

I urge the Senate Committee to give serious consideration to ways in which the VTEC model for workplace training and employment can be promoted and supported throughout Australia as a means of overcoming our shameful legacy of over-representation in the prison system of indigenous Australians.

Kevin L McDonnell PhD