

I wish to make just one point: that bank ‘exception fees’ can be double what they appear. When I mistimed some cashflows in my St George Bank account and my Diners Club direct debit bounced, St George charged the same fee to both me and Diners Club — who then made me indemnify them. So it cost me $70!

IAN DOUGLAS