

Dear Helen,

At the hearing on Friday I was not able to find this example of an old and noisy plane flying low over our area.

I have now located the details (below). These types of aircraft frequently fly over our homes and are exempt from noise controls due to their age.

I would be grateful if this could be added to the material for consideration by the committee.

Many thanks for your assistance

kind regards

Shelley

---

From: Ivan Neaves

Sent: Wednesday, April 18, 2018 21:45

To: 'Faubel Family'

Subject: Your old aeroplane today

Douglas DC-3 at 1,539 ft

A fixed-wing propeller-driven airliner with tailwheel-type landing gear

Its cruise speed and range revolutionized air transport in the 1930s and 1940s

---

 Virus-free. www.avg.com