MEDIA RELEASE

Senate Community Affairs References Committee

Centrelink's debt recovery process Opportunities to speak to the committee

Issue date: 23 September 2019

The Senate Community Affairs Committee would like to hear from people who have experience of Centrelink's debt recovery process.

The committee is examining the design, performance and results of the process through which Centrelink investigates possible overpayments and seeks to recover debts.

'It is very important for the committee to hear from people who have been impacted by Centrelink's debt recovery processes,' said Committee Chair, Senator Rachel Siewert. 'The committee is making time available so people can tell us about their experiences,' Senator Siewert said.

When and where are the hearings?

- Mandurah – 4 October
- Melbourne – 9 October
- Launceston – 7 November
- Burnie – 8 November
- Cairns – 10 December
- Brisbane – 11 December
- Gosford – 12 December

Information about the venue and program for each hearing will be placed on the committee's website as it becomes available.

How to register your interest in speaking to the committee

If you, or someone you know, would like to speak to the committee, please email the following information to the committee as soon as possible to register your interest (community.affairs.sen@aph.gov.au):

- your name;
- a telephone number and email address so that we can contact you; and
- the hearing location at which you would like to speak to the committee.

What happens next

One of the committee's staff will contact you to arrange a time for you to speak to the committee. They will also provide you with information about what to expect on the day of the hearing.

Requests to speak to the committee will be processed in the order in which they are received.

If all of the time available at the hearing you would like to attend has been allocated, the committee's staff will contact you to let you know this.

You can still attend the hearing and listen to what is being said.
