

To whom it may concern,

I would like to inform you that i support the passing of the new family violence bill which is due to go infront of senate on the 16th of August 2011. I believe all children have the right to be free from abuse and it is the laws job to protect them. Please help today's children by passing this bill.

Thank you

Mykayla