

Hey there i could like to say something, i have been in Brisbane QLD since 2001, its been 9 years now, i have study for couples of years and now worked for 2 years. I had a holiday back to my country last yare and back at Feb 2001, i have read all the website and newspaper to get job, but still cant get a job, i got couple of interview. But fianlly i cant get a job. And i am waitting on my PR decision, its already been 1 year time.

Its been so long time, and i heard about i still need to wait at least 1 year to get my PR desision.

I am plan to buy a house for further live but during to the limited of my visa i cant even do anther for it.

And i dont want say too much about complain about the government, but i spend time and money just want to get the thing i want. But now seem less and less chance for me to get PR...

And its so hard to find a job.

I have got my knowledge to work and i got ability to satay in this country, i alaready spend 9 years in Australian, the country i love, but the country seem did not feed back anything to me. I dont bag for a PR but i just want to say, its hard for people who are helping this coutry.
