Keeping it short and sweet, I am in favour of Naplan testing to assist subject teachers in identifying shortfalls in students learning.
I don't agree with the misuse of this data. It can destroy schools and their communities and damage the morale of teachers and their principals.