

I wish to show my disapproval of the government's concept of publishing NAPLAN data on the MySchool website. Our data is very personal as we have low numbers. Our population varies from year to year and our data can be clearly linked to individuals which is demoralising. The data is a very shallow look at our very complex assessment schedule and to be judged on it neglects the other areas of our school. Please do not publish this data. Geoff Lacey.