

At this time, even more than in the past, the ABC needs to be cultural presence on the freeview marketplace. Please embody the spirit of ABC charter in all reviews, once lost, the integrity of the this wonderful institution will be so hard to revive in a media world which places little value on national & cultural identity. Please be wise and have vision with this fragile rose amongst the thorns.