Joint Standing Committee on the National Capital and External Territories

Review of the National Capital Authority: Biannual Public Briefings

Issue date: 5 December 2018

Talking Canberra with the National Capital Authority

The Joint Standing Committee on the National Capital and External Territories will hear from the National Capital Authority about its role in planning, promoting and maintaining the National Capital on Thursday at the Committee's biannual public briefing.

Committee Chair Ben Morton MP said: "The Committee's attention has been keenly focussed on the Canberra region over the past year with issues such as Canberra's national institutions and stage 2 of ACT light rail considered in depth. This briefing allows us to build on that work and consider other matters that are of interest in the nation's capital".

Mr Morton highlighted that members of the public are welcome to attend and observe the proceedings. Audio of the hearing will also be webcast live on the Australian Parliament's website.

Further information may be found on the Committee's website.

Biannual public briefing details:

Thursday, 6 December 2018
Committee Room 2R2, Parliament House, Canberra
10.10 a.m.—11.00 a.m. (approx.)
