funding is payable in relation to any candidate who received more than 4% of the total first preference votes cast in the election.

Division 3A—Requirements relating to donations

Subdivision A—Interpretation

~~302A Simplified outline of this Division~~

~~This Division regulates gifts that are made to registered political parties, candidates, groups, political campaigners and third party campaigners.~~

~~Gifts of over $250 to political entities (broadly, registered political parties, candidates and Senate groups), and most political campaigners, must be made by allowable donors. Similarly, only allowable donors may make gifts of more than $250 in a financial year to a single political entity or political campaigner. An allowable donor is a person who has a connection to Australia, such as an Australian citizen or an entity that is incorporated in Australia.~~

~~Gifts to third party campaigners, and to political campaigners that are registered charities or registered organisations, from non-allowable donors must not be made or used for political purposes. Gifts to such charities and organisations from non-allowable donors must be kept in a separate account.~~

~~Anti-avoidance provisions apply to strengthen these requirements.~~

~~Generally, gifts must also be paid from bank accounts in Australia. Specified particulars must be provided for gifts over $250.~~

~~A person may be liable for a civil penalty for contravening the requirements. There are some exceptions such as when a gift is made in a personal capacity.~~

302A Simplified outline of this Division

This Division regulates gifts that are made to registered political parties, candidates, groups, political campaigners and third parties.

Gifts of over $1,000 to political entities (broadly, registered political parties, candidates and Senate groups) or political campaigners must not be made by foreign donors. A foreign donor is a person who does not have a connection to Australia, such as a person who is not an Australian citizen or an entity that does not have a significant business presence in Australia.

Broadly, gifts must not be made to a political entity, political campaigner or third party by a foreign donor for the purpose of incurring electoral expenditure or creating or communicating electoral matter.

Anti-avoidance provisions apply to strengthen these requirements.

A person or entity may commit an offence or be liable for a civil penalty if the person or entity contravenes the requirements. There are some exceptions, such as when a gift is made in a personal capacity.

~~302B Interpretation~~

302B Definitions

~~(1) In~~ In this Division:

acceptable action is taken in relation to a gift if any of the following action is taken:

- (a) an amount equal to the amount or value of the gift is transferred to the Commonwealth for the purposes of this Division;
- (b) the gift is returned to the donor or the person who made the gift;
- (c) an amount equal to the amount or value of the gift is transferred to the donor or the person who made the gift.

appropriate donor information has the meaning given by section 302P.

~~Persons to remain candidates and groups for 30 days after an election~~

~~(2) For the purpose of this Division:~~

~~(a) a person who is a candidate in an election is taken to remain a candidate; and~~

~~(b) persons who constituted a group in an election are taken to continue to constitute the same group;~~

~~for 30 days after the polling day in the election.~~

302C Object of this Division

- (1) The object of the Division is to secure and promote the actual and perceived integrity of the Australian electoral process by reducing the risk of foreign persons and entities exerting (or being perceived to exert) undue or improper influence in the outcomes of elections.
- (2) This Division aims to achieve this object by restricting the receipt and use of political donations made by foreign persons or entities that do not have a legitimate connection to Australia.

302CA Relationship with State and Territory laws

Despite any law of a State or Territory dealing with electoral matters (within the ordinary meaning of the expression), a person or entity may:

(a) give a gift to, or for the benefit of, a political entity, a political campaigner or a third party; or

(b) if the person or entity is a political entity, a political campaigner or a third party—receive, retain or use a gift; or

(c) receive, retain or use a gift on behalf of a political entity, a political campaigner or a third party;

if:

(d) this Division does not prohibit the receiving or retaining of the gift, or the using of the gift; and

- (e) the gift is required to be, or may be, used for the purposes of incurring electoral expenditure or creating or communicating electoral matter.
