

I have worked in remote areas of the NT as a health worker for over 20 years. I am very concerned about the ceasing of shortwave services by the ABC. The connectivity enjoyed by cities and larger urban areas is not comparable in remote areas. Major weather events effect connectivity. Simple cloud cover can effect connectivity Safety in remote areas is at risk due to the inability for remote people to be able hear warnings and stay in touch with current events due to absence of shortwave.