

This will affect the relationship with overseas countries and more future of overseas students. People who have submitted applications should not be affected.