Subject: Online Citizenship Ceremonies - Federal MP Involvement

Asked by: Kristina Keneally

Question:

What involvement will the local Federal MP have in the process?

Answer:

The Hon. Alan Tudge MP, Acting Minister for Immigration, Citizenship, Migrant Services and Multicultural Affairs, has written to all Members of Parliament inviting their participation in online citizenship ceremonies, as Presiding Officers.

The National Cabinet has outlined a three-step plan to gradually remove baseline restrictions and make Australia COVID-safe. As restrictions ease on a jurisdiction by jurisdiction basis, providing for a return to in-person ceremonies, local Federal MPs will be invited to attend citizenship ceremonies consistent with the protocols set out in the Australian Citizenship Ceremonies Code.

Senate Select Committee on COVID-19

QoN Number: CV19-30

Subject: Cruise Ship Ban - Secretary recommendations

Asked by: Kristina Keneally

Question:

1. Please outline how Minister Hunt enacted Secretary Pezzullo's recommendations to include "requirements and directions" that make the exemption in 5(b) subject to conditions which "would allow vessels with suspected COVID-19 cases" to be subject to "enhanced controls"?
2. Was Secretary Pezzullo satisfied with the way in which Minister Hunt acted on his recommendations as outlined in question 4?
3. Did Secretary Pezzullo raise any concerns with Minister Dutton about the way in which his recommendations were enacted as outlined in question 1?

Answer:

1. Secretary Pezzullo's advice was used by Minister Hunt in exercising his statutory functions under s477(1) of the Biosecurity Act 2015.
2. The Minister acted on the advice provided by senior officials, including Secretary Pezzullo. It would not be appropriate for an official to comment on the manner in which a Minister has performed his or her duties. For the avoidance of doubt, the Secretary is honoured to have been asked to perform his duties in support of the government of the day, and specifically to have been asked to support and advise Ministers, including Minister Hunt, during these difficult days.
3. No.
