

Answer to Question on Notice – Australian Human Rights Commission

I would have to take on notice whether we keep that level of detail, but it would have to be discrimination on the basis of racism that they are coming to us for.

I can confirm that we do NOT collect that level of detail and that the complaints would have to concern racial discrimination to fall within our jurisdiction.