

This issue is too serious to ignore. Rampant greedy and myopic "development" and expansion is not sustainable without some clear strategies to tackle the consequences of man made climate change. This affects me personally and regardless of the coal/fossil fuel lobby, business groups and other vested interests it makes utter sense to have cleaner air and sustainable energy. DON't invest in Greens policies at your peril.
Tobin Saunders.

Tobin Saunders