

If government really passes this bill, will bring massive rejections from those 147,000 applicants. This may cause the Australia migration orders out of control, and bring huge damages and losses for Australia economy. Because everyone knows a large amount of AUS's GDP and income are contributed by education and migration. By letting this bill pass will definitely bring unnecessary losses to the government. Therefore, I declare that I strongly opposite this bill.