

4 April 2013

The free-for-all policy of "development first, think about it later", pushed mercilessly by the states, would have meant the destruction of the Franklin River, the flooding of the Mary River valley, the logging and mining of our National Parks and many other obscenities. Please at least save our most precious natural site, the Great Barrier Reef, from the greedy rapacious miners.

Kind regards
Charles Colman