

Please give Australian producers a chance. We need a more honest system which will protect Australian products. NZ is not helping the situation by misrepresentation of products they re package and forward onto Australian.

--

Julie Schneider