¹ DEEWR provides information on enterprise agreements made under the Fair Work Act (2009) that contain domestic and family violence entitlements on a 6 to 12 monthly basis and as such not all organisations who currently have domestic and family violence entitlements are captured above.

² Numbers of employees covered from data provided by DEEWR, employers, unions and annual reports

³ The sectors as consistent as possible with current DEEWR reporting, however, modifications have been made when there has been a cross over with state based sectoral definitions.

⁴ While there no employees listed in the ACT as having domestic and family violence entitlements, many employees do and are accounted for under multi-state agreements.

⁵ The domestic and family violence clauses have been rated to measure how many of the key principles as endorsed by the ACTU Congress 2012 have been met. An agreement rated 7 has met all the principles while an agreement rated 0 has met none of the principles.
