

Westpac response to Question on Notice

- 1. Does anyone in your organisation currently hold a sponsored pass to Parliament House?
and
- 2. If so, who, and which Member of Parliament sponsors that pass?

From time to time, Westpac employees may hold a sponsored security pass to Australian Parliament House (APH) to engage with government officials. Currently, two Westpac employees hold sponsored security passes. Passes are issued in accordance with the APH Private Area Access Policy. The Australian Parliament website states that the Security Pass Office maintain the Authorised Officer (sponsor) register.
