Ms Sarah Redden
Acting Secretary
Finance and Public Administration Legislation Committee
Parliament House
CANBERRA ACT 2600

Dear Ms Redden

Supplementary Budget estimates hearings – Department of the Senate

In accordance with the usual practice, I attach statistics (updated as of 30 September) about the operations of committees supported by the Senate Committee Office. The statistics cover the same ground as those provided in the previous parliament and includes additional information about the support provided to select and joint committees in this parliament. The department is currently supporting six select committees (including one joint select committee) and five joint standing committees. If the committee would like additional information, I would be happy to provide it.

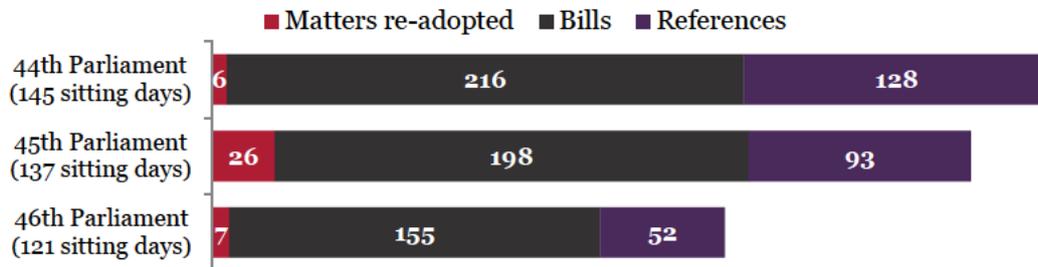

Yours sincerely

(Richard Pye)
Clerk

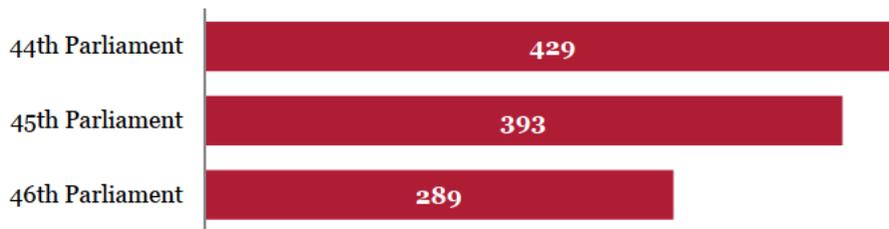

Senate standing committee activity

2. Reports—comparison at same point of last 3 Parliaments

3. Hearings held—comparison at same point of last 3 Parliaments

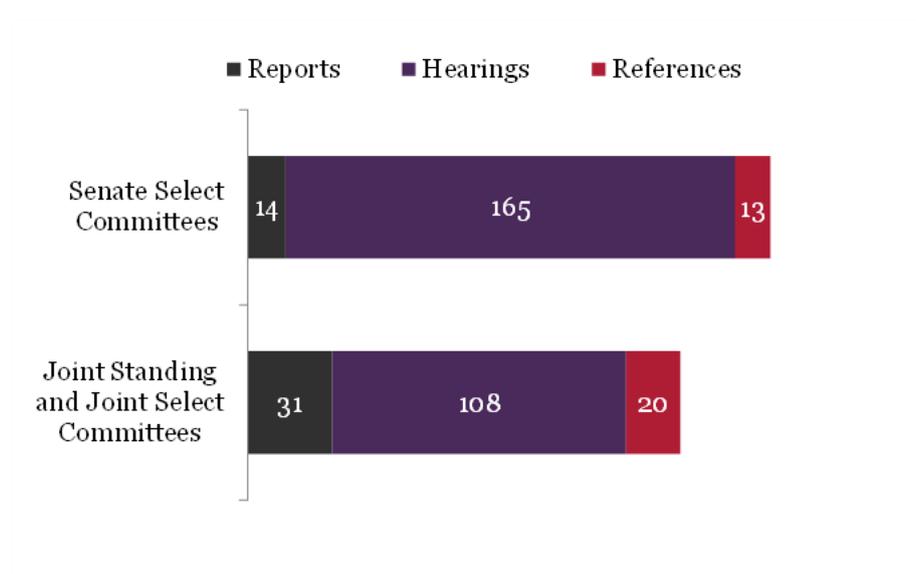

Select committee activity

- Select committee (including joint select committee) activity during the 46th Parliament has risen to levels not experienced before, requiring the Senate department to at one point support 12 select committees concurrently. There are currently six select committees.
- The table below compares the number of select and joint select committees supported by the Senate Committee Office across the last four parliaments.
- From the commencement of the 46th Parliament, the Committee Office is committed to providing a total of 252 months of secretariat support to select committees, which is more than the total support required for any previous parliament.

Parliament	Number of selects and (joint selects)	Average length in months	Total months requiring support
43 rd	5 (4)	10	90
44 th	12 (2)	11	154
45 th	15 (1)	10	160
46 th (from commencement)	12 (2)	18	252

- In addition, the Committee Office also supports five joint standing committees.

Staffing

Staffing: At 29 September 2021, there were 71.5 Full Time Equivalent staff in the Committee Office, compared with an average FTE of 74 in 2020-21. Staffing levels reflect the brief downturn in committee activity as a result of the 2019 election and subsequent increase of activity during the 46th Parliament. The current staffing level in the Committee Office reflects ongoing high levels of committee activity. The following chart shows changes in average staffing levels over time.

Administration

The current annual budget for the Committee Office is approximately $10.2 million. This includes employee expenses of $10.0 million and administrative expenses (including reduced budget for secretariat travel, accommodation and venues for hearings due to COVID-19) of $0.2 million. So far in the 2021-22 financial year (as at 30 September 2021), the Committee Office actual expenditure was $2.3 million.
