Questions on Notice

1. Please provide schedules of tariffs for Fiji and Papua New Guinea so the Committee can get a view of what they've been asked to give up and therefore what they're not giving up.

Please follow the link below to Fiji's schedule of applied most-favoured-nation (MFN) tariffs (the first link listed under "Customs Tariff Classification"):

2. How many of Papua New Guinea's tariffs have been liberalised?

We estimate that approximately 75 per cent of Papua New Guinea's applied tariff lines have been liberalised (zero applied duties), covering approximately 86 per cent of Australian exports between 2014 and 2016.
