

From:
Mr Chris Marshall

I am a Teacher and I find that the League Table does not represent a accurate picture of school performance. Putting School against school and ranking them is ridiculous. Every community is different and every school is different. To look at the table and see you are at a school that is not going so well can affect your self esteem.