the first one is very hard to track down! I've tried! Mr Warner: I think I could find it! I think it was about a corruption of process, that it was safer or it was better to have them in—not silos, because we want interaction between collectors and assessors. But I think that was his primary argument. I will check it out and come back to you.	Pg. 4	26 November 2019
1163	Office of National Intelligence		Senator Patrick	Assessments and Reports for the Governor-General	Senator PATRICK: The Governor-General, His Excellence the Hon. David Hurley, was sworn in on 1 July 2019. Is the Governor-General included in the regular distribution of Office of National Intelligence assessments and reports? Mr Warner: The Governor-General does receive some ONI reporting. Senator PATRICK: How many assessment reports have been provided to him since he was appointed as the Governor-General? Mr Warner: Clearly I will have to take that on notice.	Pg. 4	26 November 2019
1164	Office of National Intelligence		Senator Patrick	Governor-General briefings	Senator PATRICK: I went back to an answer to a question asked of Prime Minister Howard, and it indicated that ONI used to on occasion brief the Governor-General on matters related to strategic economic and counterterrorism issues. I presume that basically the same arrangement is still in place. Mr Warner: If that was a quote from Mr Howard, it wouldn't be ONI. It could be, conceivably, ONA. Senator PATRICK: Yes, that's correct. It was the Office of National Assessment. Mr Warner: And what was it that Mr Howard said? Senator PATRICK: He said, 'I'm advised that where appropriate ONA provides to the Governor-General written ONA assessments on a range of strategic, economic and counterterrorism issues.' I presume that, in effect, that regime has not changed, on the basis of your previous answers. Mr Warner: When was that?	Pg. 5	26 November 2019

					Senator PATRICK: That was 10 May 2005. Mr Warner: I actually do expect, given that 14 years and the number of Governors-General we have had, that there would have been, over that period, some fluctuations and changes in the sort of material—or even whether we provided material—to Governors-General. But that's the sort of material—and, as I said, I would have to check—or the sorts of views or assessments that I would think we would be providing today to the Governor-General.
