

Hey, just wanted to voice my absolute support of the Human Rights and Anti-Discrimination Bill, especially the inclusion of LGBTI rights.

I wholeheartedly support equal rights for EVERYONE, and feel that this would help to achieve that and that it's a little ridiculous that we haven't got done so already.

And no one should be allowed to perpetuate this discrimination, especially hitherto exempt groups such as religious organisations, because spirituality doesn't justify unfairness and injustice.

Thanks,

Jessica

P.S Equal marriage is definitely something to think about too!
