

Papers on Parliament

Lectures in the Senate Occasional Lecture
Series, and other papers

Number 63
July 2015

Published and printed by the Department of the Senate
Parliament House, Canberra
ISSN 1031-976X

Published by the Department of the Senate, 2015

ISSN 1031-976X

Papers on Parliament is edited and managed by the Research Section,
Department of the Senate.

Edited by Paula Waring

All editorial inquiries should be made to:

Assistant Director of Research
Research Section
Department of the Senate
PO Box 6100
Parliament House
CANBERRA ACT 2600

Telephone: (02) 6277 3164
Email: research.sen@aph.gov.au

To order copies of Papers on Parliament

On publication, new issues of Papers on Parliament are sent free of charge to subscribers on our mailing list. If you wish to be included on that mailing list, please contact the Research Section of the Department of the Senate at:

Telephone: (02) 6277 3074
Email: research.sen@aph.gov.au

Printed copies of previous issues of Papers on Parliament may be provided on request if they are available. Past issues are available online at:

<http://www.aph.gov.au/pops>

Contents

The Role of Government and Parliament in the Decision to Go to War Brendan Nelson	1
Pulling the Trigger: The 1914 Double Dissolution Election and Its Legacy Helen Irving	23
Exploring the Role of the Commonwealth Ombudsman in Relation to Parliament Colin Neave	43
Global Development: The Long-term Context of Australian Development Ross Garnaut	59
Democracy, Trust and Legitimacy Simon Longstaff	77
Politicians at War: The Experiences of Australian Parliamentarians in the First World War Aaron Pegram	95
Commonwealth Executive Power and Accountability Following Williams (No. 2) Glenn Ryall	109

Contributors

The Hon Dr Brendan Nelson is the Director of the Australian War Memorial. He was previously a federal member of parliament (1996–2009), Minister for Defence (2006–07) and Australian Ambassador to Belgium, Luxembourg, the European Union and NATO (2009–12).

Helen Irving is a Professor in the Faculty of Law at the University of Sydney, where she teaches Australian and United States constitutional law, and researches constitutional law and history. She is the author of, among other works, To Constitute a Nation (1999) and Five Things to Know about the Australian Constitution (2004).

Colin Neave AM is the Commonwealth Ombudsman, Regional President of the Australasia and Pacific Ombudsman Region of the International Ombudsman Institute (and board member of the Institute), and Chair of the Pacific Ombudsman Alliance.

Ross Garnaut AO is a Professorial Research Fellow in Economics at the University of Melbourne (since 2008). He was previously a Distinguished Professor of Economics (2007–13) at the Australian National University, and Head of the Division of Economics in the ANU Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies.

Dr Simon Longstaff AO is the Executive Director of the Ethics Centre. He has a doctorate from Cambridge University where he worked on the philosophical underpinnings of democracy and their implications for the exercise of power by nominally democratic states.

Aaron Pegram is a senior historian in the Military History Section at the Australian War Memorial.

Glenn Ryall is a Principal Research Officer in the Legislative Scrutiny Unit of the Department of the Senate.