

I support the bill and the inquiry. I support nuclear power as the sensible option for reliable base load electricity generation in Australia. Australia has the resources to acheive energy independence.