Selection criteria for participants

The Minister carefully selected the members of the industry Working Group to ensure that the wide range of stakeholder interests at play were suitably represented.

The Working Group membership includes participants from the accounting, financial services, funds management, insurance broking, banking, stockbroking and superannuation industries, consumer and academic representatives.

The selection process sought to balance the need for an inclusive and broadly representative membership against managing the size of the Working Group to ensure that it was not unworkably large and unable to focus on points of consensus.
