

The Committee has published this submission in redacted form to remove personal matters and those relating to family court proceedings, while acknowledging Ms Xaysavanh has raised concerns relating to Mr Daly's motivations and reliability.

Inquiry into procurement at Services Australia and the National Disability Insurance Agency
Submission 1 – 7 July 2023

I, Khamphone Xaysavanh, solemnly affirm the following statement before the Committee:

Pre-amble

I pose the following questions to the Inquiry and to the two journalist David Crowe and Nick McKenzie who received the stolen and/or amended documents and published the series of articles from about 24 November 2022 to the present date:

1. Who provided you with the material and when?
2. Can you confirm that you were aware that the leaked emails were stolen property and [REDACTED]
3. The material you published were illegally accessed and altered with the malicious intent to blackmail me and David Milo.

4. Mr Anthony Daly’s involvement with Synergy 360

I testify that Mr Daly has never been an employee, officer or director of Synergy 360 (Milo Consulting Pty Ltd).

He has never been paid as much as one dollar! Ask Mr Daly to provide his tax records.

Mr Daly worked for Qantas as a baggage handler at Canberra airport at the relevant times.

A cursory glance at Mr Daly’s CV would reveal he does not have the credentials, qualifications or knowledge of operating a business.

5. Ms Xaysavanh involvement in Synergy 360 business dealings

I have not been an Officer of Synergy 360 since July 2020 with no communication or dealings with the business or Mr Milo for the last 3 years.

As the Inquiry has been advised, I ran the operations, recruitment, administration, and finance for the Synergy 360 (Milo Consulting Pty Ltd).

I have never received commissions, dividends or royalties from Synergy 360 (Milo Consulting Pty Ltd) and only paid a salary.

6. Dr Damian West and Ms Xaysavanh

I would like to make the following statement regarding Dr Damian West:

- a) The statement that Mr West attended my house on a regular basis is untrue. Mr West attended my place of business [REDACTED] on one occasion. [REDACTED] is the registered address for Synergy 360/Milo Consulting Pty Ltd and also my home office where business meetings took place.
- b) During the time that Mr West was working at ACMA, I provided some advice on his CV in my capacity as Director of Nspire Recruitment which is standard practice of a recruitment agency. Nspire was not involved in any placement or role for Mr West at any time.
- c) Mr West was not involved with Synergy 360 and the Services Australia or partner pursuits in any capacity. Mr West had no involvement in these business dealings nor attended any meetings relating to these deals or pursuits.
