

I wish to register my objection to any devolution of eco powers from the federal to state governments. This is due to

- the poor record of State governments such as Qld in environmental protection
- the importance of Australia's international World Heritage and threatened species obligations
- places and wildlife that are too precious to lose such as the reef that need strong protection