

I am concerned that recent programming decisions indicate a drift away from both depth and breadth in fulfilling the ABC's charter. The ABC has always been a 'broad church' which has met a range of needs within the Australian community. Now the ABC seems to be seeing itself as a direct competitor with commercial television. Please ensure the ABC continues to provide programming of depth, breadth and quality to meet the needs of all Australians.