

I wish you to note my concerns that this bill if introduced may make it difficult or impossible to voice one's conscientious opinion on religious beliefs, political opinion, or a range of subjects that risk offending an individual, or group without knowing that that opinion may offend the other party. Freedom of speech may be a thing of the past if this bill as presented is accepted. Please take action to amend or reject this bill. Ken Burt.