

Environment and Communications References Committee

Inquiry into the economic and cultural value of Australian content on broadcast, radio and streaming services

Commercial Radio Australia

Correction to Submission number 18, received 5 February 2018

Correction to Page 5, Paragraph 8

Original submission: The commercial radio industry reports once a month to the Australasian Performing Rights Association (APRA) giving details of all music played (on a track by track basis), together with the percentage of Australian music played on each station.

To be corrected to: The commercial radio industry reports quarterly to the Australasian Performing Right Association (APRA) giving details of all music played (on a track by track basis). It reports annually to the Australian Recording Industry Association (ARIA) on the percentage of Australian music played on each station (the data is collected on a monthly basis from the stations).