

ON NEXT

Annual

Harry Evans

Lecture

To be delivered by
Bret Walker SC

Bret Walker has been a barrister practising at the NSW Bar since 1979 and was appointed Senior Counsel in 1993 and Queen's Counsel in 1994. He is a Foundation Fellow and former director of the Australian Academy of Law. He has at various times been President of the Law Council of Australia, President of the NSW Bar Association, Governor of the Law Foundation of NSW, a member of a number of advisory committees to the Australian Law Reform Commission, a constitutional advisor to the Law Council of Australia, served as a Commissioner of Inquiry to a number of NSW Commissions of Inquiry and has been editor of the New South Wales Law Reports since 2006. He was the inaugural Independent National Security Legislation Monitor in 2011-2014.

Bret's practice centres on general appellate advocacy, equity and commercial, administrative and commercial law.

Friday, 1 December 2017

12.15pm – 1.15pm

Theatre, Parliament House, Canberra

