

From:
Mrs Vivienne Dearman

I am a Year 3 teacher. I have been a classroom teacher for many decades.

I am totally against publishing NAPLAN data in the form of league tables.

Children with learning difficulties can not possibly do well in the tests, yet their data, drastically alters the class 'norm'.

I do hope that the NAPLAN data is not published on the 'My School website.