

In order to maintain the integrity of our constitution and our system of government, I strongly object to the proposal to remove the executive veto over territory legislation. I do not believe it is in the interests of the people of Australia nor the ACT, of which I am one, and reflects a desire to push an agenda that is not desired by the majority, no matter how it is pushed or packaged.