

ERIC John Wheeler

Review of government compensation Payments

The government should pay compensation for what they did to me

They took away my childhood my mother and father my brothers and sisters

Uncles and aunts

I never saw my father again after they took me away he died before I saw him again

And it took me 30 years to try to find my brothers and sisters at a lot of cost to us

Not the government

Eric John Wheeler