

Break Thru has always been here for me, they know all about my backgroup/barriers. They have helped me through all my efforts to find employment and they have always been there when I have personal problems and need to talk to someone