

Dear Federal Government,

I am writing to raise my concerns that the Federal Labor Government is intending on extending the northern Territory intervention. I believe that Aboriginal people's opposition to this extension must be listened to and that Governments work with Aboriginal people to empower communities.

Grace Drahm