IMMIGRATION AND BORDER PROTECTION PORTFOLIO

(IEMP/022) – DLO emails

Asked:

Please provide all information and departmental records – including emails – from the Department Liaison Officer in relation to the Brisbane case as stored under the Archives act

Please provide all information and departmental records – including emails – from the Department Liaison Officer in relation to the Adelaide case as stored under the Archives act

Answer:

Attached is all information and departmental records – including emails – from the Department Liaison Officer in relation to:

- A non-citizen who arrived in Brisbane on 17 June 2015 on an eVisitor visa, valid for three months (the 'Brisbane case') as stored under the Archives Act 1983; and
- A non-citizen who arrived in Adelaide on 31 October 2015 on an eVisitor visa, valid for three months (the 'Adelaide case') as stored under the Archives Act 1983.

The Department has withheld certain parts of the documents on the basis that their disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about individual clients or Australian Public Service departmental officers. Section 6 of the Privacy Act 1988 (Privacy Act) defines personal information as:

'information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- (a) Whether the information or opinion is true or not
- (b) Whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.'

The elements of 'personal information' are:

- It relates only to a natural person (not, for example, a company)
- It says something about the individual
- It may be in the form of an opinion, it may be true or untrue, and it may form part of a database
- the individual's identity is known or is reasonably ascertainable.

Thanks all.

The Minister would like to see a submission accompanying the Instrument if at all possible, so he can consider the facts of the case. As the referrals records is not yet complete in the system, further details about the case can be provided by the Airport Manager, [REDACTED] Ph [REDACTED].

It would be appropriate for him to be given the option of granting a sc651 visa with similar validity and conditions to that the client previously held.

The 7.30pm deadline is a little flexible (as I am now told). However, if you could keep me updated on when it will be available this evening, I can manage expectations.

I will be here at the office awaiting the submission, so please give me a call if you have any question.

Guy

We will aim to have a brief submission drafted by 7.30pm. I have discussed with [REDACTED] the alternative of providing the Instrument for grant of the visa, which is the legal requirement and can be drafted very quickly. [REDACTED] was going to advise on that option.

Thanks

The Minister has indicated that he'd like to consider a submission to intervene and grant a visa under s.195A to [REDACTED] DOB [REDACTED] is currently in detention in Brisbane, after [REDACTED] subclass 651 visa was cancelled under s.116 in immigration clearance this morning at Brisbane airport.

The ICSE client ID is [REDACTED]

This is urgent. The Minister requires this submission tonight (preferably in the next hour as he has an appointment at 7.30pm). If he agrees, then someone also needs to be available to grant the visa this evening.

Key Issues

1. [REDACTED], arrived in Australia at [REDACTED] on [REDACTED], as the holder of an eVisitor visa (subclass [REDACTED]) valid for a stay period three months. [REDACTED]'s visa allowed multiple entries, up until 9 December 2015. [REDACTED] has not travelled to Australia before.
2. Upon arrival, an Airport Inspector found [REDACTED] did not intend to stay in Australia temporarily for tourism purposes, which were the grounds for the grant of [REDACTED] eVisitor visa. As such, [REDACTED]'s visa was cancelled under section 116(1)(g) of the Migration Act 1953 (the Act). A copy of the cancellation decision record is at Attachment B. It is noted that [REDACTED] has disputed the findings.
3. Following the cancellation of [REDACTED] visa, [REDACTED] was refused immigration clearance and detained under section 189 of the Act. As a person refused immigration clearance, the Department cannot grant [REDACTED] a further visa onshore.
4. Your office has requested that [REDACTED]'s case be referred to you for consideration under section 195A of the Act.

Option for future management

5. Your non-compellable power under section 195A is enlivened in [REDACTED]'s case as [REDACTED] is in immigration detention.

Ministerial intervention under section 195A

6. If you are inclined to intervene in [REDACTED]'s case under section 195A of the Act, the Department considers the grant of a Tourist visa (subclass 600), with the same conditions as the eVisitor visa [REDACTED] held as the appropriate option. The Tourist visa would be granted with an 'enter before date' of 9 December 2015 and would allow [REDACTED] to remain in Australia for a period of three months at a time.

Sensitive: Personal

7. The Department also recommends placing the same conditions on the Tourist visa, as were attached to [REDACTED] eVisitor visa (conditions 8115, 8201, 8527 and 8528).

8. If you agree to intervene, please sign the decision documentation at Attachment A.

Decline to intervene

9. Should you not agree to intervene in [REDACTED]'s case, [REDACTED] is liable to be removed from Australia.

3. In the circumstances, I have decided that as a discretionary and humanitarian act to an individual with ongoing needs, it is in the interests of Australia as a humane and generous society to grant this person a Tourist visa (subclass 600).

7 Details of previous visa cancellations
Departmental checks confirm the visa holder has not had any previous visa cancellations.

- 8 Possible grounds for cancellation
(include disclosable adverse information given by third parties)
It has come to my attention, as a delegate of the Minister for Immigration and Border Protection, that there appear to be grounds for cancellation of your

subclass 651 visa granted on 09-Dec-2014

under section 116 of the Migration Act 1958 because:

Upon arrival at [REDACTED] you claimed that you are coming to Australia to stay with a [REDACTED]. You expect to be here for 10 weeks. You stated that you will not be [REDACTED]. You stated that you and the [REDACTED] have discussed the terms of your stay and that in [REDACTED]

-A search of your mobile phone revealed the following message:
From [REDACTED] on [REDACTED]: "I don't know if you are keen or not to earn some extra cash while you are here occasionally baby sitting for friends?? Can put the word out for you if you are and a few friends would use you occasionally?? Locally?? Bit of cash to fund fun.
You: "Perfect! ...and for baby sitting... Sure! Extra money for fun is always welcome!"

--A search of your mobile phone revealed the following message:
To: [REDACTED] on [REDACTED]
"(Hello [REDACTED] Thanks a lot! I'm very well and preparing myself to depart at the end of [REDACTED] to Australia, How are you?)"
From [REDACTED]: "(How Wonderful! As an Au Pair or for the University? Good Luck! It will be a beautiful experience. I'm very good and continue with my architecture)"
To [REDACTED]: "(As an Au Pair)"

Based on the above information, it appears to me that despite the grant of the visa, you did not have, at the time of the grant of the visa, or you ceased to have, an intention only to stay in, or visit, Australia temporarily for the tourism purposes for which the visa was granted. If this is the case, then your visa is liable for consideration of cancellation.

Cancellation of visa under section 116 of the Migration Act

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Minister may cancel a visa if he or she is satisfied that:

 - (b) its holder has not complied with a condition of the visa; or
 - (c) another person required to comply with a condition of the visa has not complied with that condition; or
 - (d) if its holder has not entered Australia or has so entered but has not been immigration cleared – it would be liable to be cancelled under Subdivision C (incorrect information given by holder) if its holder had so entered and been immigration cleared:

 - s 102 – incorrect information on the passenger card
 - s 103 – a bogus document given
 - s 104 – failure to notify the department of changes in circumstances

Grounds for cancellation

Provide a summary of why the visa holder considers the GROUNDS for cancellation DO or DO NOT exist

[REDACTED] disputed that grounds for cancellation exist and stated that her primary reason for travelling to Australia today was to practice English.

- (ob) in the case of the holder of a temporary visa (other than a Subclass 050 (Bridging (General)) visa, a Subclass 051 (Bridging (Protection Visa Applicant)) visa or a Subclass 444 (Special Category) visa) – that the Minister is satisfied that the holder is the subject of a notice (however described) issued by Interpol for the purpose of providing a warning or intelligence that:
- (i) the holder has committed an offence against a law of another country and is likely to commit a similar offence; or
 - (ii) the holder is a serious and immediate threat to public safety;
- (f) in the case of the holder of a Subclass 771 (Transit) visa – that, despite the grant of the visa, the Minister reasonably suspects that the holder of the visa:
- (i) did not have, at the time of the grant of the visa, an intention to transit Australia; or
 - (ii) has ceased to have that intention.
- (1A) For paragraph (1)(a), the grounds are that, despite the grant of the visa, the Minister is satisfied that the visa holder did not have at the time of grant of the visa, or has ceased to have, a genuine intention to stay temporarily in Australia to carry out the work or activity in relation to which:
- (a) the visa holder's visa was granted; or
 - (b) if the visa holder is identified in a nomination after the visa is granted – the visa holder was identified in a nomination.
- (1B) For paragraph (1)(c), the grounds are the following:
- (a) the approval of the person as a sponsor has been cancelled, or the approved sponsor has been barred, under section 140M of the Act;
 - (b) if the approved sponsor is a party to a work agreement – the work agreement has been terminated or has ceased;
 - (c) if the primary sponsored person is required to be identified in a nomination – the criteria for approval of the latest nomination in which the primary sponsored person is identified are no longer met;
 - (d) the person who is or was an approved sponsor has failed to satisfy a sponsorship obligation.
- (1C) For subsection 116(1A) of the Act, the Minister may have regard to the following matters in determining whether he or she is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 116(1)(fa) of the Act that participation in a course of study by the holder of a student visa has been deferred or temporarily suspended by the provider of the course of study:
- (a) because of the conduct of the holder;
 - (b) because of the circumstances of the holder, other than compassionate or compelling circumstances;
 - (c) because of compassionate or compelling circumstances of the holder, if the Minister is satisfied that the circumstances have ceased to exist;
 - (d) on the basis of evidence or a document given to the provider about the holder's circumstances, if the Minister is satisfied that the evidence or document is fraudulent or misrepresents the holder's circumstances.
- (2) For subsection 116(3) of the Act, the circumstances in which the Minister must cancel a visa are:
- (a) in the case of a visa other than a relevant visa – each of the circumstances comprising the grounds set out in:
 - (i) sub-paragraphs (1)(a)(i)(A) and (B); and
 - (ii) paragraph (1)(b); and
 - (aa) in the case of a relevant visa – the circumstance comprising the grounds set out in subparagraph (1)(a)(ii); and
- (3) In this regulation:
- [BUSINESS SPONSOR omitted by SLI 2009, 202 with effect from 14/09/2009 – LEGEND note]*
- relevant visa means a visa of any of the following subclasses
- (aa) Subclass 050; (f) Subclass 447;
 - (a) Subclass 200; (g) Subclass 449;
 - (b) Subclass 201; (h) Subclass 451;
 - (c) Subclass 202; (i) Subclass 785;
 - (d) Subclass 203; (j) Subclass 786;
 - (e) Subclass 204; (k) Subclass 866.

Details of the evidence and findings about whether the delegate is satisfied GROUNDS for cancellation DO or DO NOT EXIST arrived at airport on . Through a baggage examination and at interview it became apparent to me that grounds existed to consider cancellation of subclass visa under s116(1)(g) and Reg 2.43(1)(ka) as did not appear to have an intention to stay in Australia temporarily for tourism purposes for which the visa was granted, or had ceased to have that intention.

Evidence supporting this was:

- claimed that the purpose of stay in Australia was to stay with a where would be expected to

- Messages located on mobile phone indicated that was willing to earn extra money working as a baby sitter.

- Messages located on phone indicated that is travelling to Australia to work as an au-pair.

disputed that grounds for cancellation exist and stated that although would be living with the primary reason for travelling to Australia to day was to live in a house where could practice English 24 hours per day.

On the basis of the above evidence, I am satisfied did not have, at the time of the grant of the visa, or has ceased to have, an intention only to stay in, or visit, Australia temporarily for the tourism purposes for which the visa was granted.

Provide a summary of the reasons the visa holder gave why their visa should not be cancelled

[REDACTED] gave the following reasons why [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled:
 -"It didn't occur to me that I couldn't take money for a job."
 -"I said was an [REDACTED] but it is not true." [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] did not explain to [REDACTED] friend that [REDACTED] would not be paid and that the amount of work is not the same as the work an [REDACTED] would need to perform.
 -"It was a sacrifice for me to come here. I worked everyday I didn't come to school."
 -"I only come to Australia to study and speak English."
 -"It will be hard for me to go back to [REDACTED]. It was my dream from when I was a child to come to Australia to live for a little bit of time. It seems beautiful and very different."

Go to Question 11

Purpose of travel to and stay in Australia

[REDACTED] advised me that [REDACTED] is here to stay with a [REDACTED] for the entirety of [REDACTED] stay and practice her English. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] states [REDACTED] is not being paid for this work.

The [REDACTED] confirmed these details and verified that [REDACTED] will not be paid for this work.

I note however that the visa holder has also agreed to undertake paid work as a baby sitter. In addition to this, the [REDACTED], stated that initially, the visa holder did expect to be paid for the [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] would perform while a visitor at their residence.

Therefore I give little weight in favour of [REDACTED] claim.

This factor is not relevant as [REDACTED] visa is not being considered for cancellation for a breach of visa condition under s116(1)(b).

The degree of hardship which may be caused to the visa holder, their family members and others, if the visa is cancelled. (Where applicable, the best interests of a child in Australia under 18 years must be considered in accordance with Australia's obligations under the Convention on the Rights of the Child.)

I have considered the degree of hardship that may be caused to [REDACTED] if her visa is cancelled.

██████████ has informed me that it has been a dream of ██████████ since ██████████ was a child to live in Australia for a little while. ██████████ has stated that it will be hard for ██████████ to return to ██████████ without realising ██████████ dream and I have applied some weight in favour of ██████████ claim.

██████████ has also stated that it was a sacrifice for ██████████ to travel to Australia as ██████████ worked everyday that ██████████ did not attend school. I have also considered that cancellation of this visa may result in some financial loss for the visa holder and I therefore give this some weight in ██████████ favour.

8201 (1) While in Australia, the holder must not engage, for more than 3 months, in any studies or training.

(2) However, subclause (1) does not apply to a visa mentioned in the table.

_____ claims that _____ applied for the eVisitor visa because _____ only intended a three month stay in Australia and would not be undertaking paid work. However, when the message located on _____ mobile phone regarding working as a baby sitter to earn 'extra cash' was put to _____, _____ stated that it didn't occur to _____ that _____ couldn't take money for a job on the eVisitor visa. I therefore give little weight in favour of the visa holder's claim as a reason not to cancel.

██████████ also stated that ██████████ did not consider ██████████ intended onshore activities to be "work" as ██████████ would not be working in a restaurant everyday or seeking employment that attracts a salary. While I give some weight in favour of ██████████ claim that ██████████ misunderstood the meaning of "work", it is the responsibility of the visa holder to be aware of the conditions of the visa they hold.

██████████ has been honest, forthcoming and cooperative in ██████████ dealings with the Department today and I therefore give this some weight in ██████████ favour.

I have considered the legal consequences of a decision to cancel the visa, which includes detaining, removal, exclusion periods or bars from applying for other visas. I do not consider the consequences will severely impact [REDACTED], therefore I apply little weight in [REDACTED] favour when considering this factor.

After weighing up all of the information available to me, I am satisfied that the grounds for cancelling the visa outweigh the reasons for not cancelling. I have therefore decided to cancel the visa. ☒

Thanks all.

The Minister would like to see a submission accompanying the Instrument if at all possible, so he can consider the facts of the case. As the referrals records is not yet complete in the system, further details about the case can be provided by the Airport Manager, [REDACTED]

It would be appropriate for him to be given the option of granting a sc651 visa with similar validity and conditions to that the client previously held.

The 7.30pm deadline is a little flexible (as I am now told). However, if you could keep me updated on when it will be available this evening, I can manage expectations.

I will be here at the office awaiting the submission, so please give me a call if you have any question.

We will aim to have a brief submission drafted by 7.30pm. I have discussed with [REDACTED] the alternative of providing the Instrument for grant of the visa, which is the legal requirement and can be drafted very quickly. She was going to advise on that option.

Thanks

The Minister has indicated that he'd like to consider a submission to intervene and grant a visa under s.195A to [REDACTED]. She is currently in detention in Brisbane, after her subclass 651 visa was cancelled under s.116 in immigration clearance this morning at Brisbane airport.

The ICSE client ID is [REDACTED]

This is urgent. The Minister requires this submission tonight (preferably in the next hour as he has an appointment at 7.30pm). If he agrees, then someone also needs to be available to grant the visa this evening.

I'm liaising with Brisbane now to ensure that this client is not removed this evening as planned.

Kind regards

The Minister has signed submission MS15 [REDACTED] and has agreed to intervene under section 195A of the Migration Act 1958 in relation to Ms [REDACTED] to grant a subclass 600 visa.

Scanned copies of signed paper work is attached. Hard copies will be returned to the Department tomorrow.

Grateful if you can confirm when a visa has been granted.

We also need to ensure that [REDACTED] is not held in detention overnight. I will call you to ensure that is in train.

Thanks again for your efforts on this.

Key Issues

1. [REDACTED], arrived in Australia at [REDACTED] on [REDACTED], as the holder of an eVisitor visa (subclass [REDACTED]) valid for a stay period three months. [REDACTED]'s visa allowed multiple entries, up until 9 December 2015. [REDACTED] has not travelled to Australia before.
2. Upon arrival, an Airport Inspector found [REDACTED] did not intend to stay in Australia temporarily for tourism purposes, which were the grounds for the grant of [REDACTED] eVisitor visa. As such, [REDACTED]'s visa was cancelled under section 116(1)(g) of the Migration Act 1953 (the Act). A copy of the cancellation decision record is at Attachment B. It is noted that [REDACTED] has disputed the findings.
3. Following the cancellation of [REDACTED] visa, [REDACTED] was refused immigration clearance and detained under section 189 of the Act. As a person refused immigration clearance, the Department cannot grant [REDACTED] a further visa onshore.
4. Your office has requested that [REDACTED]'s case be referred to you for consideration under section 195A of the Act.

Option for future management

5. Your non-compellable power under section 195A is enlivened in [REDACTED]'s case as [REDACTED] is in immigration detention.

Ministerial intervention under section 195A

6. If you are inclined to intervene in [REDACTED]'s case under section 195A of the Act, the Department considers the grant of a Tourist visa (subclass 600), with the same conditions as the eVisitor visa [REDACTED] held as the appropriate option. The Tourist visa would be granted with an 'enter before date' of 9 December 2015 and would allow [REDACTED] to remain in Australia for a period of three months at a time.

Sensitive: Personal

7. The Department also recommends placing the same conditions on the Tourist visa, as were attached to [REDACTED] eVisitor visa (conditions 8115, 8201, 8527 and 8528).

8. If you agree to intervene, please sign the decision documentation at Attachment A.

Decline to intervene

9. Should you not agree to intervene in [REDACTED]'s case, [REDACTED] is liable to be removed from Australia.

UNDER SECTION 195A OF THE *MIGRATION ACT 1958

- STATEMENT TO PARLIAMENT -

Exercising my powers under section 195A of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act), I have decided to grant a visa under this section.

2. Having regard to this person's particular circumstances and personal characteristics, I have decided to exercise my discretionary powers under section 195A of the Act as it would be in the public interest to grant this person a visa.
3. In the circumstances, I have decided that as a discretionary and humanitarian act to an individual with ongoing needs, it is in the interests of Australia as a humane and generous society to grant this person a Tourist visa (subclass 600).

- 8 Possible grounds for cancellation
(include disclosable adverse information given by third parties)
It has come to my attention, as a delegate of the Minister for Immigration and Border Protection, that there appear to be grounds for cancellation of your

subclass 651 visa granted on 09-Dec-2014

under section 116 of the Migration Act 1958 because:

Upon arrival at [REDACTED] you claimed that you are coming to Australia to stay with a [REDACTED]. You expect to be here for 10 weeks. You stated that you will not be [REDACTED]. You stated that you and the [REDACTED] have discussed the terms of your stay and that in [REDACTED]

-A search of your mobile phone revealed the following message:
From [REDACTED] on [REDACTED]: "I don't know if you are keen or not to earn some extra cash while you are here occasionally baby sitting for friends?? Can put the word out for you if you are and a few friends would use you occasionally?? Locally?? Bit of cash to fund fun.
You: "Perfect! ...and for baby sitting... Sure! Extra money for fun is always welcome!"

--A search of your mobile phone revealed the following message:
To: [REDACTED] on [REDACTED]
"(Hello [REDACTED] Thanks a lot! I'm very well and preparing myself to depart at the end of [REDACTED] to Australia, How are you?)"
From [REDACTED]: "(How Wonderful! As an Au Pair or for the University? Good Luck! It will be a beautiful experience. I'm very good and continue with my architecture)"
To [REDACTED]: "(As an Au Pair)"

Based on the above information, it appears to me that despite the grant of the visa, you did not have, at the time of the grant of the visa, or you ceased to have, an intention only to stay in, or visit, Australia temporarily for the tourism purposes for which the visa was granted. If this is the case, then your visa is liable for consideration of cancellation.

Cancellation of visa under section 116 of the Migration Act

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Minister may cancel a visa if he or she is satisfied that:
- the decision to grant the visa was based, wholly or partly, on a particular fact or circumstance that is no longer the case or that no longer exists; or
 - the decision to grant the visa was based, wholly or partly, on the existence of a particular fact or circumstance, and that fact or circumstance did not exist; or
 - its holder has not complied with a condition of the visa; or
 - another person required to comply with a condition of the visa has not complied with that condition; or
 - if its holder has not entered Australia or has so entered but has not been immigration cleared – it would be liable to be cancelled under Subdivision C (incorrect information given by holder) if its holder had so entered and been immigration cleared:
 - s 101 – incorrect information on the application form
 - s 102 – incorrect information on the passenger card
 - s 103 – a bogus document given
 - s 104 – failure to notify the department of changes in circumstances
 - s 105 – particulars of incorrect answers to be given
 - the presence of its holder in Australia is or may be, or would or might be, a risk to:
 - the health, safety or good order of the Australian community or a segment of the Australian community; or
 - the health or safety of an individual or individuals; or
 - the visa should not have been granted because the application for it, or its grant was in contravention of this Act or of another law of the Commonwealth; or
 - (fa) in the case of a student visa:
 - its holder is not, or is likely not to be, a genuine student; or
 - its holder has engaged, is engaging, or is likely to engage, while in Australia, in conduct (including omissions) not contemplated by the visa; or
 - a prescribed ground for cancelling a visa applies to the holder.
- (1AA) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Minister may cancel a visa if he or she is not satisfied as to the visa holder's identity.
- (1AB) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Minister may cancel a visa (the current visa) if he or she is satisfied that:
- incorrect information was given, by or on behalf of the person who holds the current visa, to:
 - an officer; or
 - an authorised system; or
 - the Minister; or
 - any other person, or a tribunal, performing a function or purpose under this Act; or
 - any other person or body performing a function or purpose in an administrative process that occurred or occurs in relation to this Act; and
 - the incorrect information was taken into account in, or in connection with, making:
 - a decision that enabled the person to make a valid application for a visa; or
 - a decision to grant a visa to the person; and
 - the giving of the incorrect information is not covered by Subdivision C. This subsection applies whenever the incorrect information was given and whether the visa referred to in subparagraph (b)(i) or (ii) is the current visa or a previous visa that the person held.
- (1A) The regulations may prescribe matters to which the Minister may have regard in determining whether he or she is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph (1)(fa). Such regulations do not limit the matters to which the Minister may have regard for that purpose.
- (2) The Minister is not to cancel a visa under subsection (1), (1AA) or (1AB) if there exist prescribed circumstances in which a visa is not to be cancelled.
- (3) If the Minister may cancel a visa under subsection (1), (1AA) or (1AB), the Minister must do so if there exist prescribed circumstances in which a visa must be cancelled.

Reg 2.43

- (1) For the purposes of paragraph 116(1)(g) of the Act (which deals with circumstances in which the Minister may cancel a visa), the grounds prescribed are:
- that the Foreign Minister has personally determined that:

- in the case of a visa other than a relevant visa – the holder of the visa is a person whose presence in Australia:
 - is, or would be, contrary to Australia's foreign policy interests; or
 - may be directly or indirectly associated with the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction; or
 - in the case of a relevant visa – the holder of the visa is a person whose presence in Australia may be directly or indirectly associated with the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction;
- (b) that the holder of the visa has been assessed by the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation to be directly or indirectly a risk to security, within the meaning of section 4 of the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979;
- (c) [omitted by SR 2000, 62 with effect from 1/07/2000 – LEGEND note] in the case of a bridging visa held by a person who applied for a substantive visa – that the application for the substantive visa has been determined to be invalid;
- (d) in the case of a visa granted before 1 September 1994 that:
- was continued in force on and after 1 September 1994 as a Transitional (Temporary) visa under the Migration Reform (Transitional Provisions) Regulations; and
 - allowed multiple entries to Australia;
- that, at some time before 1 September 1994, the holder exceeded the period of stay in Australia permitted by the visa;
- (e) in the case of:
- the holder of an Electronic Travel Authority (Class UD) visa who is under 18; or
 - [omitted]
 - the holder of a Tourist (Class TR) visa, that was applied for using form 601E, who is under 18; or
 - the holder of a Visitor (Class TV) visa who is under 18; or
 - (iva) the holder of a Subclass 600 (Visitor) visa in the Tourist stream, that was applied for using form 1419 (Internet), who is under 18; that either:
 - both of the following apply:
 - the law of the visa holder's home country did not permit the removal of the visa holder;
 - at least 1 of the persons who could lawfully determine where the additional applicant is to live did not consent to the grant of the visa; or
 - the grant of the visa was inconsistent with any Australian child order in force in relation to the visa holder;
- (ea) in the case of a Subclass 601 (Electronic Travel Authority) visa – that, despite the grant of the visa, the Minister is satisfied that the visa holder:
- did not have, at the time of the grant of the visa, an intention only to stay in, or visit, Australia temporarily for the tourism or business purposes for which the visa was granted; or
 - has ceased to have that intention;
- (f) in the case of:
- the holder of an Electronic Travel Authority (Class UD) visa who is under 18 and is not accompanied by his or her parent or guardian; or
 - the holder of a Tourist (Class TR) visa, that was applied for using form 601E, who:
 - is under 18; and
 - is not accompanied by his or her parent or guardian; or
 - the holder of a Visitor (Class TV) visa who is under 18 and is not accompanied by his or her parent or guardian; or
 - the holder of a Subclass 600 (Visitor) visa in the Tourist stream, that was applied for using form 1419 (Internet), who is under 18 and is not accompanied by his or her parent or guardian;
- that the holder of that visa does not have adequate funds, or adequate arrangements have not been made, for the holder's maintenance, support and general welfare during the holder's proposed visit in Australia;
- (g) in the case of a temporary visa held by a person other than a visa holder mentioned in paragraph (h) – that the visa holder asks the Minister, in writing, to cancel the visa;
- (h) in the case of a temporary visa held by a person who is under the age of 18 years and is not a spouse, a former spouse or engaged to be married – that:
- a person who is at least 18 years of age, and who can lawfully determine where the visa holder is to live, asks the Minister, in writing, to cancel the visa; and
 - the Minister is satisfied that there is no compelling reason to believe that the cancellation of the visa would not be in the best interests of the visa holder;

Grounds for cancellation

Provide a summary of why the visa holder considers the GROUNDS for cancellation DO or DO NOT exist

[REDACTED] disputed that grounds for cancellation exist and stated that her primary reason for travelling to Australia today was to practice English.

- (ob) in the case of the holder of a temporary visa (other than a Subclass 050 (Bridging (General)) visa, a Subclass 051 (Bridging (Protection Visa Applicant)) visa or a Subclass 444 (Special Category) visa) – that the Minister is satisfied that the holder is the subject of a notice (however described) issued by Interpol for the purpose of providing a warning or intelligence that:
- (i) the holder has committed an offence against a law of another country and is likely to commit a similar offence; or
 - (ii) the holder is a serious and immediate threat to public safety;
- (f) in the case of the holder of a Subclass 771 (Transit) visa – that, despite the grant of the visa, the Minister reasonably suspects that the holder of the visa:
- (i) did not have, at the time of the grant of the visa, an intention to transit Australia; or
 - (ii) has ceased to have that intention.
- (1A) For paragraph (1)(a), the grounds are that, despite the grant of the visa, the Minister is satisfied that the visa holder did not have at the time of grant of the visa, or has ceased to have, a genuine intention to stay temporarily in Australia to carry out the work or activity in relation to which:
- (a) the visa holder's visa was granted; or
 - (b) if the visa holder is identified in a nomination after the visa is granted – the visa holder was identified in a nomination.
- (1B) For paragraph (1)(c), the grounds are the following:
- (a) the approval of the person as a sponsor has been cancelled, or the approved sponsor has been barred, under section 140M of the Act;
 - (b) if the approved sponsor is a party to a work agreement – the work agreement has been terminated or has ceased;
 - (c) if the primary sponsored person is required to be identified in a nomination – the criteria for approval of the latest nomination in which the primary sponsored person is identified are no longer met;
 - (d) the person who is or was an approved sponsor has failed to satisfy a sponsorship obligation.
- (1C) For subsection 116(1A) of the Act, the Minister may have regard to the following matters in determining whether he or she is satisfied as mentioned in paragraph 116(1)(fa) of the Act that participation in a course of study by the holder of a student visa has been deferred or temporarily suspended by the provider of the course of study:
- (a) because of the conduct of the holder;
 - (b) because of the circumstances of the holder, other than compassionate or compelling circumstances;
 - (c) because of compassionate or compelling circumstances of the holder, if the Minister is satisfied that the circumstances have ceased to exist;
 - (d) on the basis of evidence or a document given to the provider about the holder's circumstances, if the Minister is satisfied that the evidence or document is fraudulent or misrepresents the holder's circumstances.
- (2) For subsection 116(3) of the Act, the circumstances in which the Minister must cancel a visa are:
- (a) in the case of a visa other than a relevant visa – each of the circumstances comprising the grounds set out in:
 - (i) sub-paragraphs (1)(a)(i)(A) and (B); and
 - (ii) paragraph (1)(b); and
 - (aa) in the case of a relevant visa – the circumstance comprising the grounds set out in subparagraph (1)(a)(ii); and
- (3) In this regulation:
- [BUSINESS SPONSOR omitted by SLI 2009, 202 with effect from 14/09/2009 – LEGEND note]*
- relevant visa means a visa of any of the following subclasses
- (aa) Subclass 050; (f) Subclass 447;
 - (a) Subclass 200; (g) Subclass 449;
 - (b) Subclass 201; (h) Subclass 451;
 - (c) Subclass 202; (i) Subclass 785;
 - (d) Subclass 203; (j) Subclass 786;

Details of the evidence and findings about whether the delegate is satisfied GROUNDS for cancellation DO or DO NOT EXIST

[] arrived at [] airport on []. Through a baggage examination and at interview it became apparent to me that grounds existed to consider cancellation of [] subclass [] visa under s116(1)(g) and Reg 2.43(1)(ka) as [] did not appear to have an intention to stay in Australia temporarily for tourism purposes for which the visa was granted, or had ceased to have that intention.

Evidence supporting this was:

- [] claimed that the purpose of [] stay in Australia was to stay with a [] where [] would be expected to []

- Messages located on [] mobile phone indicated that [] was willing to earn extra money working as a baby sitter.

- Messages located on [] phone indicated that [] is travelling to Australia to work as an au-pair.

[] disputed that grounds for cancellation exist and stated that although [] would be living with the []

[] primary reason for travelling to Australia to day was to live in a house where [] could practice [] English 24 hours per day.

On the basis of the above evidence, I am satisfied [] did not have, at the time of the grant of the visa, or has ceased to have, an intention only to stay in, or visit, Australia temporarily for the tourism purposes for which the visa was granted.

Provide a summary of the reasons the visa holder gave why their visa should not be cancelled

[REDACTED] gave the following reasons why [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled:
 -"It didn't occur to me that I couldn't take money for a job."
 -"I said was an [REDACTED] but it is not true." [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] did not explain to [REDACTED] friend that [REDACTED] would not be paid and that the amount of work is not the same as the work an [REDACTED] would need to perform.
 -"It was a sacrifice for me to come here. I worked everyday I didn't come to school."
 -"I only come to Australia to study and speak English."
 -"It will be hard for me to go back to [REDACTED]. It was my dream from when I was a child to come to Australia to live for a little bit of time. It seems beautiful and very different."

Go to Question 11

Purpose of travel to and stay in Australia

[REDACTED] advised me that [REDACTED] is here to stay with a [REDACTED] for the entirety of [REDACTED] stay and practice her English. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] states [REDACTED] is not being paid for this work.

The [REDACTED] confirmed these details and verified that [REDACTED] will not be paid for this work.

I note however that the visa holder has also agreed to undertake paid work as a baby sitter. In addition to this, the [REDACTED], stated that initially, the visa holder did expect to be paid for the [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] would perform while a visitor at their residence.

Therefore I give little weight in favour of [REDACTED] claim.

This factor is not relevant as [REDACTED] visa is not being considered for cancellation for a breach of visa condition under s116(1)(b).

The degree of hardship which may be caused to the visa holder, their family members and others, if the visa is cancelled. (Where applicable, the best interests of a child in Australia under 18 years must be considered in accordance with Australia's obligations under the Convention on the Rights of the Child.)

I have considered the degree of hardship that may be caused to [REDACTED] if her visa is cancelled.

██████████ has informed me that it has been a dream of ██████████ since ██████████ was a child to live in Australia for a little while. ██████████ has stated that it will be hard for ██████████ to return to ██████████ without realising ██████████ dream and I have applied some weight in favour of ██████████ claim.

██████████ has also stated that it was a sacrifice for ██████████ to travel to Australia as ██████████ worked everyday that ██████████ did not attend school. I have also considered that cancellation of this visa may result in some financial loss for the visa holder and I therefore give this some weight in ██████████ favour.

8201 (1) While in Australia, the holder must not engage, for more than 3 months, in any studies or training.

(2) However, subclause (1) does not apply to a visa mentioned in the table.

██████ claims that █████ applied for the eVisitor visa because █████ only intended a three month stay in Australia and would not be undertaking paid work. However, when the message located on █████ mobile phone regarding working as a baby sitter to earn 'extra cash' was put to █████, █████ stated that it didn't occur to █████ that █████ couldn't take money for a job on the eVisitor visa. I therefore give little weight in favour of the visa holder's claim as a reason not to cancel.

██████████ also stated that ██████████ did not consider ██████████ intended onshore activities to be "work" as ██████████ would not be working in a restaurant everyday or seeking employment that attracts a salary. While I give some weight in favour of ██████████ claim that ██████████ misunderstood the meaning of "work", it is the responsibility of the visa holder to be aware of the conditions of the visa they hold.

██████████ has been honest, forthcoming and cooperative in ██████████ dealings with the Department today and I therefore give this some weight in ██████████ favour.

I have considered the legal consequences of a decision to cancel the visa, which includes detaining, removal, exclusion periods or bars from applying for other visas. I do not consider the consequences will severely impact [REDACTED], therefore I apply little weight in [REDACTED] favour when considering this factor.

After weighing up all of the information available to me, I am satisfied that the grounds for cancelling the visa outweigh the reasons for not cancelling. I have therefore decided to cancel the visa. ☒

Writing in relation to [REDACTED] who has come out to visit us and other friends in Adelaide for three months holiday, returning to [REDACTED] in January.

[REDACTED] was denied a visa by immigration at Adelaide airport late last night and is scheduled to be deported back to [REDACTED] tonight (Sunday). We haven't spoken with immigration but apparently we are the reason and rationale [REDACTED] has been denied the visa.

There has clearly been a misunderstanding that [REDACTED] was intending to work for us when [REDACTED] is here to spend time with our family, as we consider [REDACTED] to be family. We live in the [REDACTED] and have four kids who will be devastated not to see [REDACTED].

A [REDACTED] of outstanding character and integrity. [REDACTED] also made many friends in Adelaide and will spend time with them. What can we do to have this injustice resolved and have [REDACTED] tourist visa reinstated before [REDACTED] flies out tonight?

Kind regards

Writing in relation to [REDACTED] who has come out to visit us and other friends in Adelaide for three months holiday, returning to [REDACTED] in January.

[REDACTED] was denied a visa by immigration at Adelaide airport late last night and is scheduled to be deported back to [REDACTED] tonight (Sunday). We haven't spoken with immigration but apparently we are the reason and rationale [REDACTED] has been denied the visa.

There has clearly been a misunderstanding that [REDACTED] was intending to work for us when [REDACTED] is here to spend time with our family, as we consider [REDACTED] to be family. We live in the [REDACTED] and have four kids who will be devastated not to see [REDACTED].

A [REDACTED] of outstanding character and integrity. [REDACTED] also made many friends in Adelaide and will spend time with them. What can we do to have this injustice resolved and have [REDACTED] tourist visa reinstated before [REDACTED] flies out tonight?

Kind regards

No. We do 10 client briefs a day normally. Just a summary of the situation.

If a 195a submission is required (not known yet) then we'll need to make contact with [REDACTED] in Peter Richards branch. But the MO need the basic facts of case so they can decide next steps. So that's what we need now, a basic client brief.

Having reviewed the documents you sent Guy and Maree, I am just seeking to confirm that there is currently no scheduled removal date/time for this passenger. All references I can see say 'TBA,' but I just wanted to confirm this. Are there any plans to remove [REDACTED] tonight - if so, on which flight?

This is one of the key things that the MO will want to know.

Urgent Tasking - Possible 195A submission for [REDACTED]
[SEC=UNCLASSIFIED]

All

Using the information provided by James Watson/SBCC, I prepared the email below for MIBP's Chief of Staff summarising the situation with this [REDACTED] in Adelaide.

The CoS is briefing the Minister on this issue now.

However, CoS has asked for two things:

- 1) The Department to be on stand-by to prepare a s195A submission for this client before he (MIBP) departs Australia tonight (he checks in at 7.45pm in Brisbane, so 8.45pm Canberra time. He takes off at 8.45pm in Brisbane, so 9.45pm in Canberra). I believe Peter Richard's branch would lead on this.
- 2) If the Minister decides that he does want to consider intervening but is happy to do so on arrival in the Middle East tomorrow, can the Dept provide advice on whether client's removal tonight can be delayed? For clarity, the MO is not yet requesting that this removal be delayed, just advice on whether it is possible/feasible to delay this if required to give the Dept longer to prepare the s195A submission and the Minister longer to consider it. SBC to lead on this.

Grateful confirmation of this tasking. I understand that Guy will call relevant SES to alert them to this tasking.

Kind regards

Key details about this case as below:

- Client is [REDACTED]
- On [REDACTED] arrived at Adelaide International Airport on board EK 440, holding a valid TV 651 Visitor visa.
- [REDACTED] was interviewed by Border Entry Officer who established that [REDACTED] returned to Australia holding a tourist visa with intentions to work as a nanny.
- ABF refused entry into Australia.
- The Decision was made by the ABF to cancel [REDACTED] visa under s116(1)(g), Reg 2.43(1)(ka) as [REDACTED] was found to be a non-genuine visitor. Further detail about this decision to cancel is below.
- Passenger has been placed into detention at Adelaide Immigration Transit Accommodation pending removal from Australia.
- Emirates Airlines have been contacted to make arrangements for [REDACTED] return flight. Details of the departure flight are TBA, but it is expected to be evening tonight 01NOV2015 (possibly on EK441 at 2235 AEDT).

Background to cancellation decision:

- Client has been in Australia since 2012 on a combination of subclass 417 (Working Holiday), subclass 572 (Student) and subclass 651 (Visitor) visas.
- Client last departed Australia on 3 May as the holder of a subclass 651 (Tourist) visa.
- On [REDACTED] last entry to Australia, the client was spoken to by ABF officers and counselled regarding [REDACTED] work rights on a Tourist visa. The client was counselled not to undertake any form of work on a Tourist visa, including child minding.
- Client was interviewed on arrival in Adelaide last night.
- In this interview [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] would be residing with [REDACTED] for 3 months at their farm in the [REDACTED]. Client was an au-pair for this family when [REDACTED] held a Working Holiday visa in 2013 and 2014.

- [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] main goal in coming to Australia is to volunteer work. Client claimed [REDACTED] had made an appointment with the South Australian volunteer officer to seek volunteer work.
- Client also confirmed at interview that [REDACTED] would receive free accommodation for 3 months in return for helping with this family's children, cooking and riding their horses.
- Text messages on the client's phone support this.
- Client was given an opportunity to comment on why [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled. In response [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was doing volunteer work only for this family and was not being paid so [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled.

Options available for this client in the future include:

- Once the client departs, [REDACTED] will have what is commonly known as a '3 year exclusion period'. As part of a future visa application, the client can request this be waived (in relation to that visa application only). The decision maker will assess whether [REDACTED] meets the requirements for the grant of a visa despite the existence of an exclusion period (eg. compassionate or compelling reasons affecting an Australian citizen or permanent resident). [REDACTED] would still need to be meet the criteria for the visa applied for.
- The Minister does have a non-compellable Ministerial Intervention power under s195A of the Migration Act 1958 to grant a visa to a client who is currently detained. If the Minister was minded to use his Ministerial Intervention powers, it would take some time (approx 24 hours) to prepare a submission for the Minister's consideration.

You should also be aware that since I arrived at the office, the family this client was to visit [REDACTED] has called the office to raise this issue. I just noted that the office was aware of the case but didn't go into details.

Guy – thank you.

MIBP has now reviewed the case and has asked for a s195A Ministerial Intervention submission to be presented to him in Brisbane tonight before he departs (he takes off at 8.45pm Brisbane time, 9.45pm Canberra time).

Peta/Peter/[REDACTED] – can you please confirm you are working on this submission and timeframe for finalisation?

James – note that MIBP may use his MI powers tonight. Should he decide to intervene and grant a visa, then the removal would not proceed. Also, I understand that SBC arranged for airport facilitation for the Minister on departure in Brisbane tonight. Are the officers doing this facilitation able to print of a copy of the submission (when it is ready) and present it to the Minister at the airport for signature?

Using the information provided by James Watson/SBCC, I prepared the email below for MIBP's Chief of Staff summarising the situation with this [REDACTED] Tourist in Adelaide.

The CoS is briefing the Minister on this issue now.

However, CoS has asked for two things:

- 1) The Department to be on stand-by to prepare a s195A submission for this client before he (MIBP) departs Australia tonight (he checks in at 7.45pm in Brisbane, so 8.45pm Canberra time. He takes off at 8.45pm in Brisbane, so 9.45pm in Canberra). I believe Peter Richard's branch would lead on this.
- 2) If the Minister decides that he does want to consider intervening but is happy to do so on arrival in the Middle East tomorrow, can the Dept provide advice on whether client's removal tonight can be delayed ? For clarity, the MO is not yet requesting that this removal be delayed, just advice on whether it is possible/feasible to delay this if required to give the Dept longer to prepare the s195A submission and the Minister longer to consider it. SBC to lead on this.

Grateful confirmation of this tasking. I understand that Guy will call relevant SES to alert them to this tasking.

Key details about this case as below:

- Client is [REDACTED]
- On [REDACTED] arrived at Adelaide International Airport on board EK 440, holding a valid TV 651 Visitor visa.
- [REDACTED] was interviewed by Border Entry Officer who established that [REDACTED] returned to Australia holding a tourist visa with intentions to work as a nanny.
- ABF refused entry into Australia.
- The Decision was made by the ABF to cancel [REDACTED]'s visa under s116(1)(g), Reg 2.43(1)(ka) as [REDACTED] was found to be a non-genuine visitor. Further detail about this decision to cancel is below.
- Passenger has been placed into detention at Adelaide Immigration Transit Accommodation pending removal from Australia.
- Emirates Airlines have been contacted to make arrangements for [REDACTED] return flight. Details of the departure flight are TBA, but it is expected to be evening tonight 01NOV2015 (possibly on EK441 at 2235 AEDT).

Background to cancellation decision:

- Client has been in Australia since 2012 on a combination of subclass 417 (Working Holiday), subclass 572 (Student) and subclass 651 (Visitor) visas.
- Client last departed Australia on 3 May as the holder of a subclass 651 (Tourist) visa.
- On [REDACTED] last entry to Australia, the client was spoken to by ABF officers and counselled regarding [REDACTED] work rights on a Tourist visa. The client was counselled not to undertake any form of work on a Tourist visa, including child minding.
- Client was interviewed on arrival in Adelaide last night.
- In this interview [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] would be residing with [REDACTED] for 3 months at their farm in the [REDACTED]. Client was an au-pair for this family when [REDACTED] held a Working Holiday visa in 2013 and 2014.
- [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] main goal in coming to Australia is to volunteer work. Client claimed [REDACTED] had made an appointment with the South Australian volunteer officer to seek volunteer work.
- Client also confirmed at interview that [REDACTED] would receive free accommodation for 3 months in return for helping with this family's children, cooking and riding their horses.
- Text messages on the client's phone support this.
- Client was given an opportunity to comment on why [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled. In response [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was doing volunteer work only for this family and was not being paid so [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled.

Options available for this client in the future include:

- Once the client departs, [REDACTED] will have what is commonly known as a '3 year exclusion period'. As part of a future visa application, the client can request this be waived (in relation to that visa application only). The decision maker will assess whether [REDACTED] meets the requirements for the grant of a visa despite the existence of an exclusion period (eg. compassionate or compelling reasons affecting an Australian citizen or permanent resident). [REDACTED] would still need to be meet the criteria for the visa applied for.
- The Minister does have a non-compellable Ministerial Intervention power under s195A of the Migration Act 1958 to grant a visa to a client who is currently detained. If the Minister was minded to use his Ministerial Intervention powers, it would take some time (approx 24 hours) to prepare a submission for the Minister's consideration.

You should also be aware that since I arrived at the office, the family this client was to visit [REDACTED] has called the office to raise this issue. I just noted that the office was aware of the case but didn't go into details.

Kind regards

Thanks for acknowledging this request. I understand you have someone heading into the office now (thankyou).

In response to your two questions by phone, I have just confirmed the following with the Chief of Staff:

- 1) A submission is required to accompany the decision documentation (but this can be extremely short)
- 2) The Minister should be given the option to grant a new Tourist/Visitor visa valid for 3 months.

The Minister has also asked that, if he intervenes to grant a visa, that the client be very strongly counselled that they cannot work, even do volunteer or in-kind work, and that their visa would be liable for cancellation should they do so.

Kind regards

James/Clive,

After conversation with [REDACTED] and his team about logistics should the Minister decide to intervene it seems that there are two key things that will need to be looked at this evening (depending on his decision). I am just seeking confirmation that SBC will take the lead on these if we notify SBC of the Minister's decision once it has been made (just noting that if we can get these arrangements in place now, it should remove the necessity for a range of late night emails/phone calls).

- 1) Counselling the client strongly (again) about [REDACTED] visa conditions.
- 2) Arranging for the client's release from detention.

I am just seeking confirmation that SBC will take the lead on these if we notify SBC of the Minister's decision once made (just noting that if we can get these arrangements in place now, it should remove the necessity for a range of late night emails/phone calls following the Minister's consideration of the submission).

I would propose that if the Minister signs the submission and agrees to intervene that I alert SBC (and all cc'd) into this decision, and SBC then lead on these items. However, if you'd like to handle this a different way, please let me know.

Thanks Clive.

I did include (and underline) the section about the client being formally counselled earlier in the year when I forwarded SBC advice, and also called the CoS to bring this to his attention as I thought it was important information for the Minister to be aware of.

Please do provide whatever information you think should be brought to the Minister's consideration to the team preparing the 195A submission (noting that the short turnarounds).

In the meantime, I will flag with the CoS the advice about financial liability for the removal.

I note the last section of the below email re suggestion to counsel [REDACTED] (if Minister intervenes). Please note [REDACTED] was previously counselled in May 2015 about this very issue and there may be some financial liability to the Dept if the removal does not proceed as the Airline has been formally served. SBC will be providing detail which does not support the Minister intervening.

Thanks for acknowledging this request. I understand you have someone heading into the office now (thankyou).

In response to your two questions by phone, I have just confirmed the following with the Chief of Staff:

- 1) A submission is required to accompany the decision documentation (but this can be extremely short)
- 2) The Minister should be given the option to grant a new Tourist/Visitor visa valid for 3 months.

The Minister has also asked that, if he intervenes to grant a visa, that the client be very strongly counselled that they cannot work, even do volunteer or in-kind work, and that their visa would be liable for cancellation should they do so.

Guy – thank you.

MIBP has now reviewed the case and has asked for a s195A Ministerial Intervention submission to be presented to him in Brisbane tonight before he departs (he takes off at 8.45pm Brisbane time, 9.45pm Canberra time).

Peta/Peter [REDACTED] – can you please confirm you are working on this submission and timeframe for finalisation?

James – note that MIBP may use his MI powers tonight. Should he decide to intervene and grant a visa, then the removal would not proceed. Also, I understand that SBC arranged for airport facilitation for the Minister on departure in Brisbane tonight. Are the officers doing this facilitation able to print of a copy of the submission (when it is ready) and present it to the Minister at the airport for signature?

All

Using the information provided by James Watson/SBCC, I prepared the email below for MIBP's Chief of Staff summarising the situation with this French Tourist in Adelaide.

The CoS is briefing the Minister on this issue now.

However, CoS has asked for two things:

- 1) The Department to be on stand-by to prepare a s195A submission for this client before he (MIBP) departs Australia tonight (he checks in at 7.45pm in Brisbane, so 8.45pm Canberra time. He takes off at 8.45pm in Brisbane, so 9.45pm in Canberra). I believe Peter Richard's branch would lead on this.
- 2) If the Minister decides that he does want to consider intervening but is happy to do so on arrival in the Middle East tomorrow, can the Dept provide advice on whether client's removal tonight can be delayed? For clarity, the MO is not yet requesting that this removal be delayed, just advice on whether it is possible/feasible to delay this if required to give the Dept longer to prepare the s195A submission and the Minister longer to consider it. SBC to lead on this.

Grateful confirmation of this tasking. I understand that Guy will call relevant SES to alert them to this tasking.

Kind regards

Key details about this case as below:

- Client is [REDACTED]
- On [REDACTED] arrived at Adelaide International Airport on board EK 440, holding a valid TV 651 Visitor visa.
- [REDACTED] was interviewed by Border Entry Officer who established that [REDACTED] returned to Australia holding a tourist visa with intentions to work as a nanny.
- ABF refused entry into Australia.
- The Decision was made by the ABF to cancel [REDACTED] visa under s116(1)(g), Reg 2.43(1)(ka) as [REDACTED] was found to be a non-genuine visitor. Further detail about this decision to cancel is below.
- Passenger has been placed into detention at Adelaide Immigration Transit Accommodation pending removal from Australia.
- Emirates Airlines have been contacted to make arrangements for [REDACTED] return flight. Details of the departure flight are TBA, but it is expected to be evening tonight 01NOV2015 (possibly on EK441 at 2235 AEDT).

Background to cancellation decision:

- Client has been in Australia since 2012 on a combination of subclass 417 (Working Holiday), subclass 572 (Student) and subclass 651 (Visitor) visas.
- Client last departed Australia on 3 May as the holder of a subclass 651 (Tourist) visa.
- On [REDACTED] last entry to Australia, the client was spoken to by ABF officers and counselled regarding [REDACTED] work rights on a Tourist visa. The client was counselled not to undertake any form of work on a Tourist visa, including child minding.
- Client was interviewed on arrival in Adelaide last night.
- In this interview [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] would be residing with [REDACTED] for 3 months at their farm in the [REDACTED]. Client was an au-pair for this family when [REDACTED] held a Working Holiday visa in 2013 and 2014.
- [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] main goal in coming to Australia is to volunteer work. Client claimed [REDACTED] had made an appointment with the South Australian volunteer officer to seek volunteer work.
- Client also confirmed at interview that [REDACTED] would receive free accommodation for 3 months in return for helping with this family's children, cooking and riding their horses.

- Text messages on the client's phone support this.

- Client was given an opportunity to comment on why [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled. In response [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was doing volunteer work only for this family and was not being paid so [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled.

Options available for this client in the future include:

- Once the client departs, [REDACTED] will have what is commonly known as a '3 year exclusion period'. As part of a future visa application, the client can request this be waived (in relation to that visa application only). The decision maker will assess whether [REDACTED] meets the requirements for the grant of a visa despite the existence of an exclusion period (eg. compassionate or compelling reasons affecting an Australian citizen or permanent resident). [REDACTED] would still need to be meet the criteria for the visa applied for.

- The Minister does have a non-compellable Ministerial Intervention power under s195A of the Migration Act 1958 to grant a visa to a client who is currently detained. If the Minister was minded to use his Ministerial Intervention powers, it would take some time (approx 24 hours) to prepare a submission for the Minister's consideration.

You should also be aware that since I arrived at the office, the family this client was to visit ([REDACTED]) has called the office to raise this issue. I just noted that the office was aware of the case but didn't go into details.

Just a heads up that as part of the s195A MI submission, the Strategic Border Command (SBC) team will be including some advice for the Minister which highlights the fact that there will be financial implications for 'cancelling' the planned removal tonight (ie. the Dept will be financially liable for costs as formal notice had been served on Emirates of the need to remove).

They just wanted the Minister to be aware of this as part of his decision making process (I wasn't aware of it until a few mins ago).

All is currently on track to get a short submission delivered to the Minister in the lounge in Brisbane with supporting documentation. Tom – it may not be tabbed or tagged anywhere due to timeframes and the fact that airport staff don't usually deal with submissions. Are you able to double check to make sure the Minister has signed in all the places he needs to (there will be the sub and I think also at least two attachments that need his signature).

The ABF are across all the timings and contact points. I've also got SBC on standby to counsel the client about [REDACTED] visa conditions and/or release [REDACTED] from detention (of course depending on the Minister's decision).

Just to manage expectations, it may not be possible to release the client from detention tonight (given the late hour) and it would probably not be reasonable from a duty of care perspective to do so. But [REDACTED] release (should this be required) will be implemented as quickly as possible.

I'm heading home now, but available on my mobile (of course) as required.

Thanks SBC for words as below.

█ please insert and send submission to SBC copied to all addresses ASAP.

Where DIBP seeks to alter arrangements once the "Notice to Remove" under s217 has been served, there is a risk that the removal costs will no longer be met by the airline and that they will instead fall on the Department.

In the time available, we are unable to establish the extent of any further liability which may result from a decision to overturn or defer the removal.

█ have the submission ready to go but need your input now as per your suggestion below. It needs to be worded exactly as you want the minister to read it (as they will just drop it into the submission given it isn't their area of expertise). Guy is about to call you to discuss, but grateful if you could action urgently. As mentioned below, given your earlier heads up on this is the MO has specifically requested this is included.

I note the last section of the below email re suggestion to counsel [REDACTED] (if Minister intervenes). Please note [REDACTED] was previously counselled in May 2015 about this very issue and there may be some financial liability to the Dept if the removal does not proceed as the Airline has been formally served. Thanks for acknowledging this request. I understand you have someone heading into the office now (thankyou).

In response to your two questions by phone, I have just confirmed the following with the Chief of Staff:

- 1) A submission is required to accompany the decision documentation (but this can be extremely short)
- 2) The Minister should be given the option to grant a new Tourist/Visitor visa valid for 3 months.

The Minister has also asked that, if he intervenes to grant a visa, that the client be very strongly counselled that they cannot work, even do volunteer or in-kind work, and that their visa would be liable for cancellation should they do so.

Guy – thank you.

MIBP has now reviewed the case and has asked for a s195A Ministerial Intervention submission to be presented to him in Brisbane tonight before he departs (he takes off at 8.45pm Brisbane time, 9.45pm Canberra time).

Peta/Peter [REDACTED] – can you please confirm you are working on this submission and timeframe for finalisation?

James – note that MIBP may use his MI powers tonight. Should he decide to intervene and grant a visa, then the removal would not proceed. Also, I understand that SBC arranged for airport facilitation for the Minister on departure in Brisbane tonight. Are the officers doing this facilitation able to print a copy of the submission (when it is ready) and present it to the Minister at the airport for signature?

All

Using the information provided by James Watson/SBCC, I prepared the email below for MIBP's Chief of Staff summarising the situation with this [REDACTED] Tourist in Adelaide.

The CoS is briefing the Minister on this issue now.

However, CoS has asked for two things:

- 1) The Department to be on stand-by to prepare a s195A submission for this client before he (MIBP) departs Australia tonight (he checks in at 7.45pm in Brisbane, so 8.45pm Canberra time. He takes off at 8.45pm in Brisbane, so 9.45pm in Canberra). I believe Peter Richard's branch would lead on this.
- 2) If the Minister decides that he does want to consider intervening but is happy to do so on arrival in the Middle East tomorrow, can the Dept provide advice on whether client's removal tonight can be delayed? For clarity, the MO is not yet requesting that this removal be delayed, just advice on whether it is possible/feasible to delay this if required to give the Dept longer to prepare the s195A submission and the Minister longer to consider it. SBC to lead on this.

Grateful confirmation of this tasking. I understand that Guy will call relevant SES to alert them to this tasking.

Kind regards

Key details about this case as below:

- Client is [REDACTED]
- On [REDACTED] arrived at Adelaide International Airport on board EK 440, holding a valid TV 651 Visitor visa.
- [REDACTED] was interviewed by Border Entry Officer who established that [REDACTED] returned to Australia holding a tourist visa with intentions to work as a nanny.
- ABF refused entry into Australia.
- The Decision was made by the ABF to cancel [REDACTED] visa under s116(1)(g), Reg 2.43(1)(ka) as [REDACTED] was found to be a non-genuine visitor. Further detail about this decision to cancel is below.
- Passenger has been placed into detention at Adelaide Immigration Transit Accommodation pending removal from Australia.
- Emirates Airlines have been contacted to make arrangements for [REDACTED] return flight. Details of the departure flight are TBA, but it is expected to be evening tonight 01NOV2015 (possibly on EK441 at 2235 AEDT).

Background to cancellation decision:

- Client has been in Australia since 2012 on a combination of subclass 417 (Working Holiday), subclass 572 (Student) and subclass 651 (Visitor) visas.
- Client last departed Australia on 3 May as the holder of a subclass 651 (Tourist) visa.
- On [REDACTED] last entry to Australia, the client was spoken to by ABF officers and counselled regarding [REDACTED] work rights on a Tourist visa. The client was counselled not to undertake any form of work on a Tourist visa, including child minding.
- Client was interviewed on arrival in Adelaide last night.
- In this interview [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] would be residing with [REDACTED] for 3 months at their farm in the [REDACTED]. Client was an au-pair for this family when [REDACTED] held a Working Holiday visa in 2013 and 2014.
- [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] main goal in coming to Australia is to volunteer work. Client claimed [REDACTED] had made an appointment with the South Australian volunteer officer to seek volunteer work.
- Client also confirmed at interview that [REDACTED] would receive free accommodation for 3 months in return for helping with this family's children, cooking and riding their horses.
- Text messages on the client's phone support this.
- Client was given an opportunity to comment on why [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled. In response [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was doing volunteer work only for this family and was not being paid so [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled.

Options available for this client in the future include:

- Once the client departs, [REDACTED] will have what is commonly known as a '3 year exclusion period'. As part of a future visa application, the client can request this be waived (in relation to that visa application only). The decision maker will assess whether [REDACTED] meets the requirements for the grant of a visa despite the existence of an exclusion period (eg. compassionate or compelling reasons affecting an Australian citizen or permanent resident). [REDACTED] would still need to be meet the criteria for the visa applied for.

The Minister does have a non-compellable Ministerial Intervention power under s195A of the Migration Act 1958 to grant a visa to a client who is currently detained. If the Minister was minded to use his Ministerial Intervention powers, it would take some time (approx 24 hours) to prepare a submission for the Minister's consideration.

You should also be aware that since I arrived at the office, the family this client was to visit ([REDACTED]) has called the office to raise this issue. I just noted that the office was aware of the case but didn't go into details.

Hi [REDACTED]

Not sure if you've heard anything back from SBC re facilitating hand down of the grant letter at the AITA? Not sure either if they are facilitating release tonight, or obtaining consent to remain at the facility overnight if not. [REDACTED] can send the grant letter to the SBC once complete, but just need confirmation if possible.

Thanks

Thanks SBC for words as below.

[REDACTED] please insert and send submission to SBC copied to all addresses ASAP.

Where DIBP seeks to alter arrangements once the "Notice to Remove" under s217 has been served, there is a risk that the removal costs will no longer be met by the airline and that they will instead fall on the Department.

In the time available, we are unable to establish the extent of any further liability which may result from a decision to overturn or defer the removal.

James and Clive

[REDACTED] have the submission ready to go but need your input now as per your suggestion below. It needs to be worded exactly as you want the minister to read it (as they will just drop it into the submission given it isn't their area of expertise). Guy is about to call you to discuss, but grateful if you could action urgently. As mentioned below, given your earlier heads up on this the MO has specifically requested this is included.

I note the last section of the below email re suggestion to counsel [REDACTED] (if Minister intervenes). Please note [REDACTED] was previously counselled in May 2015 about this very issue and there may be some financial liability to the Dept if the removal does not proceed as the Airline has been formally served. SBC will be providing detail which does not support the Minister intervening.

Thanks for acknowledging this request. I understand you have someone heading into the office now (thankyou).

In response to your two questions by phone, I have just confirmed the following with the Chief of Staff:

- 1) A submission is required to accompany the decision documentation (but this can be extremely short)
- 2) The Minister should be given the option to grant a new Tourist/Visitor visa valid for 3 months.

The Minister has also asked that, if he intervenes to grant a visa, that the client be very strongly counselled that they cannot work, even do volunteer or in-kind work, and that their visa would be liable for cancellation should they do so.

Guy – thank you.

MIBP has now reviewed the case and has asked for a s195A Ministerial Intervention submission to be presented to him in Brisbane tonight before he departs (he takes off at 8.45pm Brisbane time, 9.45pm Canberra time).

Peta/Peter [REDACTED] – can you please confirm you are working on this submission and timeframe for finalisation?

James – note that MIBP may use his MI powers tonight. Should he decide to intervene and grant a visa, then the removal would not proceed. Also, I understand that SBC arranged for airport facilitation for the Minister on departure in Brisbane tonight. Are the officers doing this facilitation able to print a copy of the submission (when it is ready) and present it to the Minister at the airport for signature?

All

Using the information provided by James Watson/SBCC, I prepared the email below for MIBP's Chief of Staff summarising the situation with this [REDACTED] Tourist in Adelaide.

The CoS is briefing the Minister on this issue now.

However, CoS has asked for two things:

- 1) The Department to be on stand-by to prepare a s195A submission for this client before he (MIBP) departs Australia tonight (he checks in at 7.45pm in Brisbane, so 8.45pm Canberra time. He takes off at 8.45pm in Brisbane, so 9.45pm in Canberra). I believe Peter Richard's branch would lead on this.
- 2) If the Minister decides that he does want to consider intervening but is happy to do so on arrival in the Middle East tomorrow, can the Dept provide advice on whether client's removal tonight can be delayed? For clarity, the MO is not yet requesting that this removal be delayed, just advice on whether it is possible/feasible to delay this if required to give the Dept longer to prepare the s195A submission and the Minister longer to consider it. SBC to lead on this.

Grateful confirmation of this tasking. I understand that Guy will call relevant SES to alert them to this tasking.

Key details about this case as below:

- Client is [REDACTED]
- On [REDACTED] arrived at Adelaide International Airport on board EK 440, holding a valid TV 651 Visitor visa.
- [REDACTED] was interviewed by Border Entry Officer who established that [REDACTED] returned to Australia holding a tourist visa with intentions to work as a nanny.
- ABF refused entry into Australia.
- The Decision was made by the ABF to cancel [REDACTED] visa under s116(1)(g), Reg 2.43(1)(ka) as [REDACTED] was found to be a non-genuine visitor. Further detail about this decision to cancel is below.

- Passenger has been placed into detention at Adelaide Immigration Transit Accommodation pending removal from Australia.
- Emirates Airlines have been contacted to make arrangements for [REDACTED] return flight. Details of the departure flight are TBA, but it is expected to be evening tonight 01NOV2015 (possibly on EK441 at 2235 AEDT).

Background to cancellation decision:

- Client has been in Australia since 2012 on a combination of subclass 417 (Working Holiday), subclass 572 (Student) and subclass 651 (Visitor) visas.
- Client last departed Australia on 3 May as the holder of a subclass 651 (Tourist) visa.
- On [REDACTED] last entry to Australia, the client was spoken to by ABF officers and counselled regarding [REDACTED] work rights on a Tourist visa. The client was counselled not to undertake any form of work on a Tourist visa, including child minding.
- Client was interviewed on arrival in Adelaide last night.
- In this interview [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] would be residing with [REDACTED] for 3 months at their farm in the [REDACTED]. Client was an au-pair for this family when [REDACTED] held a Working Holiday visa in 2013 and 2014.
- [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] main goal in coming to Australia is to volunteer work. Client claimed [REDACTED] had made an appointment with the South Australian volunteer officer to seek volunteer work.
- Client also confirmed at interview that [REDACTED] would receive free accommodation for 3 months in return for helping with this family's children, cooking and riding their horses.
- Text messages on the client's phone support this.
- Client was given an opportunity to comment on why [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled. In response [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was doing volunteer work only for this family and was not being paid so [REDACTED] visa should not be cancelled.

Options available for this client in the future include:

- Once the client departs, [REDACTED] will have what is commonly known as a '3 year exclusion period'. As part of a future visa application, the client can request this be waived (in relation to that visa application only). The decision maker will assess whether [REDACTED] meets the requirements for the grant of a visa despite the existence of an exclusion period (eg. compassionate or compelling reasons affecting an Australian citizen or permanent resident). [REDACTED] would still need to be meet the criteria for the visa applied for.
- The Minister does have a non-compellable Ministerial Intervention power under s195A of the Migration Act 1958 to grant a visa to a client who is currently detained. If the Minister was minded to use his Ministerial Intervention powers, it would take some time (approx 24 hours) to prepare a submission for the Minister's consideration.

You should also be aware that since I arrived at the office, the family this client was to visit [REDACTED] has called the office to raise this issue. I just noted that the office was aware of the case but didn't go into details.

We live in the [REDACTED] and have four kids who will be devastated not to see [REDACTED]. A [REDACTED] of outstanding character and integrity. [REDACTED] also made many friends in Adelaide and will spend time with them. What can we do to have this injustice resolved and have [REDACTED] tourist visa reinstated before [REDACTED] flies out tonight?
Kind regards
[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]

We are unable to grant the visa in ICSE – we are getting an error message which refers us to the ICSE helpdesk. Have tried all work arounds that we know but have had no luck. The ICSE helpdesk do not work 24 hours, so we cannot reach them until tomorrow morning.

As the Minister has signed the documents and intervened, [REDACTED] holds a valid Visitor visa. Attached is the notification letter matching the Minister's decision.

In the past, when we have had ICSE issues, we have given client's their notification letter and sent them on their way. Then fixed the systems issue as soon as possible following the decision.

Could you please advise if you're happy to tell the SBC/RCQLDCC that the visa has been granted, albeit not in systems, and that [REDACTED] can be released and counselled as per the agreed plan? Concerned that they will not allow [REDACTED] release without the systems reflecting that [REDACTED] holds a valid visa. Perhaps you could be the one to advise them?

Let us know.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
