

The shortage of engineering and related employment skills is being exacerbated by the government's reduction in super sacrifice amounts, from $100,000pa to $50,000pa and now to $25,000pa for super balances over $500,000.

The day this happens I will stop work and my 39 years of mechanical engineering experience will be lost to Australia – it's not worth my while to work hard in my later years, if the government is taking more than its fair share.
