

25of January 2012

Dear committee secretary

I strongly object to our government extending the intervention. What you are doing is racist and is disgusting. Have a bit of respect they have as much if not more rights as us being the traditional owners of this land. I urge you to stop the intervention now and to learn to respect the people of our nation.

Jessica Philips