

Lower Tax Bill 2018

Submission by Ashley Holmes

February 2019

My submission is simply a quote from one of the founders of the Libertarian Party of the United States David Fraser Nolan.

“In an ideal world, there would be no taxation. All services would be paid for on an as-used basis. But in a less-than-ideal world, some services will be force-financed for the foreseeable future. However, not all taxes are equally deleterious, and the worst form of taxation is a tax on productivity -- i.e., an income tax -- and no libertarian supports this type of taxation.

What kind of taxation is least harmful? This is a topic still open for debate. My own preference is for a single tax on land. Is this "the" libertarian position on taxes? No. But all libertarians oppose any form of income tax.” - David Fraser Nolan
