

We need positive action in so many areas... But this appears to victimise the Church and religious groups,

Australia was such a good country once, can't this bill be trashed and priority effort put to universal needs such as protecting kids from paedophiles, protecting working people from white collar crime, and protecting all of us from terrorism?

Please do NOT approve this bill.

Kindest regards,
Leigh Cowan